Gospel Of John The Vol 5:

The Gospel of John : 2 Volumes Craig S. Keener, 2010-03-01 Keener's commentary explores the Jewish and Greco Roman settings of John more deeply than previous works paying special attention to social historical and rhetorical features of the Gospel. It cites about 4 000 different secondary sources and uses over 20 000 references from ancient literature.

The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1902 A Catalogue of Books for 1795 ... Which will be sold ... by John Binns, etc John BINNS (Bookseller.), 1795 John (ESV Edition) R. Kent Hughes, 2014-01-13 About John While each of the Gospels presents Christ with a distinct emphasis the Gospel of John focuses on his greatness as the timeless Creator God of the universe as the Word made flesh as the gracious lover of our souls and as the only way to the Father. Instead of detailing the facts and events of Jesus' earthly life as the other Gospel writers did John concentrates on the meaning of his words and the message of his works clearly presenting him as the long awaited Messiah with one mission in mind to do the work of the Father who sent him. Follow along with pastor Kent Hughes in this engaging commentary as he leads you through this magnificent book of the Bible. His careful exposition and wise application will guide you to a richer understanding of not only God's greatness but of his great goodness to us all. Part of the Preaching the Word series John the Theologian and His Paschal Gospel John Behr, 2019 This study brings three different kinds of readers of the Gospel of John together with the theological goal of understanding what is meant by Incarnation and how it relates to Pascha the Passion of Christ how this is conceived of as revelation and how we speak of it. The first group of readers are the Christian writers from the early centuries some of whom such as Irenaeus of Lyons stood in direct continuity through Polycarp of Smyrna with John himself. In exploring these writers John Behr offers a glimpse of the figure of John and the celebration of Pascha which held to have started with him. The second group of readers are modern scriptural scholars from whom we learn of the apocalyptic dimensions of John's Gospel and the way in which it presents the life of Christ in terms of the Temple and its feasts. With Christ's own body finally erected on the Cross being the true Temple in an offering of love rather than a sacrifice for sin. An offering in which Jesus becomes the flesh he offers for consumption the bread which descends from heaven so that incarnation is not an event now in the past but the embodiment of God in those who follow Christ in the present. The third reader is Michel Henry a French Phenomenologist whose reading of John opens up further surprising dimensions of this Gospel which yet align with those uncovered in the first parts of this work. This thought provoking work brings these threads together to reflect on the nature and task of Christian theology The Jews and the Irrevocable Call of God in Reformed Theology from John Calvin to Thomas Torrance Mark J. Larson, 2025-08-05 There has been confusion in recent years concerning the teaching of classical Reformed thought regarding the Jews. Replacement theology alleges that the Jews having rejected Christ are no longer special in the eyes of God. Some have erroneously asserted that Calvin tends to supercessionism. Due to distinctive hermeneutical commitments there has not been a monolithic Reformed point of view on all the details concerning the Jews in relationship to eschatology Significant Reformed theologians in continuity with early church fathers anticipated the return of the Jews to the land promised in the Abrahamic covenant along with a millennium centered in Jerusalem with Christ as king bringing justice and peace to the nations Calvin with his adherence to a metaphorical reading of Old Testament prophetic passages rejected such a prospect It has been a mainstay of Reformed doctrine however that the Jews have been given an irrevocable call and continue to be loved by God Calvin and his theological descendants have affirmed that the day will come when God will pour out the Spirit of grace upon his ancient people resulting in their national salvation Indeed the heart of God is reflected in every prayer that all Israel may be saved

The Doctrine of the Covenant of Redemption According to John Gill (1697-1771) Wang Yong Lee, 2025-02-11 What is the doctrine of the covenant of redemption Why does John Gill 1697-1771 an English Baptist pastor and theologian regard this doctrine as the kernel in his systematic theology This book explicates how core theological doctrines in the Bible e.g. the doctrine of God the Trinity Christology and soteriology are integrated in the doctrine of the covenant of redemption from the biblical and theological perspective of John Gill From his long pastoral experience and over fifty years of rich writing Gill demonstrates that a careful investigation of the Bible and of God the

Trinity makes him love the reality of the covenant of redemption in eternity which is ultimately revealed by the gospel of Jesus Christ Gill sees those who are in the gospel of Jesus Christ as the ones through whom the eternal reality of the covenant of redemption is manifested to the saved Gill also encourages those who are in Christ to see the eternal reality of the covenant of redemption revealed by the gospel of Jesus Christ

