Education and the Barricades Charles Frankel, 1968

Education and training information exchange, 1979

On Display: Visual Politics, Material Culture, and Education Karin Priem, Kerstin te Heesen, 2016 This book focuses on one of the most successful photography exhibitions in history The Family of Man With The Family of Man as its reference point this collection of essays takes a closer look at visual and material objects It examines their relevance for educational issues and exhibition designs We understand these issues in their broadest sense to encompass processes of citizenship and identity formation and the adoption and or preservation of ethical and political values with effects that range from the micro to the macro from the national to the international level The overall hypothesis of this volume is that images objects and designs were created and employed as performers and performances that interacted with and attracted mass audiences This book not only looks at how the presentational representational and social power of images objects and designs was deliberately used by political and cultural stakeholders during the mid 1950s but also how these technologies of display travelled through time and space and as historical objects interacted and continue to interact with new contexts and audiences

Betty A. Reardon: A Pioneer in Education for Peace and Human Rights Betty A. Reardon, Dale T. Snauwaert, 2014-08-26 Betty A Reardon is a world renowned leader in the fields of peace education and human rights her pioneering work has laid the foundation for a new cross disciplinary integration of peace education and international human rights from a gender conscious global perspective This collection of reflective inquiry and ongoing research gathers essential works on peace education and human rights 1967 2014 and provides access to Reardon s key works These texts have been foundational to the field of peace education during the past five decades of her practical experience The unique conceptualization of a holistic framework for organizing content and the practical and specific descriptions of pedagogies for the practice of critical peace education in schools and universities have made them essential resources for peace educators around the world several have already become standard texts for basic courses in the field The book also includes an overview of Reardon s career and a bibliography of her publications

Education Human Resources Research Organization, 1975

Education and the Production of Space Derek

Ford, 2016-10-26 Emerging from a radical pedagogical tradition Education and the Production of Space deepens and extends Henri Lefebvre s insights on revolutionary praxis by revealing the intimate relationship between education and the production of space Synthesizing educational theory Marxist theory and critical geography the book articulates a revolutionary political pedagogy one that emerges as a break from within and against critical pedagogy Ford investigates the role of space in the context of emerging social movements and urban rebellions with a focus on the Baltimore Rebellion of 2015 and shows how processes of learning studying and teaching can help us produce space differently in a manner aligned with our needs and desires

Guide for Teacher Preparation in Driver Education United States. National Highway Traffic

Safety Administration,1974      Transnational Education Grant McBurnie,Christopher Ziguras,2006-11-22 While the international mobility of students is a well established feature of higher education the international mobility of institutions and courses on a large scale is a more novel phenomenon Transnational education is at the leading edge of the most fundamental changes taking place in higher education today Topics discussed in this new volume include the extent and form of offshore activity the pedagogical and cultural controversies that have plagued transnational education the challenges it presents to governments educators and HE managers how governments are developing forms of regulation to integrate cross border programs and branch campuses into their strategic planning for the sector the new opportunities for students and institutions Transnational Education presents a global perspective on the development of international online education partner supported transnational programs and international branch campuses It provides a comprehensive and analytical account of the active role some universities are playing on the international stage and offers valuable guidance on future trends in the sector      Education and Training Information Exchange Bulletin National Highway Institute (U.S.),1979

The Contemporary Scholar in Higher Education Paul Gibbs,Victoria de Rijke,Andrew Peterson,2024-07-18 This book examines what a scholar looks and feels like in contemporary times It suggests that scholars are more than people employed as academics and discusses how different world ideologies cultures and systems view their scholars and how they might be considered in the changing and challenging nature of higher education The book includes discussion from Islamic Confucian postcolonial and post Soviet perspectives alongside other approaches such as the scholar artist thinker teacher and activist It will appeal to students and scholars working in the philosophy of higher education higher education practice and comparative studies
