Economic Sanctions Reconsidered:

Economic Sanctions Reconsidered Gary Clyde Hufbauer, Jeffrey J. Schott, Kimberly Ann Elliott, Barbara Oegg, 2008-11-15 Economic sanctions continue to play an important role in the response to terrorism nuclear proliferation military conflicts and other foreign policy crises But poor design and implementation of sanctions policies often mean that they fall short of their desired effects This landmark study first published in 1985 delves into the rich experience of sanctions in the 20th century to harvest lessons on how to use sanctions more effectively This volume is the updated third edition of this widely cited study It chronicles and examines 170 cases of economic sanctions imposed since World War I Fifty of these cases were launched in the 1990s and are new to this edition Special attention is paid to new developments arising from the end of the Cold War and increasing globalization of the world economy Analyzing a range of economic and political factors that can influence the success of a sanctions episode the authors distill a set of commandments to guide policymakers in the effective use of sanctions

Peter van Bergeijk brings together 40 leading experts from all continents to analyze state of the art data covering the sharp increase in smart sanctions in the last decade Original chapters provide detailed analyses on the determinants of sanction success and failure complemented with research on the impact of sanctions

Economic Sanctions Reconsidered Gary Clyde Hufbauer,1990 A Strategic Understanding of UN Economic Sanctions Golnoosh Hakimdavar,2013-10-08 Economic Sanctions are increasingly used as a legal non military technique of combating abusers of international peace However it remains unclear how the success or failure of these sanctions is measured This book examines the seldom explored United Nations economic sanctions deliberation process and exposes systematic problems in the measurement of the success or failure of these sanctions Centering on the key concepts of peace and security the author brings the reader s attention to the discrepancies that exist in the process of decision making implementation and evaluation of UN imposed economic sanctions She engages international law and development methods to provide proof for the lack of consensus in measures of success and failure which in turn suggests that sanction implementation on a uniform domestic front are unattainable This thorough analysis concludes with suggestions for improving the sanctions process only to clear the path for negating them as a whole and suggest alternative non coercive measures for mitigating conflict situations and threats to peace and security