Jesus as the Fulfillment of the Temple in the Gospel of John Paul M. Hoskins, 2007-02-01 This study examines John's portrayal of Jesus as the fulfillment and replacement of the Temple It also shows how a traditional conception of typology can be helpful for understanding the nature of the relationship between Jesus and the Temple Interpreters often associate John 1:14, 1:51, 2:18, 2:22 and 4:20, 24 with Jesus replacement of the Temple Based on these texts one can already begin to see that he fulfills and replaces the Temple in that he is the new locus of God's presence, glory, revelation and abundant provision for his people In particular John 2:18, 22 clearly associates Jesus' role as the Temple with his death and resurrection According to Isaiah part of God's decisive action on behalf of his people and for revealing himself to the nations is the lifting up of the Temple above all other temples In John this expectation finds its fulfillment in Jesus John's language of lifting up and glorification marks Jesus' death, resurrection and exaltation as climactic events through which God lifts up and glorifies Jesus the true Temple Jesus' death, resurrection and exaltation are also the means by which God provides for his people Jesus offers his flesh and blood for the life of the world and sends the Spirit to enrich believers with the benefits of his sacrificial death In doing so he simultaneously fulfills prophecies and patterns associated with the Passover Feast, Tabernacles Feast, Feast of Dedication and the Temple

The Theater of God's Glory W. David O. Taylor, 2017-08-21 A theological framework for the liturgical arts rooted in John Calvin Both detractors and supporters of John Calvin have deemed him an enemy of the physical body, a pessimist toward creation and a negative influence on the liturgical arts But says W. David O. Taylor that only tells half of the story Taylor examines Calvin's trinitarian theology as it intersects his doctrine of the physical creation in order to argue for a positive theological account of the liturgical arts He does so believing that Calvin's theology can serve perhaps surprisingly as a rich resource for understanding the theological purposes of the arts in corporate worship Drawing on Calvin's Institutes, biblical commentaries, sermons, catechisms, treatises and worship orders, this book represents one of the most thorough investigations available of John Calvin's theology of the physical creation and the promising possibilities it opens up for the formative role of the arts in worship

Relational Discipleship Brian Craig Drucey, 2017-03-28 God is waiting for each of us to return home In fact God is already out in the world searching and inviting each person to take the journey back to God's house Relational Discipleship: Moving Back Home with God approaches discipleship from a fresh perspective and intentionally draws on biblical principles and examples of discipleship In this approach the metaphor of a house is used to describe our journey back to God Hospitality plays a key factor in how discipleship from this perspective warmly calls each person forward in each step Other modes of discipleship are solely focused on transformation of the disciple Here in this model the transformation of the discipler must occur first Then the discipler can be a warm host helping other travelers on the path to God s house Join in the journey today and see how Relational Discipleship offers the call to move back home with God A Graeco-Roman Rhetorical Reading of the Farewell Discourse John C. Stube,2006-06-22 The Farewell Discourse John 13 17 is a climactic portion of John s Gospel which serves as a hinge on which the entire Gospel narrative pivots from Jesus public ministry to his Passion This is an analysis employing the elements of Greco Roman rhetoric Thunder and Love Stephen S. Smalley,2013-01-24 The title Thunder and Love speaks of the passion and compassion of the writer of Revelation That exciting but sometimes perplexing New Testament document is the subject of Dr Smalley s fascinating study His book combines the depth of research required for the serious scholar of apocalyptic literature with many fresh insights and surprising conclusions for the inquiring reader We are given here not only a new appreciation of the text of Revelation and of the volatile community for which John wrote but also a sharp application of its message to the needs of our present spiritual social and political situation Ecclesiology and Theosis in the Gospel of John Andrew J. Byers,2017-06-16 John s Gospel directs attention to the vision of community Andrew Byers argues that ecclesiology is as central a Johannine concern as Christology John Jo-Ann A. Brant,2011-10 The Paideia series offers critically acclaimed commentaries from today s top scholars This volume exposes theological meaning in John by tracing its use of rhetorical strategies Illuminated and Decorated Medieval Manuscripts in the University Library, Utrecht Koert van der Horst,2025-03-03 Of all the illuminated and decorated manuscripts in the UL Utrecht all miniatures with identifiable subjects are illustrated and indexed along with a choice of the minor decorations Over 65 manuscripts are illuminated in Utrecht the most important centre of book production in the Netherlands during the late Middle Ages
