Women's Education in the Third World Gail P. Kelly, Carolyn M. Elliott, 1983-06-30 Gail Kelly and Carolyn Elliott have assembled the latest and best available scholarship from a range of disciplines to illuminate the determinants nature and outcomes of women's education in third World nations This study focuses on the undereducation of women in Africa Asia Latin America and the Middle East delving into its causes changes in female education patterns and the significance of these changes to societies and to women's lives Articles in this volume lay the foundation for further research by examining women's schooling from the novel perspective that the social and economic outcomes of women's education are shaped by gender sex systems that subordinate women to men

Reforming Chile Patrick Barr-Melej, 2002-11-25 Highlighting the crucial yet largely overlooked role played by society's middle layers in the historical development of Latin America Patrick Barr Melej provides the first comprehensive analysis of the rise of Chile's middle class reform movement and its profound impact on that country's cultural and political landscapes He shows how a diverse collection of middle class intellectuals writers politicians educators and bureaucrats forged a progressive nationalism and advanced an ambitious cultural political project between the 1890s and 1940s Together reformers challenged the power of elite groups and sought to quell working class revolutionary activism as they endeavored to democratize culture and fortify liberal democracy Using sources that range from archival documents and newspapers to short stories novels and school textbooks Barr Melej examines the reform movement's cultural ideas and their political applications especially as they were articulated in the areas of literature and public education In the process he provides a new framework for understanding Chile's cultural and political evolution as well as the complicated place of the middle class in a society experiencing the swift changes inherent in capitalist modernization

Coming of Age in Times of Crisis J. Hurtig, 2008-12-08 Coming of Age in Times of Crisis is an anthropological study of the intersecting roles of gender and schooling in the lives of rural Venezuelan youth as they make the transition to adulthood during times of national political and economic crisis Strongly grounded in local detail while speaking to larger comparative issues and the crises that surround globalization the study enables us to see how gender roles and social class are reproduced in a culture experiencing profound upheaval and to see how rural Venezuelans have managed to reproduce and change their culture in these circumstances This book is based on two and a half years of ethnographic field research Hurtig conducted in the Andean region of Venezuela between 1991 and 1993 and again briefly in 1996
