Education Of A Yankee A New England Memoir:

The Education of a Yankee Judson D. Hale, 1987-08 The editor of Yankee magazine author of Inside New England is back again with a humorous informative and irreverent autobiography A delightfully engaging and unconventional memoir 40 illustrations The Education of a Yankee Judson D. Hale, 1988-09 The New Hampshire Century Felice Belman, Mike Pride, 2001 An illustrated account of 20th century New Hampshire told through the lives of those who made it The staff of the Concord Monitor have profiled 100 of the state's most interesting characters Among them are people working hard to preserve the past and people looking steadily forward 138 illustrations Autobiography of a Yankee Mariner Christopher Prince, 2002 Prince recalls his life at sea including service as a privateer during the Revolution Memoirs of a New England Lass Anne Trevethan Birkhoff, 2020-06-02 Memoirs of a New England Lass is an eclectic collection of memoirs about growing up in New England in the 1950s through the early 1970s From nature walks at an early age with her father to her first day of teaching high school English at the age of twenty one the author reflects on her true life experiences You may laugh or you may cry at the life lessons the author learns in the varied situations in which she finds herself The section entitled Questions to Ponder at the end of each selection provides readers with an opportunity to think back on their lives and encourages them to compose their own life stories Regional Interest Magazines of the United States Sam Riley, Gary W. Selnow, 1990-11-30 In Regional Interest Magazines of the United States Sam G Riley and Gary W Selnow focus on those magazines that direct their attention to a particular city or region and reach a fairly general readership interested in entertainment and information This work is a follow up to their earlier Index to City and Regional Magazines of the United States Titles are arranged alphabetically to facilitate access each entry includes a historical essay on the magazine's founding development editorial policies and content Entries also include two sections that provide data on information sources and publication history arranged in tabular form for ready reference In choosing the magazines to be profiled Riley and Selnow attempted to represent not only the biggest and most successful of this genre but also some smaller and newer titles plus significant earlier magazines that are no longer in print Special care was also taken to achieve an even geographical spread To attain greater accuracy regional writers were enlisted to do the entries on their own region These writers provide valuable information on how the various magazines began how conditions have caused them to change their problems their editors and publishers and their content as well as colorful and little known facts of their operation Magazines were arranged alphabetically and two informative appendices list the profiled titles by founding date and geographic location This volume will be a valuable resource for students of magazine publishing history Kirkus Reviews, 1987 Adult books are categorized by genre i.e. fiction mystery science fiction nonfiction Along with bibliographic information the expected date of publication and the names of literary agents for individual titles are provided Starred reviews serve several functions In the adult section they mark potential bestsellers major promotions book club selections and just very good books in the children

s section they denote books of very high quality The unsigned reviews manage to be discerning and sometimes quite critical

Books in Print Supplement ,1994 Biographical Memoirs National Academy of Sciences,1979-01-01 Biographic Memoirs Volume 50 contains the biographies of deceased members of the National Academy of Sciences and bibliographies of their published works Each biographical essay was written by a member of the Academy familiar with the professional career of the deceased For historical and bibliographical purposes these volumes are worth returning to time and again A Volume of Memoirs and Genealogy of Representative Citizens of Northern California ,1901 Men and Times of the Revolution, or, Memoirs of E. W., including Journals of travels in Europe and America, from 1777 to 1842, with his correspondence with public men and reminiscences and incidents of the Revolution, edited by his son, W. C. Watson Elkanah WATSON,1861 A Companion to the American Novel Alfred Bendixen,2014-11-17 Featuring 37 essays by distinguished literary scholars A Companion to the American Novel provides a comprehensive single volume treatment of the development of the novel in the United States from the late 18th century to the present day Represents the most comprehensive single volume introduction to this popular literary form currently available Features 37 contributions from a wide range of distinguished literary scholars Includes essays on topics and genres historical overviews and key individual works including The Scarlet Letter Moby Dick The Great Gatsby Beloved and many more Autobiography, Diary, and Correspondence James Freeman Clarke,1891 Education and the Global Rural Barbara Pini,Relebohile Moletsane,Martin Mills,2017-10-02 This edited collection challenges the urban centric nature of much feminist work on gender and education The context for the book is the radical reconfiguration of rural areas that has occurred in recent decades as a result of globalisation From a range of diverse national contexts including Kenya and South Africa Australia and Canada and the United States and Pakistan authors explore the intersections between masculinity femininity and rurality in education In recognition of the heterogeneity of categories such as rural girl and rural boy they attend to how educational exclusions can be magnified by differences in relation to social locations such as class race or sexuality Similar critical insights are brought to bear as authors examine what it means to be a male or female teacher in rural environments Contributors draw on data ranging from contemporary feature films to historical materials along with detailed ethnographic work and participatory approaches to produce a compelling narrative of the need to understand education as experienced by those who are not part of the urban majority This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1853 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden,1853 Harper s informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell,Albert Edward Winship,Anson Wood Belding,1904 Memoirs of an Editor Edward Page Mitchell,1924 Autobiography of Edward Page Mitchell an American editorial and short story writer for The Sun The British Controversialist ,1861 The British Controversialist
