Ecrits Sur Lart:

Les écrits sur l'art d'André Malraux Julien Dieudonné, 2006 Ces études analysent les écrits d'André Malraux sur l'art textes théoriques critiques et littéraires en les confrontant avec d'autres écrits contemporains afin d'en montrer l'originalité Henri Matisse Catherine Bock-Weiss, Henri Matisse, 2009 A series of linked essays that considers different aspects of Matisse's life and work revealing how the artist worked against many of the main tenets of modernism Provided by publisher Art and Time Derek Allan, 2014-09-18 A well known feature of great works of art is their power to live on long after the moment of their creation to remain vital and alive long after the culture in which they were born has passed into history This power to transcend time is common to works as various as the plays of Shakespeare the Victory of Samothrace and many works from early cultures such as Egypt and Buddhist India which we often encounter today in major art museums What is the nature of this power and how does it operate The Renaissance decided that works of art are timeless immortal immune from historical change and this idea has exerted a profound influence on Western thought But do we still believe it Does it match our experience of art today which includes so many works from the past that spent long periods in oblivion and have clearly not been immune from historical change This book examines the seemingly miraculous power of art to transcend time an issue widely neglected in contemporary aesthetics Tracing the history of the question from the Renaissance onwards and discussing thinkers as various as David Hume Hegel Marx Walter Benjamin Sartre and Theodor Adorno the book argues that art transcends time through a process of metamorphosis a thesis first developed by the French art theorist André Malraux The implications of this idea pose major challenges for traditional thinking about the nature of art Ancient Egyptian Portraiture Alessio Delli Castelli, 2024-12-09 Ancient Egyptian Portraiture History of an Idea concerns the origin nature and removal the unravelling and explanation of the impasse pertaining to the definition assessment and judgement of Ancient Egyptian portraiture Condensed in the syntagm different from ours this impasse arises from the polarisation and dichotomy of idealism and realism which characterise the three main Egyptological definitions of portraiture In offering a transcendental definition of art and portraiture that is anthropologically valid the overarching aim of this book is to challenge assessments of Egyptian art and portraiture based on historically particularistic concepts that are foreign to its cultural premises and development L'Art Français et Francophone depuis 1980 / Contemporary French and Francophone Art, 2005-01-01 Ce volume présente vingt trois essais consacrés à l'art français et francophone des vingt cinq dernières années et propose des analyses critiques d'une cinquantaine d'artistes majeurs qui travaillent sur des modes richement variés The volume offers 23 new critical essays on contemporary French and francophone art dealing with some fifty major artists working in a wide range of mediums Colourworks Susan Harrow, 2020-12-10 How do modern writers write colour How do today's readers respond to the invitation to think colour as they read poetry and art writing and explore paintings To what extent can critical thought on colour in visual media illuminate the textual life of colour These are some of the lines of enquiry pursued in this bold new study of modern poetry and art writing in French where colour Susan Harrow argues is integral to the exploration of ethics ekphrasis objects bodies landscape and interiority The question of colour in a variety of disciplines and media has provoked debate from Aristotle to Goethe and from Baudelaire to Derek Jarman If the past twenty years have witnessed a colour turn in contemporary cultural studies and screen research colour values in literary and textual media are often elided or simply overlooked Colourworks tackles this lacuna in the study of modern poetry and art writing in French revealing the integral role of colour in the work of three iconic French writers in the modern tradition St phane Mallarm Paul Val ry and Yves Bonnefoy This book spans the broad modern period from the 1860s to the early twenty first century in taking an exploratory approach to the viscosity of the verbal medium through an adventurous reading of text and image Harrow uncovers how colour moves and morphs in texts as it challenges the traditionalist containments of chromatic symbolism Beyond its primary area of investigation in modern poetry and art writing in French this richly colour illustrated study has significant interdisciplinary implications conceptual methodological and practical for the study of viscosity in humanities research from literature studies to material and visual culture studies Manet's Modernism Michael Fried,1996-07 Fried put forward a highly original beholder centered account of the evolution of a central tradition in French painting from Chardin to Courbet P 4 of cover Écrits sur l'art contemporain et les artistes Jean-François Lyotard,

