Educating for Peace and Justice Mary Beth Gallagher, 1976 Education for Peace and Justice: Global dimensions James B. McGinnis, Kathleen McGinnis, 1981 Teaching Peace as a Matter of Justice Dale T. Snauwaert, 2023-07-07

This book explores the normative dimensions of peace studies and peace education through the lens of moral and political philosophy. The purpose is to explore the idea of peace as a matter of justice and to articulate a pedagogical framework for the development and exercise of citizens' capacities for moral reasoning and judgment regarding potential responses to the basic questions of justice including resisting injustice. The just conditions necessary for peace are contingent upon the informed participation of democratic citizens who are capable of becoming dynamic agents of justice. The development of citizens' capacity for moral reasoning and judgment is of paramount importance for it constitutes a necessary condition for the realization of justice and peace on all levels of human society from local to global. The book will be of interest to both students and all those interested in thinking about peace as a matter of justice.

This book presents commentaries by a leading international group of peace education scholars and practitioners concerning Reardon's peace education theory and intellectual legacy. The guiding question throughout the book is: How can her foundational work be used to advance the theory and practice of peace education? In an attempt to find answers, the contributing authors explore three general areas of inquiry: 1. Theoretical Foundations of Peace and Human Rights Education; 2. Feminism and the Gender Perspective as Pathways of Transformation Toward Peace and Justice; and 3. Peace Education Pedagogy and Practices. A contemplative commentary by Reardon herself rounds out the coverage.
