End As A Man:

End as a Man Calder Willingham, 1963 The End of The Modern World Romano Guardini, 2024-02-13 Two monumental works on the nature of the modern age by Romano Guardini one of the most important Catholic figures of the 20th century This expanded edition of The End of the Modern World A Search for Orientation includes its sequel Power and Responsibility A Course of Action for the New Age In both Guardini analyzes modern man's conception of himself in the world and examines the nature and use of power It is the principle of individual responsibility that weaves both works into a seamless comprehensive and compelling moral statement Guardini tirelessly argues that human beings are responsible moral agents possessed of free will and answerable to God and their fellow man On The End of the Modern World This book will cauterize the spirit of any man who reads it it will burn away that sentimentality with which so many today view the advent of the new order imagining as they do that a fully technologized universe can retain every significant cultural and traditional value sustained by the past Frederick D Wilhelmsen founding editor of Triumph magazine and professor at the University of Dallas On Power and Responsibility If the characteristic of Hellenic civilization is to be summed up in the word logos the characteristic of our own is more exactly summed up in the word power The fact itself is a challenge to the wisdom of man One is grateful that Romano Guardini has taken up the challenge I highly recommend the book to all who are wise enough to know today's need to wisdom That is I recommend the book to every thoughtful mind John Courtney Murray S J architect of the Vatican II Declaration on Religious Liberty and author of We Hold These Truths The Moral Dignity of Man Peter E. Bristow, 1997 Many of today's moral conflicts concerning family values and medical ethics have their basis in different conceptions of man and the nature and purpose of human life Fr Bristow argues that contemporary utilitarianism and the various forms of permissive morality are insufficient for dealing with these matters and that only a natural law morality is adequate to the needs and dignity of the human person He goes on to apply its principles to the issues that derive from advancing technology such as genetic engineering in vitro fertilization embryo research drugs and painkillers and ecology

Theater of Man J. A. FernandezSantamaria,1998 Born in Spain and long time resident of Bruges Juan Luis Vives is one of the keenest and most neglected minds of the northern Renaissance A many sided intellect and critical observer of the contemporary scene Vives contribution includes treatises on metaphysics psychology education rhetoric logic religion and social reform And it is precisely the central premise of this monograph that what links these diverse works together and turns Vives literary production into a whole larger than the sum of its parts is the author s single minded commitment to the Socratic dictum that an unexamined life is not worth living But because man s Fall caused him to lose his pristine ability to accomplish that task as an individual he must now do it in the context of a God mandated man created institution society whose origins and evolution Vives explains in Stoic terms Building on a foundation of Socratic Aristotelian optimism and Augustinian pessimism he concludes that social man can indeed reach the bonitas which alone makes beatitude possible But at a price for Vives the Skeptic insists that man must forego the use of that ratio speculativa which seduces him into thinking that he can probe into nature s being and understand his own divine nature
