Education Modernization In Asia:

Education and Modernization in Asia Donald K. Adams, 1970 Problems of Educational Development and Modernization in Asia Peter Hackett, 1972 The Modernization of Inner Asia Cyril E. Black, Louis Dupree, Elizabeth Endicott-West, Daniel C. Matuszewski, Eden Naby, Arthur N. Waldron, 2016-09-16 Inner Asia in premodern times the little known land of nomads and semi nomads has moved to the world's front page in the 20th century as the complex struggles for the future of Afghanistan Soviet Central Asia Tibet and other territories make clear But because Inner Asia as a whole is divided among several states politically and among area specialists academically broad perspectives on recent events are difficult to find This work treats the region as a single unit providing both an account of the region's past and an analysis of its present and its prospects in a thematic rather than a strictly country by country manner Education and Culture in Industrializing Asia Willy Wielemans, Pauline Choi-Ping Chan, 1992 The Dynamics of Higher Education Development in East Asia D. Neubauer, J. Shin, 2013-12-18 This book examines four theses regarding Asian higher education and development interplay between cultural traditions economic development globalization and the evolution of the hybrid university Top scholars evaluate these hypotheses and determine the elements shaping the history and present circumstances of Asia Pacific higher education Routledge Library Editions: Education in Asia Various, 2021-07-14 This set of reissued books examines education in Asia from a variety of different angles From the westernisation of early twentieth century Chinese education to the impact of the Communist revolution to education and society in Korea to Asian women's experiences of education this set collects some key texts by a range of original thinkers The Routledge Encyclopedia of Modern Asian Educators Shin'ichi Suzuki, Gary McCulloch, Mingyuan Gu, Parimala V. Rao, Ji-Yeon Hong, 2021-06-29 This handbook is a unique and major resource on modern educators of Asia and their contribution to Asian educational development through the 19th and 20th centuries when modernization started in Asia In one comprehensive volume this handbook covers a selection of modern educators from East Asia South Asia and Southeast Asia and their contributions to the development of modern education practically and theoretically The diversity of cultures and religion as well as the multilinguistic and ethnic context have made Asian modernization unique and complex Educational modernization in Asia reflected this historical context in many ways and resulted in the diverse forms of learning teaching institutions and administration Modern Asian educators compiled in this handbook represent various fields of Asian society not only educational but cultural and social fields like academia politics economics religion literature theatre fine arts and civic genres including the media Through this Handbook readers may discover the individual modern educators male and female and their contributions to Asian educational modernization All of them were committed to the cause of education for children youth adults and in particular women In addition this volume has an extraordinarily rich subject index which can be an excellent guide and introduction to information touching divergent dynamics of educational developments in modern Asia This insightful volume is perfect for students and researchers working on history of education comparative education and educational development particularly for those interested in Asian contexts Confucianism and Modernization in East Asia Kim Kyong-Dong,2017-05-06

Spanning the 19th and 20th centuries and identifying multiple waves of modernization this book illustrates how principles originating in Chinese Confucianism have impacted the modernization of East Asia especially in Korea It also analyzes how such principles are exercised at personal interpersonal and organizational levels As modernization unfolds in East Asia there is a rising interest in tradition of Confucianism and reconsider the relevance of Confucianism to global development This book considers the actual historical significance of Confucianism in the modernization of the three nations in this region China Korea and Japan through the nineteenth century and early twentieth century to the aftermath of the end of World War II Examining the existing literature dealing with how Confucianism has been viewed in connection with modernization it provides insight into western attitudes towards Confucianism and the changes in perceptions relative to Asia in the very process of modernization itself International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On

Lee,Phillip Brown,A. Lin Goodwin,Andy Green,2023-11-20 The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127 chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world Competition and Modernization in South Asia Hellen E. Ulrich,2003-06

Enhancing Asia-Europe Co-operation Through Educational Exchange Georg Wiessala,2011-02-25 Georg Wiessala offers a critique of the ways in which intellectual and academic exchanges inform and shape external interactions with countries institutions and non state actors across the Asia Pacific Wiessala analyses ideologies mechanisms and policies through which matters of exchange and inter cultural dialogue have come to bear on the EU Asia dialogue Education and Development in Central Asia Medlin,Cave,F. Carpenter,2023-07-24 A New Modern History of East Asia Eckhardt Fuchs,Tokushi

