Engaging Countries:

OECD Public Governance Reviews Engaging Public Employees for a High-Performing Civil Service OECD, 2016-11-14
How can governments reduce workforce costs while ensuring civil servants remain engaged and productive This report addresses this question using evidence from the 2014 OECD Survey on Managing Budgeting Constraints Implications for HRM and Employment in Central Public Administration      Assessing Intellectual Property Compliance in

Contemporary China Kristie Thomas, 2017-02-14 Since its accession to the World Trade Organisation WTO in December 2001 China has been committed to full compliance with the Trade Related Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS Agreement This text considers the development of intellectual property in China and offers an interdisciplinary analysis of China's compliance with the TRIPS Agreement using theories originating in international relations and law It notes that despite significant efforts to amend China's substantive IP laws to prepare for WTO accession and sweeping changes to domestic legislation a significant gap existed between the laws on paper and as enforced in practice and that infringements to the agreement are still prevalent The book examines how compliance with international rules can be promoted and encouraged in a specific jurisdiction Making a case for a wider more interdisciplinary and global outlook it contends that compliance needs to align with the national interests of relevant countries and jurisdictions as governments economic interests support the greater enforcement of the IP laws      Promoting Transboundary Water Security in the Aral Sea Basin through

International Law Dinara Ziganshina, 2014-10-09 Water security threats arising from inadequate access to water for sustaining ecosystems livelihoods human well being and socio economic development has gained increasing attention over the past decades all over the world but especially in international river basins shared by two or more states In the Aral Sea basin shared by Afghanistan and five post Soviet republics of Central Asia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan water security issues are extremely pressing due to heavy reliance on and competition over shared waters Promoting Transboundary Water Security in the Aral Sea Basin through International Law addresses the current gap in the literature by moving beyond the static identification of treaties and norms to examine how these treaties and norms can work for water security in practice In its thorough and incisive scholarship the book serves as a contribution toward peaceful and sustainable regulation of transboundary watercourses and their ecosystems in the Aral Sea basin      Assessing the

Effectiveness of International Courts Yuval Shany, 2014-01-31 Are international courts effective tools for international governance Do they fulfill the expectations that led to their creation and empowerment Why do some courts appear to be more effective than others and do so such appearances reflect reality Could their results have been produced by other mechanisms This book evaluates the effectiveness of international courts and tribunals by comparing their stated goals to the actual outcomes they achieve Using a theoretical model borrowed from social science the book assesses their effectiveness by analysing key empirical data Its first part is dedicated to theory and methodology laying out the effectiveness model explaining its different components its promise and limits and discussing the measurement challenges it faces The second part analyses the role that indicators such as jurisdiction judicial independence legitimacy and compliance play in achieving effectiveness Part three applies the effectiveness model to the International Court of Justice the WTO dispute settlement mechanisms panels and Appellate Body the International Criminal Court the European Court of Human Rights and the European Court of Justice reflecting the diversity of the field of international adjudication Given the recent proliferation of international courts and tribunals this book makes an important contribution towards understanding and measuring the value that these institutions provide

