

Clan Edmonstone

The Scottish Clan Edmonstone has a long and storied history, dating back to the 12th century. The name "Edmonstone" is thought to have originated from a combination of "tun," meaning "noble residence" or "small village," and "Aedmund," possibly referring to Aedmund, son of Forn, who was a witness to a charter in 1150.

The Edmonstones were prominent in the Edinburgh area, and their lands can still be found there today. Sir John de Edmonstone was an important figure at the court of David II, and was rewarded with the barony of Boyne in Banffshire. He also received the barony of Ednam, which became the family's primary designation, from Robert II. His marriage to Isabel, widow of James, Earl of Douglas, who was the daughter of the king, cemented the family's status at court.

Over time, the Edmonstone family acquired the lands of Duntreath, and numerous cadet houses (or branches) of the family emerged. One of the most notable members of the family was Sir William Edmondstone of Duntreath, who was appointed captain of Doune Castle and steward of Monteith by James VI.

The Edmonstones played an important role in Scottish history. Sir John de Edmonstone was employed on various embassies to England, and the family's connections at court helped to further their influence. The family's loyalty to the Scottish crown was also notable. Sir Archibald Edmonstone of the Duntreath line was created a baronet in 1774, and the fifth Baronet of Duntreath served as groom-in-waiting to Edward VII from 1907 to 1910.