Kasahara,Sven Saaler,2017-12-04 For decades historians and societal forces have campaigned for rapprochement reconciliation and dialogue between East Asian nations This book is a result of these efforts Debates regarding the interpretation of the modern history of East Asia continue to affect bilateral relations between the states of the region History education has become a particularly controversial issue in this context This book s main message is that a common understanding regarding the history of East Asia is possible even though some differences remain It is not only a major contribution to reconciliation in the region but as the first textbook on the history of East Asia written collaboratively by scholars from three East Asian countries it is also highly recommended for use in an anglophone teaching environment The authors are a group of historians teachers and concerned citizens from China Japan and South Korea The Palgrave Handbook of Asia Pacific Higher Education Christopher S. Collins, Molly N.N. Lee, John N. Hawkins, Deane E. Neubauer, 2016-10-06 This volume seeks to identify and explore the forces affecting higher education in the Asia Pacific region today It includes a set of conceptually rich organizing chapters followed by detailed country specific studies that detail both the underlying dynamics of these forces and the manner in which they have affected specific countries In this way the chapters touch on the complex demographics of the region how continued and continuous economic development impinges on higher education and how neoliberalism has affected higher education across many dimensions The volume also addresses the complex issues associated with cross border education and the daunting challenges of both national and cross national quality assurance Education in South Asia and the Indian Ocean Islands Hema Letchamanan, Debotri Dhar, 2017-12-14 Education in South Asia and the Indian Ocean Islands is a critical reference guide to development of education in Bangladesh Bhutan India Nepal Sri Lanka Comoros Islands Maldives Mauritius Seychelles and Zanzibar The chapters provide an overview of the education system in each country focusing particularly on contemporary education policies and some of the problems countries in this region face during the processes of development Key themes include the practice of implementation of educational policy and the impact of global and local educational decisions on societies Due to the demographic scale and the cultural diversity of India the volume contains a particularly extensive coverage of the distinctive educational issues in this country Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole this book is an essential reference for researchers scholars international agencies and policy makers Critical Studies of Education in Asia Leonel Lim, Michael W. Apple, 2020-06-09 Critical Studies of Education in Asia features analyses that take seriously the complex postcolonial historical and cultural consciousnesses felt across societies in Asia and that bring these to bear on the changing terrain of knowledge subjectivities and power relations constructed both within schools and across the public sphere In documenting the multiple sites of conflict and contestation both between and within states in Asia and a host of pedagogic agents ministries of education state boards and agencies schools teachers and teacher unions university departments of education local interest groups the media international standards agencies and global educational reform discourses the chapters in this volume illuminate the struggles over knowledge education and the work of schools Faced with emergent global and local forces that are determined to challenge official knowledge and to offer alternative understandings of education and society in Asia this volume offers critical insights for academic researchers policy makers and graduate students seeking to understand the tensions and possibilities of educational change in the region This book was originally published as a special issue of Curriculum Inquiry Education in East Asia Pei-tseng Jenny Hsieh, 2013-05-23

Education in East Asia is a comprehensive critical reference guide to education in the region. With chapters written by an international team of leading regional education experts, the book explores the education systems of China, Hong Kong, Japan, Macao, Mongolia, North Korea, South Korea, and Taiwan, covering local regional developments in each country as well as recent reforms and global contexts. Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole and guides to available online datasets, this handbook will be an essential reference for researchers, scholars, international agencies, and policy makers at all levels.

Science Education Research and Practice in East Asia: Trends and Perspectives Huann-shyang Lin, John K. Gilbert, Chi-Jui Lien, 2016-09-20. This book is a collaborative product of an official project approved by the East Asian Association for Science Education (EASE), one of the most important professional societies of science education in Asia. This EASE book is compiled with a unique approach. It consists of well-structured four sections: A The Historical Development of Science Education in East Asia; B The Achievements of Science Education Research in East Asia; C Science Teacher Training in East Asia; and D Some Challenges to Research in Science Education in East Asia. Its fifteen chapters are co-authored/collaborated by renowned scholars from regions of East Asia. The book successfully integrated and consolidated the research findings, curricular developments, and science teaching practices that have shaped ongoing educational agenda and student learning outcome in an unprecedented approach. Six Regional Coordinators from Mainland China, Hong Kong, Japan, Korea, and Taiwan worked together with Editors and more than fifty science educators to assure the book project adequately reflects the trends and practices in this region. The six Regional Coordinators are: 1 Prof Weiping HU, Shaanxi Normal University; 2 Prof Winnie SO, Wing Mui, The Education University of Hong Kong; 3 Prof Masakata OGAWA, Tokyo University of Science; 4 Prof Jinwoong SONG, Seoul National University; 5 Prof Huann-shyang LIN, National Sun Yat-sen University; 6 Prof Chi-jui LIEN, National Taipei University of Education. This book intends not only to serve as references but also a complement of existing perspectives from western countries. Insights gained from the integration and consolidation of East Asian developmental trends and perspectives would allow science educators, teachers, and policy makers make wise decision for future advancements for their own countries.