Global Environmental Politics Pamela S. Chasek, David L. Downie, Jen Iris Allan, 2025-09-25 Global Environmental Politics has provided an accurate up to date and unbiased understanding of the world's most pressing environmental issues for more than thirty years This ninth edition continues this practice by covering critical new developments in global environmental politics and policymaking Updated case studies on key issues such as climate change endangered species ozone depletion land degradation and desertification marine biodiversity in areas beyond national jurisdiction whaling hazardous wastes toxic chemicals mercury and biodiversity detail the ongoing development of major environmental treaty regimes and a new case study on plastic pollution showcases the challenges of creating new treaties during a period of significant global change There is also new material on the challenges to implementing the Sustainable Development Goals the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development the World Trade Organization's agreement on fisheries subsidies and the use of the International Court of Justice to improve compliance with environmental agreements Updated information about global environmental trends paradigms and actors completes this comprehensive introduction to contemporary international environmental politics Global Environmental Politics is vital reading for students of environmental politics and anyone wishing to understand the current state of the field and to make informed decisions about which policies will best safeguard our environment for the future India and the Arab Unrest Prasanta Kumar Pradhan, 2021-07-08 This book is a study of India's political diplomatic and security challenges caused by the changing geopolitical and security dynamics in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region Like many other countries India has been deeply affected by the unrest in the Arab world As India has several long term economic political and security stakes in the region it has adopted extreme caution in its responses towards the developments in the MENA region since the beginning of the Arab unrest This book examines India's policy of non intervention and opposition to military intervention in the internal and regional affairs of the MENA region In response to the ongoing conflict India has engaged with several regional organisations and multilateral forums to work together and find political solutions to the regional conflicts The book also examines new developments such as the rise of the Islamic State and the new security challenges this has introduced Despite the regional turbulences the momentum of India's engagements with the countries of the region has been maintained and India has been building mutually beneficial partnerships in diverse fields In this context the book examines the response approach and the policies India has adopted to protect and promote its interests during the last ten years of unrest This book will be of interest to researchers students and policy makers in the fields of international relations India's foreign policy Asian studies international studies comparative studies and area studies of the Middle East and South Asia U.S.-Cuba Relations Jonathan D. Rosen, Hanna Samir Kassab, 2016-11-02 This book examines the history of United States foreign policy toward Cuba focusing on critical junctures and recent strategic shifts Restoring diplomatic relations with Cuba which were severed officially in January 1961 was a huge shift in U S foreign policy Relations between Cuba and the United States were tumultuous throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and almost escalated into full blown nuclear war in October 1962 during the Cuban missile crisis The restoration of diplomatic relations marks a fundamental departure as the two countries chart a new course into the twenty first century This book traces over seven hundred years of history setting the context to base an argument in favor of rapprochement It illustrates the importance of the Cuba deal to break with the past and delegitimize anti Americanism in the world Reducing the threat of nuclear terrorism United States. Congress. House. Committee on Commerce. Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations, 2005 Energy and Water Development Appropriations for 2013: Dept. of Energy FY 2013 justifications United States. Congress. House. and Decisionmaking Procedures of the Department of Defense United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Armed Services,1983      Department of Defense Appropriations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of Defense,2000      Advocating Social Change through International Law Daniel Bradlow,David Hunter,2019-12-09 Advocating Social Change through International Law edited by Professors Daniel Bradlow and David Hunter explores the use of hard and soft international law in advocating for social change Using case studies rooted in inter alia human rights international crimes environmental protection public health and financial regulation the book focuses on both state and non state actors strategic choices regarding the use of hard and soft international law in advocating for social change Looking through the social change lens provides new insights into the interplay between soft and hard international law the perceived costs and benefits associated with hard and soft international law in different contexts and the factors affecting the effectiveness of hard and soft approaches to international law      Transformation processes in Egypt after 2011 Radoslaw Fiedler,Przemyslaw Osiewicz,2015-08-17 The main advantage of this monograph is that it attempts to conduct the most up to date analysis possible of the present political situation in Egypt and the Middle East Therefore we receive a monograph which allows us not only to look at the Arab Spring from a historical perspective but primarily to reflect on the consequences of these past events that it was hoped would spark political reforms in Arab states and facilitate greater public participation in the system of governance Thus this publication allows the verification of many of the judgments and opinions expressed during the Arab Spring on the possible direction of development of the political processes initiated by the massive social revolts in Arab countries      India in the Indo-Pacific Aditi Malhotra,2022-06-13 In view of the fast changing world order emerging countries are increasingly influencing the dynamics of regional securities This timely and in depth book examines India s reorienting strategic posture and describes how New Delhi s security policy in the Indo Pacific region has evolved and expanded over the past two decades The author argues that India s quest to leverage its geostrategic location to emerge as an Indo Pacific actor faces multiple challenges which create a clear divide between the country s political rhetoric and action on the ground The author critically examines these contradictions to better situate India s security role in an increasingly fluid Indo Pacific region      Beyond the success in transboundary water management Abdurasul Kayumov,2016-02-29 Today when so many countries share the same transboundary river basins unilateral water management becomes extremely critical Joint water management on the other hand faces many obstacles because of states interests in particular function of the water Water is needed for drinking household irrigation hydro energy fishing navigation tourism as well as many other purposes and unfortunately it cannot meet all needs simultaneously The satisfaction of one need often impedes the others In this regard transboundary river basins often create challenges among states by leading them to negotiate in asymmetric relations This book is an attempt to address the effectiveness of transboundary water management from a social and political perspective by offering new theoretical underpinnings to understand the success conditions in sharing transboundary water resources The author focused in the work on three conditions i e institutional conditions and country specific conditions as well as conditions of regional integrity level and role of external actors The proposed conditions were tested on two river basins i e the successful one in the example of Orange Senqu river basin and unsuccessful one in the case of Naryn Syrdarya river basin
