End Of Man:

The Moral Dignity of Man Peter E. Bristow,1997 Many of today s moral conflicts concerning family values and medical ethics have their basis in different conceptions of man and the nature and purpose of human life Fr Bristow argues that contemporary utilitarianism and the various forms of permissive morality are insufficient for dealing with these matters and that only a natural law morality is adequate to the needs and dignity of the human person He goes on to apply its principles to the issues that derive from advancing technology such as genetic engineering in vitro fertilization embryo research drugs and painkillers and ecology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
