K. Wong,Robert Rothman,2009 This series explores the history of schools and schooling in the United States and other countries The series will examine the historical development of schools and educational processes with special emphasis on issues of educational policy curriculum and pedagogy as well as issues relating to race class gender and ethnicity Special emphasis will be placed on the lessons to be learned from the past for contemporary educational reform and policy Although the series will publish books related to education in the broadest societal and cultural context it especially seeks books on the history of specific schools and on the lives of educational leaders and school founders Equality Act 2006 Great Britain,2006-02-23 The Act contains provisions to establish a new single body called the Commission for Equality and Human Rights CEHR to take over the work of the existing equality Commissions the Equal Opportunities Commission the Commission for Racial Equality and the Disability Rights Commission The CEHR will also assume responsibility for promoting equality and combating unlawful discrimination in relation to sexual orientation religion and age as well as providing for the first time institutional support for the promotion of human rights in the delivery of public services The Stationery Office

Annual Catalogue Stationery Office (Great Britain),2006 Virtuality and Education ,2006-01-01 The main common themes of an earlier book in this series Virtual Learning and Higher Education were the extent to which education should become virtual the actual cost and value of such innovation and to what degree such education suits its stakeholders In order to further engage with these important issues a conference was held in Mansfield College Oxford in September 2003 An edited selection of the papers from that event along with relevant papers that developed as a result of the conference s subsequent correspondences are the contents of this book The chapters cover a spectrum of practical issues from at the chalkface experimentations with virtual technologies via those who consider the consequences of establishing such systems through to those interested in developing long term strategy or policy in the area This stimulating and important book is aimed at researchers of topics such as technology driven education philosophy innovation and cultural studies It is also meant to appeal to anyone with an interest in the virtual world of education

The SAGE Deaf Studies Encyclopedia Genie Gertz, Patrick Boudreault, 2016-01-05 The time has come for a new in depth encyclopedic collection of articles defining the current state of Deaf Studies at an international level and using the critical and intersectional lens encompassing the field The emergence of Deaf Studies programs at colleges and universities and the broadened knowledge of social sciences including but not limited to Deaf History Deaf Culture Signed Languages Deaf Bilingual Education Deaf Art and more have served to expand the activities of research teaching analysis and curriculum development The field has experienced a major shift due to increasing awareness of Deaf Studies research since the mid 1960s The field has been further influenced by the Deaf community s movement resistance activism and politics worldwide as well as the impact of technological advances such as in communications with cell phones computers and other devices A major goal of this new encyclopedia is to shift focus away from the Medical Pathological Model that would view Deaf individuals as needing to be fixed in order to correct hearing and speaking deficiencies for the sole purpose of assimilating into mainstream society By contrast The Deaf Studies Encyclopedia seeks to carve out a new and critical perspective on Deaf Studies with the focus that the Deaf are not a people with a disability to be treated and cured medically but rather are members of a distinct cultural group with a distinct and vibrant community and way of being

Introduction to Education Studies Steve Bartlett, Diana M. Burton, 2007 Introduction to Education Studies is established as the key text for undergraduate students of education studies as well as for practitioners embarking on a higher degree The book provides a thorough grounding for students new to the subject without assuming a substantial prior knowledge of the area It also takes a multidisciplinary approach to the study of education drawing on the authors extensive experience of teaching and course development at both undergraduate and postgraduate level This updated edition includes new sections on the nature and purposes of education research in education ideologies and the curriculum lifelong learning comparative education social and psychological explanations for pupil student achievement policy developments in education This highly popular accessibly written text is essential reading for students on education studies courses The authors have provided an important resource for student study in education Importantly it reinforces the necessity of a multi disciplinary approach to the understanding of contested educational process and practices in a contemporary context Dave Trotman Escalate The Measure of America, 2010-2011 Kristen Lewis, Sarah Burd-Sharps, 2010-11-01 The Measure of America 2010 2011 is the definitive report on the overall well being of all Americans How are Americans doing compared to one another and compared to the rest of the world This important easy to understand guide will provide all of the essential information on the current state of America This fully illustrated report with over 130 color images is based on the groundbreaking American Human Development Index which provides a single measure of the well being for all Americans disaggregated by state and congressional district as well as by race gender and ethnicity The Index rankings of the 50 states and 435 congressional districts reveal huge disparities in the health education and living standards of different groups For example overall Connecticut ranked first among states on the 2008 2009 Index and Mississippi ranked last suggesting that there is a 30 year gap in human development between the two states Further among congressional districts New York s 14th District in Manhattan ranked first and California s 20th District near Fresno ranked last The average resident of New York s 14th District earned over three times as much as the average resident of California s 20th District lived over four years longer and was ten times as likely to have a college degree The second in the American Human Development Report series the 2010 2011 edition features a completely updated Index new findings on the well being of different racial and ethnic groups from state to state and a closer look at disparities within major metro areas It also shines a spotlight on threats to progress and opportunity for some Americans as well as highlighting tested approaches to fostering resilience among different groups Using a revelatory framework for explaining the very nature of human progress this report can be used not only as a way to measure America but also to build upon past policy successes protect the progress made over the last half century from new risks and create an infrastructure of opportunity that can serve a new generation of Americans Beautifully illustrated with stunning four color graphics that allow for a quick visual understanding of often complex but important issues The Measure of America is essential reading for all Americans especially for social scientists policy makers and pundits who want to understand where Americans stand today
