gradual y continuo revela a la Masonería como algo fascinantemente práctico y útil para nuestra vida moderna Bibliografía española, 2005-07 La Vida y los Misterios Nona Lovell Brooks, La humanidad siempre ha buscado respuestas a los grandes misterios de la vida atribuyendo lo desconocido a lo que estaba más allá de la comprensión del tiempo y de las capacidades humanas. Los fenómenos naturales, la naturaleza de la vida, el origen del ser e incluso la idea misma de Dios se percibieron durante mucho tiempo como algo enigmático y lejano. Sin embargo a lo largo de la historia han surgido propuestas que desafían estas percepciones limitadas sugiriendo que lo que se considera un misterio puede en realidad comprenderse a través de una nueva forma de mirar la realidad. Una verdadera comprensión del universo comienza por reconocer una unidad esencial que impregna todas las cosas. Dios como principio fundamental de la realidad no es distante ni inaccesible sino que se revela en la totalidad del ser y de la creación. La idea de separación entre lo visible y lo invisible, entre el cuerpo y el alma o entre la materia y el espíritu es una ilusión generada por percepciones erróneas. Cuando logramos mirar en nuestro interior y comprender nuestra conexión intrínseca con lo divino se revela la verdad sobre la vida. La Ciencia Divina al afirmar la omnipresencia de Dios nos invita a trascender la visión fragmentada de la realidad y a darnos cuenta de la perfección que hay en todas las cosas. Cada aspecto de la creación, desde el más pequeño grano de arena hasta los vastos sistemas cósmicos, refleja la presencia divina. El mal, el sufrimiento y las limitaciones son producto de una visión distorsionada de la realidad y al alinear nuestra conciencia con la verdad universal podemos disolver estas ilusiones. La verdadera libertad reside en darse cuenta de la unidad de todo ser con Dios, superando las barreras creadas por el miedo, la ignorancia y la separación. La vida no es un proceso lineal de decadencia sino una progresión continua de evolución. El envejecimiento a menudo asociado con la pérdida y el declive es en realidad una cuestión de percepción y creencias. Cuando nos liberamos de las ideas limitantes sobre el tiempo y la separación de la fuente divina experimentamos la juventud eterna manifestada en nuestra energía, vitalidad y amor a la vida. Del mismo modo la muerte no es el final sino una transición natural en el proceso de evolución espiritual. El verdadero propósito de la vida es vivir plenamente alineados con el amor divino y la verdad universal reconociendo que la vida es eterna e interminable. Practicar la presencia divina en cada momento nos permite vivir con propósito, plenitud y armonía. Cada experiencia, ya sea de dolor o de alegría es una oportunidad para expresar el amor divino en acción. Conectar con la Mente Universal que es Dios transforma nuestra percepción y nos permite vivir en armonía con los principios que rigen el universo. No hay misterios insuperables, todo es explicable por la acción de Dios y la verdadera sabiduría reside en reconocer su presencia en todas las cosas, desde el más simple hasta las manifestaciones más complejas de la vida. Esta comprensión nos lleva a ver la vida de forma unificada y a aplicar la Ley Divina con confianza y claridad. Cuando reconocemos nuestra verdadera naturaleza como hijos de Dios manifestamos las virtudes divinas en nuestras acciones y el sufrimiento, el miedo y el dolor desaparecen. En su lugar surgen la paz, la curación y la transformación. El gran misterio de la vida es en realidad una revelación continua de la presencia de Dios en todas las formas y cuando vivimos
