Einführung In Die Rechtsvergleichung Auf Dem Gebiete Des Privatrechts:

Einführung in die Rechtsvergleichung auf dem Gebiete des Privatrechts Konrad Zweigert,Hein Kötz,1969 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 International Encyclopedia of Comparative Law Viktor Knapp,1983 Legal Responses to Unjustified Threats of Patent Infringement Minyu Zheng,2024-10-03 In this incisive book Minyu Zheng examines the various legal responses to unjustified threats of patent infringement Employing a comparative jurisdiction based analysis Zheng investigates whether the unjustified nature of such threats originates from the inaccuracy of the infringing accusation or the inappropriateness of issuing threats In particular Zheng reveals how to resolve threats which are issued in an undue way but contain a correct allegation of patent infringement International Law in Comparative Perspective William E. Butler,2024-11-04 The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law Mathias Reimann,Reinhard Zimmermann,2019-03-26 This fully revised and updated second edition of The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law provides a wide ranging and diverse critical survey of comparative law at the beginning of the twenty first century It summarizes and evaluates a discipline that is time honoured but not easily understood in all its dimensions In the current era of globalization this discipline is more relevant than ever both on the academic and on the practical level The Handbook is divided into three main sections Section I surveys how comparative law has developed and where it stands today in various parts of the world This includes not only traditional model jurisdictions such as France Germany and the United States but also other regions like Eastern Europe East Asia and Latin America Section II then discusses the major approaches to comparative law its methods goals and its relationship with other fields such as legal history economics and linguistics Finally section III deals with the status of comparative studies in over a dozen subject matter areas including the major categories of private economic public and criminal law The Handbook contains forty eight chapters written by experts from around the world The aim of each chapter is to provide an accessible original and critical account of the current state of comparative law in its respective area which will help to shape the agenda in the years to come Each chapter also includes a short bibliography referencing the definitive works in the field Introduction to Comparative Law Jaakko Husa,2023-05-18 A delightful and fresh approach to the comparative study of law Jans Smits Maastricht University the Netherlands of the first edition This textbook presents a clear and thought provoking introduction to the study of comparative law The book provides students with in depth analyses of the major global comparative methodologies and theories Written in a lively style it leads the student through debates in comparative legal scholarship both in the Western world and in the lesser studied jurisdictions beyond Europe and North America The second edition includes a revised structure to help the student understand the subject an updated introductory chapter and new material on legal transplants and globalisation It also explores allied disciplines including linguistics history and post colonial studies giving students full context of the subject The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Administrative Law Peter

Cane, Herwig Hofmann, Eric C. Ip, Eric Chi Yeung Ip, Peter L. Lindseth, 2021 In this Handbook distinguished experts in the field of administrative law discuss a wide range of issues from a comparative perspective The book covers the historical beginnings of comparative administrative law scholarship and discusses important methodological issues and basic concepts such as administrative power and accountability Effective corruption control Annika Engelbert, Markus

Kaltenborn, Nina-Annette Reit-Born, 2016-05-16 This book presents the results of a three year research project based at the Ruhr University Bochum financed by the Fritz Thyssen Foundation Cologne Corruption in public procurement is widespread and particularly damaging to development objectives as it undermines any state's duty to maximize the social and economic welfare of its citizens Yet research on country specific regulation meant to address this problem has remained scarce This book aims to fill this gap by providing a systematic comparative analysis of supplier remedies mechanisms in Kenya Uganda and Tanzania It elaborates on the potential of legal remedies to serve as anticorruption tools Based on the fact that the anti corruption effect of remedies mechanisms depends ultimately on the actual use by suppliers three main factors are discussed 1 the institutional setting and independence of the remedies systems 2 their accessibility for aggrieved bidders and 3 their efficiency driven by bidder's cost benefit analysis and including the aspects of procedural fees duration available relief and prospects of success The assessment of the legislation is complemented by information gained from various stakeholders such as public procurement authorities development organizations NGOs and scientific experts Despite many similarities of the systems due to their common historical background the analysis identifies remarkably different regulative and institutional approaches and discusses their more or less supportive effects on the use of supplier remedies mechanisms

Nationalism and Private Law in Europe Guido Comparato, 2014-12-01 While the internationalisation of society has stimulated the emergence of common legal frameworks to coordinate transnational social relations private law itself is firmly rooted in national law European integration processes have altered this state of affairs to a limited degree with a few albeit groundbreaking interventions that have tended to engender resistance from various actors within European nation states Against that background this book takes as its point of departure the need to understand the process of legal denationalisation within broader political frameworks In particular it seeks to make sense of opposition to Europeanisation at this point in the evolution of European law when despite growing nationalist attitudes great efforts have been made to produce comprehensive legal instruments to synthesise general contract law an area that has traditionally been solely within the ambit of nation states Combining insights from the disciplines of law history and political science the book investigates the conceptual and cultural associations between law and the nation state examines the impact of nationalist ideas in modern legal thought and reveals the nationalist underpinnings of some of the arguments employed against and somewhat paradoxically even in support of legal Europeanisation The author's research for this book has been supported by the Hague Institute for the Internationalisation of Law State responsibility for technological damage in international law Jan

