The UNECE Convention on Access to Information Public Participation in Decision Making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters known ubiquitously as the Aarhus Convention is having an ever increasing influence on domestic and EU environmental law and procedure Recent years have seen a steady flow of case law from the UK courts the Court of Justice of the European Union CJEU and the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee a raft of civil procedure reforms in response to concerns about whether the costs rules in domestic environmental litigation are compatible with the Convention and an infraction by the European Commission against the UK alleging various systemic breaches Even the EU itself has been the subject of a ruling by the Compliance Committee that the CJEU s rules on standing for judicial review of EU legislation are too narrow to comply with the Convention This book written by several of the leading experts in the field provides a comprehensive guide to the implementation of the Convention in each of the UK s jurisdictions the three pillars of the Convention access to information public participation and access to justice and the mechanisms by which the rights under the Convention can be enforced Teaching and Assessment in the Era of Education 5.0 Chemsî, Ghizlane, Elimadi, Imane, Sadiq, Mounir, Radid, Mohamed, 2024-07-17 In the rapidly evolving landscape of Education 5.0 educators and institutions grapple with unprecedented challenges in leveraging digital technologies to enhance teaching learning and assessment The profound shift towards a more humanized educational experience focusing on social and emotional growth alongside skill development demands a paradigmatic transformation However a palpable gap exists in understanding and navigating the complexities of this digital transition Educators students and administrators are left facing dilemmas related to pedagogical innovation technology integration and effective learning assessment in the digital age Enter Teaching and Assessment in the Era of Education 5.0 a definitive guide poised to bridge the gap between the challenges posed by Education 5.0 and actionable solutions The current educational milieu faces a conundrum as it attempts to adapt to the tenets of Education 5.0 The digital transition poses challenges from incorporating immersive technologies to understanding the attitudes of educators and students towards digitization Furthermore the design and implementation of training and distance learning systems require a nuanced approach calling for engineering expertise in training pedagogy and tutoring The assessment landscape crucial for gauging the effectiveness of learning in the digital era grapples with contemporary trends ethical considerations and the ever present specter of plagiarism This multifaceted challenge necessitates a comprehensive resource that not only delineates the issues but offers actionable solutions to navigate this transformative journey Assessment and Recovery of Tax Incentives in the EC and the WTO Raymond H. C. Luja, 2003 This book enables readers with a tax background to place taxation in the perspective of trade subsidy regulation For experts in the field of EC state aid regulation and or the WTO Subsidies Agreement it provides insight in certain tax aspects of both regimes Strategic Environmental Assessment in International and European Law Simon Marsden, 2012-05-16 Strategic environmental assessment SEA is a regulatory requirement for development across Europe North America Australasia and elsewhere yet understanding the legal aspects is challenging This comprehensive guide provides that understanding in a clear and straightforward way The introduction considers SEA and the law explaining what SEA is why it is needed how it works and why it is required as well as examining the role of the law Part One provides an overview of international law environmental impact assessment EIA and international law including treaties customary international law and soft law relevant to SEA It analyses the Kiev SEA Protocol and related UNECE conventions the Espoo Convention on EIA in a Transboundary Context and the Aarhus Convention on Access to Information Public Participation and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters It also analyses the role of SEA in conservation conventions Part Two considers how the European legal system works including an overview of the current status of European law It examines the EIA Directive and SEA Directive together with other relevant directives and regulations such as the Habitats and Wild Birds Directives the Water Framework Directive the Public Participation for Plans and Programmes Directive and the Structural Funds Regulations Finally the volume draws conclusions about the relationship and comparisons between international and European law generally and in regulating SEA Accounting, Evaluation and Economic Behavior Raymond J. Chambers, 2006 Reflects the diversity of interests of the Sydney University accounting school during the 1960s and 70s and recognises the tremendous impact of the foundation professor of accounting RJ Chambers The aim is to ensure that the ideas developed during this period remain available to new generations of scholars Taming the Big Green Elephant Ariel Macaspac Hernández, 2020-11-30 In this open access publication it is shown that sustainable low carbon development is a transformative process that constitutes the shifting from the initially chosen or taken pathway to another pathway as goals have been re visited and revised to enable the system to adapt to changes However shifting entails transition costs that are accrued through the effects of lock ins that have framed decisions and collective actions The uncertainty about these costs can be overwhelming or even disruptive This book aims to provide a comprehensive and integrated analytical framework that promotes the understanding of transformation towards sustainability The analysis of this book is built upon negotiative perspectives to help define design and facilitate collective actions in order to execute the principles of sustainability The Project Share Collection, 1976-1979 Project Share, 1979 The Economic Theory of Structure and Change Mauro Baranzini, Roberto Scazzieri, 1990 This wide ranging 1991 inquiry into the general field of structural economic analysis provides a thorough appraisal of the method of economic dynamics Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation Francine P. Peterman, 2005-05-06 Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents an argument for and invites critical examination of teacher preparation and assessment practices in light of both the complexity and demands of urban settings and the theories of learning and learning to teach that guide teacher education practices