Tomaiuolo,2004 Describes how to create a digital library of documents E-government and Public Sector Process Rebuilding Kim Viborg Andersen,2006-02-23 E government and Public Sector Process Rebuilding Dilettantes Wheelbarrows and Diamonds provides an input to rebuild and improve the processes in which the public sector perform activities and interact with the citizens companies and the formal elected decision makers Through eleven chapters the book emphasizes information systems IS as the vehicle for redirecting the public sector towards its key customers The book stresses serious capability challenges inhibiting the digital transformation using activity and customer centric applications The dilettantes in the public sector are in need of upgrading rethinking and refocusing their use of IS There is a need to revisit the extensive use of digital wheelbarrows to transmit data and complement the transactional focus with IT enabled analysis of the activities There is also a need to recognize that IS are not just flashy and shining diamonds to be shown off on special occasions IS are as most diamonds manufactured products part of the activities and intended for replacement whenever the diamonds are no longer suitable for serving their purpose diamonds do not last forever Presidential Campaigning in the Internet Age Jennifer Stromer-Galley,2019 As the plugged in presidential campaign has arguably reached maturity Presidential Campaigning in the Internet Age challenges popular claims about the democratizing effect of Digital Communication Technologies DCTs Analyzing campaign strategies structures and tactics from the past six presidential election cycles Stromer Galley reveals how for all their vaunted inclusivity and tantalizing promise of increased two way communication between candidates and the individuals who support them DCTs have done little to change the fundamental dynamics of campaigns The expansion of new technologies has presented candidates with greater opportunities to micro target potential voters cheaper and easier ways to raise money and faster and more innovative ways to respond to opponents The need for communication control and management however has made campaigns slow and loathe to experiment with truly interactive internet communication technologies Citizen involvement in the campaign historically has been and as this book shows continues to be a means to an end winning the election for the candidate For all the proliferation of apps to download polls to click videos to watch and messages to forward the decidedly undemocratic view of controlled interactivity is how most campaigns continue to operate In the fully revised second edition Presidential Campaigning in the Internet Age examines election cycles from 1996 when the World Wide Web was first used for presidential campaigning through 2016 when campaigns had the full power of advertising on social media sites As the book charts changes in internet communication technologies it shows how even as campaigns have moved from a mass mediated to a networked paradigm the possibilities these shifts in interactivity seem to promise for citizen input and empowerment remain farther than a click away   Digital Politics in Canada Tamara Small,Harold Jansen,2020-10-01 Digital Politics in Canada addresses a significant gap in the scholarly literature on both media in Canada and Canadian political science Using a comprehensive multidisciplinary historical and focused analysis of Canadian digital politics this book covers the full scope of actors in the Canadian political system including traditional political institutions of the government elected officials political parties and the mass media At a time when issues of inclusion are central to political debate this book features timely chapters on Indigenous people women and young people and takes an in depth look at key issues of online surveillance and internet voting Ideal for a wide ranging course on the impact of digital technology on the Canadian political system this book encourages students to critically engage in discussions about the future of Canadian politics and democracy