Art and the Human Adventure Derek Allan,2009 Derek Allan has published widely on aspects of Malraux s works and the theory of art and literature He holds a PhD in Philosophy and a Masters degree in French Language and Literature and is currently a Visiting Scholar in the School of Humanities at the Australian National University Book Jacket Écrits sur l'art moderne Aragon,1981 Deconstruction and the Work of Art Martta Heikkilä,2021-07-29 The contemporary idea of the work of art is paradoxically both widely used and often unexamined Therefore we must re evaluate the concept before we can understand what the deconstruction of aesthetics means for thinkers like Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe By examining their analyses of works of visual art and contextualizing their thinking on the matter Martta Heikkil asserts that the implications of the work of art art and the aesthetic apply not only to philosophical questions but also to a broader area Instead of the totality represented by the historical concept of Art poststructuralist thinkers introduce the idea of the radical multiplicity of art and its works From this notion arises the fundamental issue in Derrida and the poststructuralist tradition how can we speak philosophically of art which always exists as singular instances as works In Deconstruction and the Work of Art Visual Arts and Their Critique in Contemporary French Thought Heikkil shows that the deconstructionist notions of art are still influential in the discourses of contemporary art in which artworks proliferate and the concept of work is open ended and expanding This book offers an introduction to the deconstructionist theory of art and brings new perspectives to the complex undecidable relation between philosophy and art Symbolism, Its Origins and Its Consequences Rosina Neginsky,2010-08-11 The notion of the symbol is at the root of the Symbolist movement but this symbol is different from the way it was used and understood in the Middle Ages and Renaissance In the Symbolist movement a symbol is not an allegory The Belgian writer Maurice Maeterlinck defined its essence in an article that appeared on April 24 1887 in L'Art moderne He wrote that the notion of a symbol in the Symbolist movement is the opposite of the notion of the symbol in classical usage instead of going from the abstract to the concrete Venus incarnated in the statue represents love it goes from the concrete to the abstract from what is seen heard felt tasted and sensed to the evocation of the idea This volume attempts to give a glimpse into the power of the Symbolist movement and the nature of its fundamental and interdisciplinary role in the evolution of art and literature of the twentieth century It records the studies of a group of scholars who met and discussed these topics together for the first time in 2009 While illuminating the specificity of Symbolism in art architecture and literature in different European countries these articles also demonstrate the crucial role of French Symbolism in the development of the international Symbolist movement The authors hope that an expanding group a society of Art Literature and Music in Symbolism and Decadence ALMSD born out of the first meeting will continue to further this discussion at future conferences and in the printed conference proceedings

Abstract Painting in Canada Roald Nasgaard, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, 2008 In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris Two decades later the Automatistes Canada's first truly independent avant garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York Montreal's Plasticiens launched their own razor edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg's post painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada's young artists A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery

Anthropological and historical sciences. Aesthetics and the sciences of art Jacques Havet, 2019-06-04 No detailed description available for Anthropological and historical sciences Aesthetics and the sciences of art Christian Krohg's Naturalism Øystein Sjøstad, 2017-11-01 The definitive English language account of a singular Nordic artist The Norwegian painter novelist and social critic Christian Krohg 1852-1925 is best known for creating highly political paintings of workers prostitutes and Skagen fishermen of the 1880s and for serving as a mentor to Edvard Munch One of the Nordic countries most avant garde naturalist artists Krohg was influenced by French thinkers such as Émile Zola Claude Bernard and Hippolyte Taine and he