This dynamic approach distinguishes the authors stance on urban teacher assessment as one that can help address social justice issues related to gender race socioeconomic class and other differences and at the same time promote the professional development of all educators engaged in the process of learning to teach The contextually bound sociocultural stance that informs this book promises greater teacher and student achievement Culminating six years of vital dialogue and focused local activity among teachers and teacher educators from institutions in the Urban Network to Improve Teacher Education Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents the historical context that was examined for this work a theoretical framework to undergrad teacher preparation assessment and design principles to guide the development of assessment systems four case studies of participants struggles and successes in designing and implementing these systems and a discussion of the importance of context and current trends in assessment practices in urban teaching This volume is particularly relevant for university and school based teacher educators who help prepare teachers to work in urban schools and for personnel in state departments of education and other agencies who are responsible for certification and beginning teacher support While the focus is on preparing teachers for urban settings the theoretical and practical foundations and the case studies have broad implications and provide useful insights for anyone involved in developing and using performance assessment systems teacher educators university and school administrators classroom teachers and educational researchers

An Approach to Economic Evaluation of Actions for Health Harri Sintonen,1981 Metropolitan Plan Evaluation Methodology David E. Boyce,Norman D. Day,1969 Sustainable Food System Assessment Alison Blay-Palmer,Damien Conaré,Ken Meter,Amanda Di Battista,Carla Johnston,2019-11-22 Sustainable Food System Assessment provides both practical and theoretical insights about the growing interest in and response to measuring food system sustainability Bringing together research from the Global North and South this book shares lessons learned explores intended and actual project outcomes and highlights points of conceptual and methodological convergence Interest in assessing food system sustainability is growing as evidenced by the Milan Urban Food Policy Pact and the importance food systems initiatives have taken in serving as a lever for attaining the UN Sustainable Development Goals This book opens by looking at the conceptual considerations of food systems indicators including the place based dimensions of food systems indicators and how measurements are implicated in sense making and visioning processes Chapters in the second part cover operationalizing metrics including the development of food systems indicator frameworks degrees of indicator complexities and practical constraints to assessment The final part focuses on the outcomes of assessment projects including impacts on food policy and communities involved highlighting the importance of building connections between sustainable food systems initiatives The global coverage and multi scalar perspectives including both conceptual and practical aspects make this a key resource for academics and practitioners across planning geography urban studies food studies and research methods It will also be of interest to government officials and those working within NGOs The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.routledge.com/Sustainable+Food+System+Assessment+Lessons+from+Global+Practice/Blay+Palmer+Conare+Meter+Battista+Johnston/p/book/9781032083933> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license What Makes Clusters Competitive? Anil Hira, 2013-11-01 While global competitiveness is increasingly invoked as necessary for economic success stories there are few answers available about how it can be achieved or maintained The idea of stimulating industries to spur on economies is often proposed but industrial policy can be seen as a boondoggle of government spending and theorists of globalization are doubtful that such efforts can succeed in a world of fragmented supply chains What Makes Clusters Competitive tests fundamental theoretical hypotheses about what makes industries competitive in a globalized world by using the wine industries of several countries as case studies Extremadura Spain Tuscany Italy South Australia Chile and British Columbia Canada Taking into account historical and location specific characteristics and drawing out policy lessons for other regions that would like to promote their industries this volume demonstrates the value of applying cluster theory to understand market forces while also describing the forces underlying the development of the wine industry in a range of different settings An excellent resource for those interested in what makes industries succeed or struggle What Makes Clusters Competitive offers guidance for policymakers and the private sector on how to promote local industries Contributors include David Aylward Alexis Bwenge Sara Daniele F J Mesas Daz Christian Felzenstein Husam Gabreldar F Pulido Garcia Sarah Giest Elisa Giuliani Andy Hira Mike Howlett A F Pulido Moreno and Oriana Perrone Regulatory Policy and Governance Supporting Economic Growth and Serving the Public Interest OECD, 2011-10-25 This report encourages governments to think big about the relevance of regulatory policy and assesses the recent efforts of OECD countries to develop and deepen regulatory policy and governance The Public, 1914 The Structure and Operation of Modern Economies Alessandro Romagnoli, 2023-11-17 This book is about the economy rather than economics It explores the structures inner workings and problems of modern economies showing how the organisations and networks that shape the structure of the economy are arranged to provide society with goods and services At the centre of the analysis there is the economic system characterised by organisational components carrying out economic functions production consumption distribution and establishment and control of the economic activities as well as provision of public goods and services and by a co evolving dynamic with the state The economic system is thus a machine that modern states have organised through their laws and international agreements The book incorporates a historical approach which reveals the varieties structure and evolution of capitalism as the defining economic system of the modern age Ultimately the book demonstrates that the economic sphere and the political sphere are the two powers ruling people's lives the economy is the result of their interactions This book will be of great interest to readers in political economy economics sociology and political science
