Energy Statistics Yearbook 1995 Department Of Economic And Social Information And Policy:

International Energy Annual, 1995 W. Calvin Kilgore, 1997-12 Will keep the public and other interested parties fully informed of primary energy supplies on a global basis Presents an overview of key international energy trends for production consumption imports and exports of primary energy commodities in over 220 countries dependencies and areas of special sovereignty Also included are population and gross domestic product data as well as prices for crude oil and petroleum products in selected countries Renewable energy reports in this annual includes hydroelectric power geothermal solar and wind electric power and alcohol for fuel Extensive charts and tables International Energy Annual, 2001 World Development Report 1996, 1996 Almost one third of the world's population has embarked on a transition from planned to market economies Like economic reforms elsewhere the long term goal of this transition is to build a thriving market economy capable of delivering long term growth in living standards Now in its 19th annual edition the World Development Report 1996 takes an in depth look at these transition countries focusing on the key lessons that have taken place thus far The introduction to the Report poses a number of key questions that are addressed in later chapters including questions relating to initial challenges and how countries have tackled them from very different starting points and political conditions The Report also focuses on the additional challenges these transition countries face with a final chapter that summarizes the main conclusion of the Report creating a text that will no doubt become the definitive source for students studying international economics and politics

Regional Energy and Economic Self-Sufficiency Indicators in the Southeastern United States Skip Laitner, Marshall Goldberg, 1997 This report will help users to better understand how energy expenditures affect the overall economic well being of the 13 states within the Southeastern U S This volume is a survey of energy production energy consumption and energy import data for the U S and the aggregate Southeastern U S The comparison is made in both dollars and energy units Covers coal natural gas crude oil uranium municipal solid waste hydropower biomass geothermal solar thermal solar hot water photovoltaic and wind etc References and bibliography Glossary Recent Social Trends in Bulgaria, 1960-1995 Nikolai Genov, Anna Krasteva, 2001-01-01 The introduction by Nikolai Genov looks at the challenges posed by two transformations the experiment with communism which ended in failure and the current transition to a market economy and pluralist politics Genov concludes that the major reason for Bulgaria's critical situation is the powerlessness of its state institutions Considering life style fertility leisure and consumption inequality religion economic institutions ethnicity norms of conduct and family as well as other trends Recent Social Trends in Bulgaria 1960-1995 is the first comprehensive presentation of the major transformations that characterize Bulgaria at the turn of the century The contributors not only consider a broad range of social phenomena but provide an in depth analysis of social change This national profile provides more data supporting the hypothesis of diversification rather than convergence in modern societies a hypothesis proposed by the Comparative Charting of Social Change group after documenting social change in many countries Bioeconomics and Sustainability Nicholas Georgescu-Roegen, Kozo Mayumi, John M. Gowdy, 1999-01-01 Economists from around the world discuss Georgescu Roegen's 1906-94 theories in a number of areas but especially on environmental and energy economics They address such topics as how long neoclassical economists can continue to ignore his contribu UNDOC, Current Index ,1996 Human Development Report 1997 , The Political Economy of Institutional Change in the Electricity Supply Industry Carlos Rufin, 2003-01-01 Through a variety of analytical lenses formal modeling econometrics and case study comparisons Carlos Rufin fills a gap in the political economy of second wave or microeconomic reforms around the world More specifically he does so in the context of the electricity supply industry where such reforms have been as problematic as they have been widespread The author shows that ideological considerations and bargaining over the distribution of economic rents accruing from certain institutional arrangements are powerful shapers of institutional change At the same time the legacy of the past does not appear to have a clear or systematic effect on the direction of second wave reforms that seek to transform existing economic institutions If distributional conflicts can be resolved these conclusions provide grounds for optimism about the ability to create new institutions even in countries where little favorable precedent exists Indian Trade Journal ,1997-03 The ^A Philippine Economy Arsenio M. Balisacan, Hal Hill, 2003-03-06 This book examines all major facets of the Philippine economy and