Kant's Deontological Eudaemonism

Jeanine M. Grenberg, 2022-07-28 In this book Professor Jeanine Grenberg defends the idea that Kant s virtue theory is best understood as a system of eudaemonism indeed as a distinctive form of eudaemonism that makes it preferable to other forms of it a system of what she calls Deontological Eudaemonism In Deontological Eudaemonism one achieves happiness both rationally conceived as non felt pleasure in the virtually unimpeded harmonious activity of one s will and choice and empirically conceived as pleasurable fulfilment of one s desires only via authentic commitment to and fulfilment of what is demanded of all rational beings making persons as such one s end in all things To tell this story of Deontological Eudaemonism Grenberg first defends the notion that Kant s deontological approach to ethics is simultaneously and indeed foundationally and most basically teleological She then shows that the realization of an aptitude for the virtuous fulfilment of one s obligatory ends provides the solid basis for simultaneous realization of happiness both rationally and empirically conceived Along the way she argues both that Kant s notion of happiness rationally conceived is essentially identical to Aristotle s conception of happiness as unimpeded activity and that his notion of happiness empirically conceived is best realized via an unwavering commitment to the fulfilment of one s obligatory ends
