Good Practice in Risk Assessment and Risk Management Hazel Kemshall,1996 This book examines the key issues and methods of risk measurement and management A variety of social care settings are included with examples of practice

Good Practice in Risk Assessment and Risk Management 2 Hazel Kemshall,Jacki Pritchard,1997 The range of problems that arise due to violence mental health problems substance abuse and familial breakup require fast accurate risk assessment These two volumes by Kemshall and Pritchard explores the techniques needed to solve such problems

Good Practice with Vulnerable Adults Jacki Pritchard,2001 Addresses key problems and dilemmas in working to protect vulnerable adults such as the elderly or those with physical disabilities from abuse and to support those who have already experienced abuse or neglect Contributors make practical suggestions for working with both victims and abusers

Good Practice in Adult Mental Health Jacki Pritchard,Tony Ryan,2004-06-15 This text is a guide to good practice within adult mental health care providing a comprehensive introduction to mental health and illness It is designed to aid mental health professionals and workers and any individuals coming in to contact with mental illness in recognising a mental health need or problem and offering appropriate support

Good Practice in Working with Violence Hazel Kemshall,Jacki Pritchard,1999 Approaching the issue from a practitioner's viewpoint Good Practice in Working with Violence focuses on working with perpetrators of violence that has resulted in both physical and psychological harm Drawing on the experiences of contributors from a range of backgrounds the book discusses the challenges involved in working with violence and its effects Relevant for a variety of practice settings Good Practice in Working with Violence is a comprehensive guide to the techniques and skills required for good practice in assessing and managing violence

Good Practice in Counselling People who Have Been Abused Zetta Bear,1998 By addressing the issues of physical emotional sexual and financial abuse and neglect experienced in childhood or adulthood this book aims to provide the reader with a theoretical understanding of people who have been abused and a range of practical approaches to counselling them

Pastoral Supervision: A Handbook Jane Leach,Michael Paterson,2015-07-31 Pastoral Supervision is increasingly sought out by people working in ministry It offers a safe space to reflect theologically and constructively on pastoral experience Pastoral Supervision A Handbook is the standard text for what is a growing discipline and endorsed by APSE the Association of Pastoral Supervisors and Educators which is now established as an accrediting professional body for all involved in supervision in a Christian context Much has happened in the discipline since the first edition was published The second edition contains a new foreword a new introduction written by the authors a new chapter on the nuts and bolts of structuring a supervision session a new chapter on embodied active supervision literature updates and textual improvements to the extant chapters Good Practice in Safeguarding Adults Jacki Pritchard, 2008-07-15 Good Practice in Safeguarding Adults provides an up to date and topical overview of developments in policy guidance legislation and practice in the area of adult protection The book aims to broaden thinking about adult abuse assesses alternative models of practice such as criminal justice and welfare and covers groups who may be overlooked Critical Issues in Youth Work Management Jon Ord, 2013-06-17 This valuable textbook communicates the complexities and controversies at the heart of youth work management exploring key issues in a critical fashion Written by a team of experienced youth work lecturers the chapters cover topics such as planning evaluation and supervision whilst acknowledging the changing structures of integrated services and the impact of public service reform Divided into three sections it covers Historical and theoretical context Critical practice issues including leadership policy constraints planning and accountability Managing in different settings for instance integrated services and the voluntary sector Aimed at both youth work students studying for their professional qualification as well as practicing managers Critical Issues in Youth Work Management encourages critical thinking about what management in youth work is and what it can be It includes reflective questions and further reading and case studies are integrated throughout Principles and Practice of Informal Education Linda Deer Richardson, Mary Wolfe, 2004-11-23 This new and exciting text is aimed at informal educators involved in youth work community work and adult education and health promotion The contributors explore the principles and practice of informal education and focus in particular on the notion of working with which is central to practice in this sector The book argues for an approach which is relevant to a number of professional fields and which focuses on a way of working rather than upon a specific target group The book looks at the role of an educator in informal education and youth work settings Comprehensive and analytical it looks at social cultural and political contexts of education The authors discuss the practical side of teaching from the setting programme planning and communication to activity based work one to one case work formal group work and managing the work load Finally the book analyses developing professional practice the use of line management and supervision and evaluation of work Online Supervision Anne Stokes, 2023-04-21 As online therapy becomes more mainstream the importance of using a means of supervision which parallels this is increasingly being recognised by practitioners and the professional bodies Very little has been written about this newly developing way of working so this book is timely Online Supervision A Handbook for Practitioners covers a wide range of issues from the practical aspects of how supervision happens through research legal and ethical issues to specific therapeutic settings and issues Existing models of supervision are considered in the context of the online setting and new models which have been developed specifically for supervising online are explored All chapters are authored by experienced online therapists and supervisors who bring their considerable knowledge from their practice to illuminate this growing area of the profession In many chapters anonymised case examples illustrate the text alongside reflective activities which readers can choose to undertake While the book aims to develop the practice of online supervision of online therapists it is recognised that there are circumstances which mean that some practitioners may choose to engage in online supervision of their face to face work This is recognised and guidelines for offering and engaging in online supervision are discussed Many practitioners begin to offer online supervision without specialised training and the final chapter centres on a discussion about the value and necessity of undertaking preparation for working in a new medium Online Supervision A Handbook for Practitioners will be highly readable and accessible to both experienced practitioners and newcomers to this field New Frontiers in HRD

Monica Lee, Jim Stewart, Jean Woodall, 2004-06-24 Factors such as globalisation restructuring casualization of employment and the erosion of pension rights have led to massive tensions in contemporary organizations By exploring the boundaries of the field of Human Resource Development this book asks where is HRD in the middle of all this and presents an innovative and challenging approach to HR Safeguarding Children and Young People Stella Coleman, Corinne

May-Chahal, 2013-06-17 What does the novice practitioner or the experienced practitioner moving into child care work from another sector need to know to practice effectively What skills do they need to call on In this valuable addition to The Social Work Skills Series Stella Coleman and Corinne May Chahal bring together their considerable teaching and practice experience to provide a reliable and practical guide to child protection work Topics covered include the legal and procedural context the professional context explanatory theoretical frameworks and models of practice managing risk evidence based practice social work interventions parents carers and families continuing professional development This is an essential text for all students teachers and professionals working with children and families The Child Protection Handbook E-Book
