Ending Hunger Now A Challenge To Persons Of Faith:

Ending Hunger Now George Stanley McGovern, Bob Dole, Donald E. Messer, Veteran statesmen George McGovern and Robert Dole here find common cause with theologian and activist Donald Messer in this powerful testimony and appeal to people of faith They are each convinced we can overcome global hunger now and their informed strategic impassioned thoughts encourage and equip This book brings together their disparate yet powerful voices behind a shared conviction that helping the millions who lack basic provision for food has become a religious imperative and human priority Writing for congregations and individuals of faith McGovern Dole and Messer appeal to the biblical theological and ethical foundations of action against hunger

Ending Hunger Now Craig L. Nesson, 2006

The Eucharist and World Hunger Izunna

Okonkwo, 2011-12-21 Hunger is a menace in different parts of the globe It has more unnatural than natural causes Though efforts have been made towards alleviating its causes and consequences more actions still need to be taken for its genuine alleviation and eventual eradication in the world For Joseph Grassi painful hunger is a daily occurrence that must be countered by ongoing effective programs that enter into the lives of every Christian Such position not only recognises the frequency and excruciating nature of hunger but also suggests that Christians and other religious groups have a very important role to play in order to eradicate hunger and its devastating effects This book explores the nuances of hunger its causes dimensions and approaches as well as its connection to the Eucharist It argues that hunger can be eradicated and that the Eucharist stands out as a veritable model

Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17

Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal glocal mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace

The Christian Response to Hunger in America Barbara Muse M.Div., 2019-08-16

In this country alone there are over 22 million children receiving free or reduced meals during the school year During the summer months those same children can scarcely find a free nutritious meal Using Lamentations 2:19 as a guide Christians are to respond to the hunger that they see on the streets of America and eventually throughout the world The assignment begins at home by making sure that no child goes hungry in America I present this book to stir to move and to compel Christians to action in regards to ending hunger in the name of Jesus Christ I lay out compelling reasons biblically historically and theologically why Christians should respond to the call to feed hungry children I pray that this book liberates Christians to take action for the children in our neighborhoods in our state in our country and in the world who need food Gathering at God's Table Katharine Jefferts-Schori,2012-11-15 Taking the framework of the Five Marks of Mission the author leads the reader to reflect on proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom teaching baptizing and nurturing new believers responding to human need seeking to transform the unjust structures of society and sustaining and renewing the life of the earth Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Autobiographers Wikipedia contributors, Religious Giving David H. Smith,2010-04-06 Religious Giving considers the connection between religion and giving within the Abrahamic traditions Each contributor begins with the assumption that there is something inherently right or natural about the connection But what exactly is it To whom should we give how much should we give what is the relationship between our giving and our relationship to God Writing for the introspective donor congregational leader or student interested in ways of meeting human needs the authors focus on the philosophical or theological dimensions of giving The contributors goal is not to report on institutional practices but to provide thoughtful constructive guidance to the reader informed by a critical understanding of the religious traditions under review Missiology ,2008 An international review Food & Faith Michael Schut,2010-05 From the creator of the bestseller Simpler Living Compassionate Life A Christian Perspective comes Food Faith Food is itself a joyful gift recall how the gift of food so often mediates the sanctity and preciousness of life This collection of reflections by Wendell Berry Bill McKibben Elizabeth Johnson Alan Durning and others helps you start thinking about the moral spiritual and economic implications of eating Readings focus on the enjoyment and spirituality of good food ways in which eating connects us to the land and to each other and on the economic environmental and cultural impacts of daily food choices Food Faith includes an eight week study guide for groups or individuals which leads to action setting a table that is healthy joyful and just

When Cone wrote Black Theology and Black Power he signaled to the world that the American black faith tradition would no longer recognize the confines of the church walls as the extent of its purview in society. Cone liberated the Gospel of Christ from its institutionalized forms, unhinging it from oppressive and racist power structures in American society and releasing it to do its work in the public sphere. Black Faith and Public Talk continues Cone's theme of power in the public realm and examines the economic, political, cultural, gender, and theological implications of black faith and black theology.
