Naydan,2016-05-23 Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post 9 11 Age of Terror Naydan suggests that after 9 11 fiction by Mohsin Hamid Laila Halaby Philip Roth Don DeLillo John Updike and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists between liberals and certain evangelicals between fundamentalists and artists and between fundamentalists of different varieties Ultimately Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism atheism faith fundamentalism and fanaticism In so doing they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9 11 AfterCulture Jerry Herron,1993 AfterCulture is a book of essays about the making and un making of middle class culture a phenomenon which has occurred nowhere more decisively than in America s most representative city Detroit In this insightful book Jerry Herron analyzes what has happened since the decline of middle class culture in Detroit a city he labels the first postmodern city because it exemplifies the failure of traditional history to make sense of contemporary urban experience By looking at media coverage of the city violence urban rehabilitation projects and the proliferation of suburban shopping malls the book traces the divestiture of Detroit and helps make sense of the plight of America s cities
