ORGAN IS TO COST $25,800

W. P. Starkey Presents Instrument to Grace Methodist Church and Contract Is Awarded to Austin Company.

The Austin Organ Company has just completed the contract for another four-manual organ which is to be installed in a memorial to the soldiers and sailors who fell in this war. W. P. Starkey of Harrisburg, Pa., is the donor. It is to cost $25,800 and is to be placed in Grace M. E. Church in Harrisburg. E. H. Fowler was the Austin representative in the negotiations.

The organ is to be placed on both sides of the chancel, which is being enlarged to accommodate the choir and the new organ. The pipes and case of the present organ are to be retained in their present position. The specification is as follows:

WILL MACFARLANE RESIGNS PHILIP JAMES IS HONORED

Will Leave Post of Municipal Organist at Portland, Maine, Oct. 1.

Will C. MacFarlane, municipal organist of Portland, Maine, has resigned and will leave his position there on Oct. 1. He will continue to play during the summer the recitals which have given Portland a famous feature of the tourist season. In a letter to The Diapason Mr. MacFarlane says that he loves for the advantages of a larger city and that he will devote his time to travel in New York state, leaving and playing in the interest of municipal organ music. He will make New York City his headquarters.

Mr. MacFarlane is the first of the municipal organists appointed in this country and was engaged when the large Austin organ in the Portland City Hall was completed. Before that he was organist of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church in New York in which position he was succeeded by T. Tertius Noble. Mr. MacFarlane is widely known also as a composer for the organ and for the choir.

Assistant Leader of Peabody's Band

Lucien E. Becker, assistant leader of the famous Peabody band, is one of the young American organists who enhanced their reputations recently through their services with the National Association of Organists. Mr. Becker stopped in Chicago for a short time on the recent tour by the band of a number of local cities. Mr. Becker expects soon to be back at the organ in New York and to resume his composition in which he has received recognition for the excellence of his work. The Diapason and The Organist thoughtfully enjoyed a short visit from this outstanding musician when he was in the city.

Lucien E. Becker went overseas with the 388th Central Postal Directory. While with the A. F. P. he had the opportunity of playing for the King and Queen of Belgium and afterward was assigned to Peabody's band. He was selected for assistant band leader with the rank of lieutenant after a rapid examination. The band visited twenty-one cities on its tour and in these Lucien E. Becker conducted at many of the concerts.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

TO THE ORGAN BUILDERS' ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

The annual meeting of the Music Industries Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, and its affiliated Associations, will be held in Chicago, Ill., Congress Hotel, Michigan Ave. and Congress St., the first week of June, commencing Monday, June 2, 1919.

As already pointed out in a notice printed in the May issue of The Diapason, our Constitution and By-Laws stipulate that the annual meeting of our Association be held at the same time and place as chosen and designated by the Music Industries Chamber of Commerce.

To abide by our Constitution and By-Laws, this call for our annual meeting be held at the time and place appointed by the Music Industries Chamber of Commerce is hereby issued.

In the absence of a quorum the meeting can be adjourned to a later date, and in that event may be held simultaneously with the convention of the National Association of Organists in Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Pa., Wednesday, August 6th to Friday, the 8th, inclusive.

At the budget meeting of the Music Industries Chamber of Commerce, Monday, June 2nd, 10:30 a.m., our Association will be represented by the seven delegates appointed by President John T. Austin.

Milwaukee, May 23, 1919. ALFRED WANGERIN, Sec'y.

N. A. O. CONVENTION SET FOR AUG. 5 TO 8

GET READY AT PITTSBURGH

Ending of War and Holding of Meeting Farther West Expected to Increase Attendance—Six Recitals to Be Heard.

The National Association of Organists will hold its annual convention Aug. 6, 7 and 8 at Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, the definite dates being announced by President Frederick Schleider. There will be a reception Aug. 5. The officers of the association and the committee of Pittsburgh who will be hosts to the meeting are making plans for a large and enthusiastic occasion and hope for a greatly increased attendance because of the change in world conditions since the last meeting.

Another factor which is expected to add greatly to the influence of the convention is the fact that it is to be held nearer the west. Previous conventions have all been east of New York and the distance a barrier to a large attendance from the central and western states. The announcement of the Pittsburgh convention probably will mean the presence of a record contingent of organists from other sections of the country. President Harrington of the Illinois association is making efforts to take a large delegation from Chicago.

Dr. Schleider writes to The Diapason that Pittsburgh is making every effort to make the week an exceptionally successful one. Charles Harrington, the organist of Carnegie Institute and local organist nationally, is invited; Charles N. Boyd of the Pittsburgh Musical Institute and president of the National Association of Organists, who also is known throughout the United States; Harvey B. Cook, organist of Carnegie University, one of the leading American organists for the organ and the chancel and other organs are active in the arrangements.

It is planned to devote a day to Pennsylvania, another day to the Middle West and half a day to the East. There will be recitals by six of the leading organists of the country. These will be announced in The Diapason next month. The principal business before the convention will be the adoption of an amended constitution worthy of a national organization.

The suggestion made by The Diapason a month ago that the Organ Builders' Association might hold a meeting at the same time and place as the N. A. O. Convention, and the interest of Dr. Schleider and he has placed in the hands of Reginald F. McAll of New York the matter of conferring with the builders with the view to encouraging such a thing as Pittsburgh it is found to be feasible. The constitution of the builders' association stipulates the time and place of the annual meeting and the matter of the Pittsburgh plan is being taken up at this time. It is to be held in Chicago early in June, as stated in the call issued by Secretary Wangerin in this issue of The Diapason.

Composed by Walter E. Young

Two interesting sacred songs composed by Walter E. Young, the Boston organist, which have recently appeared in The Diapason are another indication that organists are constantly making new songs useful as organs as well as the voice and for other instruments than their chosen one. The songs are "The Wilderness" and "The Wilderness" and are published by the Arthur F. Schmidt Company. Mr. Young is the organist of the Christian Science mother church in Boston.

Enjoying the Song of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast interaction, the melodic elegance and mental symphony developed by the written word often fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and distractions that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 a wonderful fictional treasure filled with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts readers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this touching examination, we shall discover the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.

Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Eng Contracting Volume 51 Jan June 1919 books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
