El Amante Bilingae:

Escribir la catalanidad Stewart King, 2005 This study explores the interaction of language culture and identity in contemporary Catalonia and rejects the exclusion of Castilian as a language capable of expressing Catalan ness This study charting the construction of a Catalan identity from the nineteenth century cultural renaissance until the present day explores the interaction of language culture and identity in contemporary Catalonia Drawing on postcolonial and multicultural literary theories it argues that Castilian and Catalan language narratives are expressions of the same culture Through detailed analyses of texts by Terenci Moix Francisco Candel Ignasi Riera Montserrat Roig Juan Mars Ramon Pallic and Manuel V zquez Montalb n among others the author demonstrates that such writers share similar preoccupations and points of view and also engage in a complex literary and cultural dialogue that cuts across the established linguistic divisions that characterise cultural politics in Catalonia The Catalan literary establishment s exclusion of Castilian as a language capable of expressing Catalan ness is challenged and the author proposes redefining traditional understandings of Catalan literature to take into account texts produced by all members of Catalan society Stewart King is a lecturer in Hispanic Studies at Monash University Australia
