Ideas and Economic Crises in Britain from Attlee to Blair (1945-2005) Matthias Matthijs, 2012-08-21 During the period from 1945 to 2005 Britain underwent two deep seated institutional transformations when political elites successfully challenged the prevailing wisdom on how to govern the economy Attlee and Thatcher were able to effectively implement most of their political platforms During this period there were also two opportunities to challenge existing institutional arrangements Heath's U turn in 1972 signalled his failure to implement the radical agenda promised upon election in 1970 whilst Tony Blair's New Labour similarly failed to instigate a major break with the Thatcherite settlement Rather than simply retell the story of British economic policymaking since World War II this book offers a theoretically informed version of events which draws upon the literatures on institutional path dependence economic constructivism and political economy to explain this puzzle It will be of great interest to both researchers and postgraduates with an interest in British economic history and the fields of political economy and economic crisis more widely The Ephemeral Civilization Graeme Snooks, 2002-09-11 The Ephemeral Civilization is an astonishing intellectual feat in which Graeme Snooks develops an original and ground breaking analysis of changing sociopolitical forms over the past 3 000 years Snooks challenges the prevailing theories of social evolutionism with an innovative approach which also looks ahead to the twenty first century The Ephemeral Civilization builds on the model of dynamic strategy outlined in the author's highly acclaimed companion volume The Dynamic Society The Ephemeral Society is divided into three parts theory history and future The Transformation of British Life, 1950-2000 Andrew Rosen, 2003 This book should be of use to undergraduates reading modern British history as well as students of modern British culture and society Understanding the Victorians Susie L.
