The Real Work William Scott McLean, Gary Snyder, 2015-10-24 American poet Gary Snyder on poetics tribalism ecology Zen Buddhism meditation the writing process and more The Real Work is the second volume of Gary Snyder's prose to be published by New Directions Where his earlier Earth House Hold 1969 heralded the tribalism of the coming revolution the interviews in The Real Work focus on the living out of that process in a particular place and time the Sierra Nevada foothills of Northern California in the 1970s The talks and interviews collected here range over fifteen years 1964 79 and encompass styles as different as those of the Berkeley Barb and The New York Quarterly A poetics of process characterizes these exchanges but in the words of editor Mclean their chief attraction is good plain talk with a man who has a lively and very subtle mind and a wide range of experience and knowledge Mastery's End Jeffrey Gray, 2005-01-01 Focusing on lyric poetry Mastery's End looks at important yet neglected issues of subjectivity in post World War II travel literature Jeffrey Gray departs from related studies in two regards nearly all recent scholarly books on the literature of travel have dealt with pre twentieth century periods and all are concerned with narrative genres Gray questions whether the postcolonial theoretical model of travel as mastery hegemony and exploitation still applies In its place he suggests a model of vulnerability incoherence and disorientation to reflect the modern destabilizing nature of travel a process that began with the unprecedented movement of people during and after World War II and has not abated since What the contemporary discourse concerning displacement border crossing and identity needs says Gray is a study of that literary genre with the least investment in closure and the least fidelity to ethnic and national continuities His concern is not only with the psychological challenges to identity but also with travel as a mode of understanding and composition Following a summary of American critical perspectives on travel from Emerson to the present Gray discusses how travel by nature defamiliarizes and induces heightened awareness Such phenomena Gray says correspond to the tenets of modern poetics traversing territories immersing the self in new object worlds reconstituting the known as unknown He then devotes a chapter each to four of the past half century s most celebrated English speaking western poets Elizabeth Bishop Robert Lowell John Ashbery and Derek Walcott Finally two multi poet chapters examine the travel poetry of Allen Ginsberg Gary Snyder and Robert Creeley Lyn Hejinian Nathaniel Mackey and others The World's Best Poetry ...: Nature; [introductory essay] The poetry of nature, by C.G.D.