development policy Contributors to this volume look both to the past and to the future and their approaches are variously descriptive analytical interpretive and comparative The book assesses trends since the 1980s identifies major policy issues and provides a balance sheet of achievements and deficiencies over the past decade and beyond It highlights future challenges that need to be addressed if the country is to embark on a sustainable durable and equitable growth trajectory The book also offers lessons from the country's development experience which may be relevant for many countries at the present time The volume has particular relevance for the country's policymakers academics and the business community and will also appeal to a broader international audience Economic Policy and Performance in the Arab World Paul Rivlin, 2001 An exploration of the domestic and international pressures that affect economic policy and performance in the Arab states Paul Rivlin finds that during the last decade of the 20th century these pressures combined to simultaneously foster change and limit available policy options Affluence and Poverty in the Middle East M. Riad El-Ghonemy, 2002-09-11 Affluence and Poverty in the Middle East is an introduction to the political economy of the Middle East focusing on its most salient features persistent poverty and extreme inequality El Ghonemy analyses the factors influencing the region including its unique historical religious and cultural mix as well as its economic foundations and forms of corruption For each factor he employs case studies drawn from throughout the region from Turkey to Sudan and Morocco to Iran In the final section El Ghonemy discusses possible solutions to the challenges facing the region including possible uses of a peace dividend and the role of democracy The North Korean Economy Nicholas Eberstadt, 2017-09-04 Viewed from afar North Korea may appear bizarre or positively irrational But as Nicholas Eberstadt demonstrates in this meticulously researched volume there is a grim coherence to North Korea s political economy and a ruthless logic undergirding it one that unreservedly subordinates economic welfare to augmentation of political power Thus paradoxically even as official policies and practices consign the DPRK economy to a perilous realm between crisis and catastrophe the country s leadership maintains unchallenged domestic control and has actually managed to increase its international influence Through painstaking collection of hard to uncover data and careful analysis Eberstadt provides a quantitative tableau of North Korea s terrible failure in its economic race against South Korea its stubborn adherence to policies all but guaranteed to stifle growth and undermine economic performance and the longstanding official effort to ignore or mitigate pressures for economic reform Eberstadt is skeptical of optimistic accounts from South Korea and elsewhere suggesting that the North Korean leadership is interested in resolving the current nuclear impasse and getting on with the business of reform and development So long as Pyongyang s rulers entertain the ambition of reunifying the Korean peninsula on its own terms Eberstadt argues economic reforms worthy of the name will be subversive of state authority and vigilantly resisted by Pyongyang s rulers This authoritative volume has received widespread attention from Asian specialists well as those concerned with nuclear proliferation and world peace and international relations professionals in general OAPEC News Bulletin ,1998 Human Development Report 1998 United Nations Development Programme, Vital Signs 1998-1999 Lester R. Brown,2014-04-08 First Published in 1998 In this seventh annual edition of VITAL SIGNS the team at the Worldwatch Institute bring together an eclectic selection of disparate trends to offer a unique multifaceted view of our rapidly changing world This vital resource and reference guide traces the scientific social economic and environmental trends that have and continue to shape our world Among the trends covered for the first time in VITAL SIGNS 1998 99 are frontier forests plantation forestry satellite launches minerals exploration small arms proliferation and female education This year s edition points out that global emissions of carbon the leading contributor to global climate change hit another new high while wind power has grown an amazing 26 per cent per year and sales of solar cells jumped a phenomenal 43 per cent in 1997 VITAL SIGNS is the most comprehensive source of environmental and social information available Worldmark Encyclopedia of the Nations ,1998 Indicators of Sustainable Development ,1996 World Development Indicators 2006 ,2006-01-01 Looking for accurate up to date data on development issues This indispensable statistical reference allows you to consult over 800 indicators for some 150 economies and 14 country groups in more than 80 tables It provides a current overview of the most recent data available as well as important regional data and income group analysis in six thematic chapters World View People Environment Economy States and Markets and Global Links
