

WHY Christian Education?

Christian education matters today more than ever. As the moral underpinnings of our society slowly erode, we are being called upon with increasing frequency to give an answer for our beliefs and to make a defense for, as the Apostle

Peter put it, "the hope that is within us." Our best gift to our children is an education that enables them to think clearly and with purpose, for the glory of God and in the name of Jesus Christ.

Know God
(Micah 6:8)

God-centered
(Prov. 1:7)

"I am the Way, the Truth and the Life."
(John 14:6)

Our sin is the problem, Jesus Christ is the answer.
(Romans 6:23)

"God created man in his own image"
(Genesis 1:27)

History has a beginning,
middle and end.
(Rev. 1:8)

Faith brings freedom.
(1 Cor. 13:13)

"Before I formed
thee in the belly
I knew thee."
(Jeremiah 1:5)

Meaning exists objectively and absolutely.
(John 17:17)

One consistent worldview (Eccl. 12:13)

Changing hearts
(1 Cor. 13:3)

Ream, Perry Lynn Glanzer, 2007-09-17 In the twenty first century religious faith has reemerged from the margins of modernism and moved back to the center of contemporary scholarly conversations When Jacques Derrida died Stanley Fish recently wrote I was called by a reporter who wanted to know what would succeed high theory and the triumvirate of race gender and class as the center of intellectual energy in the academy I answered like a shot religion A group of evaluators of the Lilly Endowment's Initiative on Religion and Higher Education recently agreed There is today more discussion about the role of religion in the academy than at any time in the past 40 years and more commitment to the project of Christian higher education than there was just ten years ago In recognition of these developments this particular monograph offers an overview of the various ways conversations about religion and religiously informed scholarship are increasing in the academy Although a growing number of faith traditions are finding their place in this conversation the Christian tradition in its various forms is still the dominant voice This monograph addresses the history of secularization in American higher education and scholarship the historical and resistance by dominant religious traditions to that secularization the contemporary ways that individual scholars networks and institutions approach the question of religious faith and scholarship the concerns such a question raises for academic freedom and the relationship between religious faith and scholarship

Integrating Faith and Special Education Bennett Nworie, 2016-10-10 There is an inherent connection between the Christian faith and special education For example both focus on the worth of the individual Both also focus on fairness and on caring for or helping the weak Similarly both aim to equip and support others This book helps the readers perceive this integral relationship that exists between the Christian faith and the special education discipline This book utilizes the chapters that stem from real life professional experiences and scholarship of the contributors to model and encourage special education practice from a Christian faith angle It is our view that special education practiced from this faith perspective will transform what is currently accepted as best practice into a new system of special education experience that is wholesome biblically based and characteristic of Shalom as wholeness not just peace Shalom in this sense has strong relevance in both the Christian faith and special education The first three chapters highlight the connection between special education and Christian theology and draw attention to the pivotal role worldview plays in being an effective special educator The bulk of the body of the text looks at different aspects of instructional effectiveness in special education from a Christian faith perspective
