contemporary environmental demographic economic and socio spatial challenges The Dialogues books are published in association with the Global Planning Education Association Network GPEAN and its member planning schools associations These associations represent 360 planning schools in nearly fifty countries around the globe They have selected these papers based on regional competitions

Theorising Professions Edgar A Burns, 2019-11-06 This book synthesises several decades of research to extend beyond the limitations of a traditional functionalist model offering a twenty first century theory of professions and professionalism for a new generation engaging in theorising and research It asserts nine innovative arguments drawing on major theorists such as Johnson Freidson Larson Weber Foucault and Bourdieu to achieve a global framing of professions Concepts of bundling and unbundling are used to explain changes happening to professions as they cease to be exclusive containers that fully control particular forms of knowledge Examining how professions are changing today reveals the ways in which expectations around expertise and goodness have altered for all stakeholders consumers regulators corporations and professions themselves Unbundled professions morph into new forms of professional work under new conditions technologies and social arrangements Professionals and policy makers interested in shaping the future of professions must recognise the potential impacts from an increasingly globalised digitalised and managerialised world and this book will be a key addition for scholars and practitioners alike

Rethinking Military Professionalism for the Changing Armed Forces Krystal K. Hachey, Tamir Libel, Waylon H. Dean, 2020-06-09 This book will make a first contribution to identify the gaps in current practices and provide alternative mechanisms to conceptualize professionalism that is reflective of changing requirements culture and demographics of the contemporary military force The military profession promotes the development sustainment and embodiment of ethos which guides conduct across operational contexts from times of national and international crises and security challenges e g war natural disasters and peace support operations It is imperative for military leaders to understand how ethos and doctrine shape professional frameworks which guide the conduct of military members

Managing Health Services M. G. Harris, Mary G. Harris, 2006 Managing Health Services Concepts and Practice 2nd edition provides a valuable practice resource for health service management students and managers While new concepts and strategies of multidisciplinary health service management and leadership have been added the focus remains on providing comprehensive coverage of management topics and issues faced by health services managers

Handbook of Research on Entrepreneurship in Professional Services Markus Reihlen, Andreas Werr, 2012-01-01 Professional service firms are critical agents of contemporary economies and understanding them has become a central focus of recent scholarship This very timely and well organized Handbook brings together several leading scholars who explore how we might think and theorize about professional service firms and their entrepreneurial behaviours The Handbook will become a key source for the growing community of researchers in this area Royston Greenwood University of Alberta Canada For too long both researchers and practitioners have presumed that professional service firms follow the status quo when they should better understand how these professionals set the rules for globalization This Handbook reminds us that professionals are as much the shock troops of capitalism as the multinational corporations that they serve As this Handbook shows the leading firms successfully compete with each other by fostering entrepreneurship and innovation in order to service an institutional system that undergirds the international economy Christopher McKenna University of Oxford UK Professional services are increasingly seen as an important foundation for future economic growth and prosperity Yet research on innovative and entrepreneurial processes in professional services has been surprisingly scarce This Handbook provides a collection of original contributions from leading scholars outlining the current stock of knowledge in the area as well as providing directions for further research The expert contributors discuss entrepreneurship and innovation from a number of different perspectives including the entrepreneurial professional team the entrepreneurial firm and the institutional environment The first part of the book looks at the challenges of entrepreneurship specific to the professional service firm while the second explores the creation and exploitation of entrepreneurial opportunities in the professional service team Part III turns to the organization and Part IV to the management and growth of the entrepreneurial professional service firm The final part discusses the interplay between professions firms and the institutional environment Researchers scholars and PhD students in the areas of entrepreneurship and professional service firms along with advanced students of management will find this volume of great value

The Triumph of Managerialism? Anna Yeatman, Bogdan Costea, 2018-10-16 This collection presents a critical dialogue on managerialist forms of government between philosophy political thought organisational and management theory The volume brings together essays that are concerned with technologies of government that are articulated as different iterations of managerialism The hallmark of managerialist discourse is value considered as a quantifiable abstraction where the intention is to always add value The central question addressed here by a team of international expert authors from across a range of disciplines is this in what ways has this abstraction of value impacted on the substantive work and ethical integrity of government and the public sector and more broadly of the professions including that of management itself Has it displaced this work or simply recast it The volume addresses audiences in social sciences philosophy management business and organisational studies