Willisch, Manfred Feldsieper, Rudolf Meimberg, Richard Gross, 2021 Die Veröffentlichungen des Walther Schöcking Instituts für Internationales Recht an der Universität Kiel sind eine 1918 unter dem Namen Aus dem Institut für Internationales Recht an der Universität Kiel gegründete Schriftenreihe des ältesten universitären Völkerrechtsinstituts im deutschsprachigen Raum. Sie werden in der Nachfolge von Prof. Dr. Jost Delbrück herausgegeben. In ihr werden zum einen Habilitationsschriften von Institutsangehörigen und hervorragende Dissertationen, die von den Direktorinnen und Direktoren des Instituts betreut oder begutachtet wurden, veröffentlicht. Zum anderen erscheinen in der Schriftenreihe die Tagungsbande der vom Institut ausgerichteten internationalen Symposien und Workshops sowie die Sammelbande zu den jedes Jahr veranstalteten Ringvorlesungen des Instituts. Schließlich finden sonstige Monographien von Institutsangehörigen oder von mit dem Institut verbundenen Wissenschaftlern Aufnahme.

An Equitable Framework for Humanitarian Intervention Ciarán Burke, 2013-05-09 This book aims to resolve the dilemma regarding whether armed intervention as a response to gross human rights violations is ever legally justified without Security Council authorisation. Thus far, international lawyers have been caught between giving a negative answer on the basis of the UN Charter's rules positivists and a turn to ethics declaring intervention legitimate on moral grounds while eschewing legal analysis moralists. In this volume, a third solution is proposed. The idea is presented that many equitable principles may qualify as general principles of law recognised by civilised nations, one of the three principal sources of international law, though a category that is often overlooked. A conclusion based upon detailed research of both national legal systems and international law. These principles, having normative force in international law, are then used to craft an equitable framework for humanitarian intervention. It is argued that the dynamics of their operation allow them to interact with the Charter and customary law in order to fill gaps in the existing legal structure and soften the rigours of strict law in certain circumstances. It is posited that many of the moralists' arguments are justified albeit based upon firm legal principles rather than ethical theory. The equitable framework proposed is designed to provide an answer to the question of how humanitarian intervention may be integrated into the legal realm. Certainly, this will not mean an end to controversies regarding concrete cases of humanitarian intervention. However, it will enable the framing of such controversies in legal terms rather than as a choice between the law and morality, which has potential to become one of the most important books in public international law of the decade or in a generation.

Martin Scheinin, Professor of Public International Law, European University Institute, Florence. Governing Police Stops Across Europe Elizabeth Aston, Sofie De Kimpe, János Fazekas, Genevieve Lennon, Mike Rowe, 2023-11-17 This book takes a critical and comparative approach to the analysis of the governance of police stops across Europe. It draws on an EU COST Action research network on Police Stops, which engaged academics and practitioners from 29 countries, to better understand the practice of police stops. It begins by examining how police stops are defined and the various legal rules and levels of accountability afforded. The chapters are arranged by theme to focus on a core aspect of the governance of police stops. These include legal frameworks and police discretion internal governance external accountability and civilian oversight possibilities for legal recourse and the different roles of data and technology Each compares the distinct approaches evident across Europe often employing case studies The book adopts a critical approach acknowledging governance as contested and involving diverse state non state and supranational actors It considers implications for policing in a rapidly changing environment globally

Shaping the Economic Space in Russia Stefanie Harter, Gerald Easter, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2000 As the El tsin era has now drawn to a close numerous questions remain unanswered regarding the course of Russia s post Communist traditions El tsin s exit from the presidential stage provides an opportunity to assess the achievements of Russia s multi faceted reforms to explain the factors that have most shaped the reform process and to identify the trends that are likely to continue under a presidential successor This volume embodies such an effort Its contents are the product of a conference held in May 1999 at the Federal Institute for East European and International Studies in Cologne Germany The institute convened an international group of scholars representing a variety of academic approaches to the study of transition economies in general and Russia in particular The title of this volume has been taken from the overarching theme of the conference The goal was determine the extent to which pre existing structures and norms of economic and political life have been fundamentally altered by the El tsin administration s reform campaigns and how these factors themselves have influenced the reform process