shocked the provincial sensibilities of his time His work reached beyond the art world when his book Albertine and its related paintings were banned upon publication Telling the story of a young seamstress who turns to a life of prostitution it galvanized support for outlawing prostitution in Norway but Krohg was also punished for the work's sexual content Examining the theories of Krohg and his fellow naturalists and their reception in Scandinavian intellectual circles ystein Sjøstad places Krohg in an international perspective and reveals his striking contribution to European naturalism In the process Christian Krohg's Naturalism provides an unparalleled account of Krohg's art Karel Appel, a gesture of colour Jean-François Lyotard, 2009 Karel Appel A gesture of colour is the first of a series of five volumes bringing together the most important writings of Jean-François Lyotard 1924-1998 on contemporary art and artists The book he devoted to the art of Karel Appel 1921-2006 is without doubt one of the most complete and inspired texts of all the writing included in the series Neither the original French manuscript nor the English translation has ever been published before and their presentation face to face should constitute a considerable plus In this book Lyotard presents Karel Appel's matterism as an offer of presence presence deferred it is the visual where every predicate is suspended the visual touched gesture of colour more than property of colour appearance at the edge of the abyss Christine Buci Glucksmann's epilogue situates Karel Appel A gesture of colour within the whole of Lyotard's writings on art and his subsequent work P 4 of cover The Book on the Floor WALTER GRASSKAMP, 2016-12-10 In 1954 the French writer politician and publisher André Malraux posed at home for a photographer from the magazine Paris Match surrounded by pages from his forthcoming book Le musée imaginaire de la sculpture mondiale The enchanting metaphor of the musée imaginaire imaginary museum was built upon that illustrated art book and Malraux was one of its greatest champions Drawing on a range of contemporary publications he adopted images and responded to ideas Indeed Malraux's book on the floor is a variation of photographer André Vigneau's spectacular Encyclopédie photographique de l'art published in five volumes from 1935 on years before Malraux would enter this field Both authors were engaged in juxtaposing artworks via photographs and publishing these photographs by the hundreds but Malraux was the better sloganeer Starting from a close examination of the photograph of Malraux in his salon art historian Walter Grasskamp takes the reader back to the dawn of this genre of illustrated art book He shows how it catalyzed the practice of comparing works of art on a global scale He retraces the metaphor to earlier reproduction practices and highlights its ubiquity in contemporary art ending with an homage to the other pioneer of the museum without walls the unjustly forgotten Vigneau Emile Zola and the Artistry of Adaptation Kate Griffiths, 2009 Filmmakers have drawn inspiration from the pages of Emile Zola from the earliest days of cinema The ever growing number of adaptations they have produced spans eras genres languages and styles In spite of the diversity of these approaches numerous critics regard them as inferior copies of a superior textual original But key novels by Zola resist this critical approach to adaptation Both at the level of characterization and in terms of their own textual inheritance they question the very possibility of origin be it personal or textual In the light of this questioning the cinematic versions created from Zola's texts merit critical re-evaluation Far from being facile copies of the nineteenth century novelist's works these films assess their own status as adaptations playing with both notions of artistic creation and their own artistic act

Re-Reading Zola and Worldwide Naturalism

Marie-Sophie Armstrong, Riikka Rossi, Carolyn Snipes-Hoyt, 2013-07-26 Re-Reading Zola and Worldwide Naturalism continues the discussion of Émile Zola and French naturalism with examinations of unexplored areas of the founding father's project and legacy In addition to offering essays on Zola's lesser known naturalist contemporaries the volume extends the investigation of the naturalist literary current to include areas of Europe outside France as well as the Americas and Asia tracking its persistence in various forms through the twentieth century and into the twenty first The authors pay particular attention to the ways naturalism was conceived and then received including in other channels undergoing transformations in new social conditions and creating other versions of the basic precepts This work features multidisciplinary and comparative approaches to the study of naturalism paying tribute to Anna Gural Migdal a Professor of French Literature and Film Studies at the University of Alberta in Canada who specializes in the visual aspect of Zola's Rougon Macquart novels and the transfer of these strategies to naturalist film She has been a leader in the field of Zola and naturalism in her role as president of the AIZEN for almost fifteen of its twenty years of existence