Professionals under Pressure Mirko Noordegraaf, Bram Steijn, 2025-10-01 Over the past decade public services have come under increasing pressure to perform like private sector organisations This study demonstrates that professionals have much leeway in coping with changes caused by IT developments distributed knowledge and more demanding public which have all created new pressures on public services The authors conclude that rather than demanding more autonomy and space public service professionals need renewed and workable professional standards

The Rise and Propagation of Historical Professionalism Rolf Torstendahl, 2014-08-13 This book examines the evolution of historical professionalism with the development of an international community that shares a set of values regarding both methodological minimum demands and what constitutes new results Historical professionalism is not a fixed set of skills but a concept with varying import and meaning at different times depending on changing norms Torstendahl covers the propagation of these different ideals and of new educational forms from the late 18th century to the present from Ranke's state centrism to a historiography borne by social theories

Handbook on the Entrepreneurial University Alain Fayolle, Dana T. Redford, 2014-01-01 This insightful Handbook offers a lens through which to view entrepreneurship strategy for higher education institutions as it becomes increasingly necessary for universities to consider changing their strategies culture and practices to become more entrepreneurial Is the idea of an entrepreneurial university a myth or a reality Is the university model capable of adapting to new evolving trends and a more complex professional world And what is the impact of entrepreneurship in education Through extensive research and case studies from some of the leading entrepreneurial thinkers around the world Alain Fayolle and Dana Redford answer these questions and raise further issues for debate Particular focus is given to developing university strategy public policy and start up support as a means to foster graduate entrepreneurship Each contribution explores different perspectives related to the entrepreneurial university concept and its role in stimulating economic growth through cooperative relationships with business and government As a comprehensive study of the entrepreneurial university this Handbook will prove invaluable to business and entrepreneurship students and academics as well as university administrators researchers and others interested in the evolution of the university

The collaborating planner? Benjamin P. Clifford, Tewdwr-Jones, Mark, 2013-04-24 This book aims to understand how both specific planning and broader public sector reforms have been experienced and understood by chartered town planners working at local levels of authority across Great Britain Each chapter outlines the reaction by professionals to reforms promoted by successive central and devolved governments over the last decade before considering the broader issues of what this tells us about how modernization is rolled out by frontline public servants The Collaborating Planner fills a glaring gap in scholarship and makes ideal reading for students and researchers interested in the UK planning system

The Oxford Handbook of Project Management Peter W. G. Morris, Jeffrey K. Pinto, Jonas Söderlund, 2012-07-19 The Oxford Handbook of Project Management presents and discusses leading ideas in the management of projects Positioning project management as a domain much broader and more strategic than simply execution management this Handbook draws on the insights of over 40 scholars to chart the development of the subject over the last 50 years or more as an area of increasing practical and academic interest It suggests we could be entering an emerging third wave of analysis and interpretation following its early technical and operational beginnings and the subsequent shift to a focus on projects and their management Topics dealt with include the historical evolution of the subject its theoretical base professionalism business and societal context strategy organization governance innovation overruns risk information management procurement relationships and trust knowledge management practice and teams This handbook is of particular relevance to those interested in the research issues underlying project management

Teacher Education in the 21st Century Antje-Marianne Kolde, Ruth Frehner, Brigitte Kürsteiner, Lukas

Bleichenbacher, 2016-08-17 How can teacher education prepare future teachers for their work in increasingly diverse classrooms How does the concept of plurilingualism inform language educational policy in different countries What are the current opportunities and challenges in the domain of internationalisation in teacher education The contributions to this volume address these questions from different theoretical perspectives and with a strong emphasis on the actual practices in various classrooms At a time when simplistic essentialist biased and discriminatory ideologies and practices see a rebirth in public discourse and represent a risk to education the contributors here take stock and describe some worthwhile alternatives The first set of chapters addresses the integration of ethnic religious and gender diversity in teacher education colleges In the second part the notion of plurilingualism in different educational contexts is explored from a critical sociolinguistic point of view The chapters in the third part present evidence from innovative international academic exchange programs and how they contribute to socio spatial learning amongst others The common denominator in this volume is the notion of convergence the coexistence of people and practices in diverse contexts
