Good Sense Transformational Stewardship For Today's Church:

Good Sense Budget Course Dick Towner, John Tofilon, 2002-05-14 Everything you need to conduct 6 life changing sessions A proven resource for changing hearts and lives in the area of finances Good Sense can help relieve the stress and anxiety caused by consumer debt restore marriages torn by conflict over money and more Good Sense Counselor Training Workshop Participant's Guide and Manual Dick Towner, John Tofilon, 2002-05-14 Grace Joy Freedom This is a field tested proven resource for changing hearts and lives in the area of finances If You Want to Walk on Water, You've Got to Get Out of the Boat John Ortberg, Stephen Sorenson, Amanda Sorenson, 2003-07-24 Ortberg in his engaging and humorous style reflects on the biblical story in Matthew 14 and applies it to our lives today He helps us recognize what boat we're in the comfortable situation where we're hiding and encourages us to face our fears and embrace the unique calling of God in our lives The Steward's Way C. Justin Clements, 1997 These helpful essays have been grouped into topical categories ranging from basic concepts of stewardship to parish and personal issues in stewardship as well as an exploration of stewardship of time and talent and finally a look at stewardship of treasure An altogether helpful resource for anyone involved in making stewardship a reality in the life of the church Generosity, Stewardship, and Abundance Lovett H. Weems Jr., Ann A. Michel, 2021-05-09 God's purpose in calling us to lives of faithful stewardship and generosity isn't merely to sustain the church Rather the continued existence of the church is essential to sustain the powerful transformative message of our faith Lovett H. Weems Jr. and Ann A. Michel present the Bible's redeeming and transforming message of generosity stewardship and abundance in this comprehensive guide to Christian financial responsibility The book provides practical advice to pastors and church leaders tasked with funding ministry and inspiring others toward responsible stewardship and greater generosity It addresses church fundraising stewardship campaigns budgets financing capital needs endowments and innovative approaches to economic sustainability The book integrates the theological and practical dimensions of finance to empower congregational leaders to think critically about stewardship from a Christian perspective help them use their personal and congregational possessions in the light of faith Transforming Stewardship C.K. Robertson, 2009-02-01 At once a travel guide and a vision for the future this series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change It analyzes the present plight of the church and sketches a positive way forward sprouting from the seeds of change those transformative practices already at work renewing the church What church models can help point us toward transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look For most Episcopalians stewardship is synonymous with pledge drives budgets and capital campaigns but the Bible is clear that God wants more than our tithes and offerings Looking to its scriptural roots in 1

Chronicles Luke Acts and the letters of Paul as well as St Francis third way Robertson offers a vision of holistic stewardship for the whole church holistic because it can't be separated from evangelism outreach scripture study and ministry to the newcomer It does not involve strong arm tactics only a willingness to risk changing existing structures and ideas in order to enrich the faith community and strengthen connections to the neighboring world Transforming Stewardship delivers both good and bad news about Episcopalians and stewardship Robertson provides essential models and spiritual practices in order to transform the church's outmoded attitudes toward stewardship and wealth into a broader context of faith

Stewardship Nathan Meador, Heath Curtis, 2021-08-04 Stewardship isn't just managing resources it's soul care Stewardship of time talents and treasure isn't just about sustaining the material of the church It's about guiding those resources in service of the church's primary mission proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ Stewarding the lambs of Christ that make up your congregation encompasses all aspects of their lives material and spiritual Nathan Meador and Heath R Curtis present a practical theology of stewardship focused on ministry in service of the gospel Guiding pastors away from the pitfalls of idolatry around money they instead call stewards to embrace their identity in Christ and encourage their congregations to do the same This fresh approach to stewardship reorients both individuals and congregations toward their true purpose as stewards who have been baptized into Christ Stewardship will help pastors to teach and preach stewardship as a call to repentance and new life

Transforming Vocation Sam Portaro, 2008-03 At once travel guide and vision for the future the Transformation series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change Series contributors recognized experts in their fields analyze our present plight point to the seeds of change already at work transforming the church and outline a positive new way forward What kinds of churches are most ready for transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look In the Episcopal Church it seems the only real purpose and end of Christian discernment is professional ordination either to the priesthood or to the vocational diaconate This book deals with such questions as How can both communities and individuals discern a call from God within the vocations and tasks in which they find themselves How can the Church deal creatively with its confusion about the differing roles and authority of ordained and lay ministers

More Than Money Patrick H. McNamara, 2000-05-01 More than Money is a wondrous journey to 11 congregations across the United States that have been transformed by living out stewardship that is more than fundraising Important factors emerge from the lively descriptions and records of dialogue between McNamara and the pastors and lay leaders he visited The pastor's leadership is a linchpin of stewardship endeavor they are willing to talk directly with their members about money The churches take seriously a biblical and theological vision of their mission and are willing to be counter cultural in reaching toward that vision In these churches membership is viewed as carrying a high level of meaning and responsibility Transforming Congregations James Lemler,2008-04-01 At once travel guide and vision for the future the Transformation series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change Series contributors recognized experts in their fields analyze our present plight point to the seeds of change already at work transforming the church and outline a positive new way forward What kinds of churches are most ready for transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look How can our patterns of congregational life and mission renew themselves and adjust to changing culture without selling out what Episcopalians stand for How can local faith communities stay resilient and hopeful What styles and practices of spirituality do most to enrich our mission These are some of the questions James Lemler poses in this book on mission for clergy and congregational discussion As with evangelism there is both good and bad news about Episcopalians and mission Lemler also provides a variety of models for moving forward in mission and hope to a more abundant future The Living Church ,1946 Methodist Theology Today Clive Marsh,2006-05-10 Presents the Methodist theology as a resource for the future This book focuses on the many ways in which Methodism carries its theology and how Methodism s emphasis contributes to British Christianity It asks challenging questions about how evangelism and social welfare may develop in the complex post modern secular world Salvation Means Creation Healed Howard A. Snyder,Joel Alan Scandrett,2011-07-13 The Bible promises the renewal of all creation a new heaven and earth based on the incarnation life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ For centuries this promise has been sidelined or misunderstood because of the church s failure to grasp the full meaning of biblical teachings on creation and new creation The Bible tells the story of the broken and restored relationship between God people and land not just God and people This is the full gospel and it has the power to heal the church s long theological divorce between earth and heaven Jesus resurrection in the power of the Holy Spirit is the key and the church as Christ s body is the primary means by which God is reconciling all things through Jesus Christ Jesus ultimate healing of all creation is the great hope and promise of the gospel and he calls the church to be his healing community now through evangelism discipleship and prophetic mission Transforming Congregational Culture Anthony B. Robinson,2003-01-21 Argues in behalf of transforming main line congregations into missional communities which will give hope to declining churches in the twenty first century ThirdWay ,1993 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Transforming Preaching Ruthanna Hooke,2010-04-01 At once travel guide and vision for the future the Transformation series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change Series contributors recognized experts in their fields analyze our present plight point to the seeds of change already at work transforming the church and outline a positive new way forward What kinds of churches are most ready for transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look Preaching is one of the more transformable aspects of the church s life Performance teacher Ruthanna Hooke writing for both clergy and lay leaders delivers the good and bad news about Episcopalians and preaching She explains why preaching is more difficult than ever today and provides essential models and spiritual practices in order to transform both the creators of preaching and its listeners as both participate in sermons
