Eleanore Mikus Shadows Of The Real:

Eleanore Mikus Robert Carleton Hobbs, Judith E. Bernstock, 1991 Eleanore Mikus Shadows of the Real brings together for the first time the monochromatic work of an immensely important artist Her art is related to minimalism to slow down perception and thought it reduces artistic means to only a few elements Mikus differs from the minimalists in her use of materials Her subtly inflected surfaces play with real light and shadows They manifest the seemingly contradictory qualities of pristine appearance and old age While sharing the austerity and sense of purity found in early suprematist paintings by Kasimir Malevich and Alexander Rochenko among others Mikus's white black and gray works have a sensuousness and a subtlety that bring them into closer harmony with organic nature As light and viewpoints change evanescent shadows emerge and disappear on the gently modulated surfaces In the 1960s Mikus's works were acquired by major museums on the East and West coasts In this book Robert Hobbs an associate professor of the history of art at Florida State University and the author of monographs on Milton Avery Edward Hopper and Robert Rauschenberg examines Mikus's relationship to Zen Buddhism which began to fascinate Americans after World War II He also considers her development as a critic of American postwar consumption and prosperity Cornell professor Judith Bernstock the author of a recent monograph on Joan Mitchell and the forthcoming book Under the Spell of Orpheus looks at Mikus's contributions in relation to the tradition of modern art The book contains an appreciation by Thomas W. Leavitt the director of Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art at Cornell University Provided by publisher

Monochrome Craig Staff, 2015-09-17 The monochrome a single colour of paint applied over the entirety of a canvas remains one of the more contentious modernist artistic inventions But whilst the manufacture of these pictures of nothing was ostensibly straightforward their subsequent theorisation has been anything but More than a history Monochrome: Darkness and Light in Contemporary Art is the first account of the monochrome's lively role in contemporary art Liberated from the burden of representation the monochrome first stood for emancipation an ideological and artistic impulse that characterised the avant garde of the early twentieth century Historically the monochrome embodied the most extreme form of abstraction and pure materiality Yet more recently adaptations of the art form have focused on a broader range of cultural and interpretive contexts Provocative innovative and timely this book argues that the latest artistic strategies go beyond stylistic concerns and instead seek to re-engage with ideas around authorship process and the conditions of the visible as they are given and understood through both light and darkness Discussing works by artists such as Katie Paterson Hiroshi Sugimoto Tom Friedman Bruno Jakob Sherrie Levine and Ceal Floyer the book shows that the debates around an artwork's form and its possibility for meaning that the monochrome first engendered remain very much alive in contemporary visual culture

After Modernist Painting Craig Staff, 2025-01-23 This book presents both a historical survey and a critical re-evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 60 years Offering a critical account of painting specifically rather than art more generally After Modernist Painting provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium Taking Clement Greenberg's Modernist Painting as its starting point the book focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to Conceptual Art and Minimalism the pronouncement of painting's alleged death its response to Installation Art's foregrounding of site how painting both images and imagines the digital and how it continues to embody a particular set of ideas and responses to the world Revised and expanded to reflect developments in the field since the first edition was published in 2013 After Modernist Painting addresses a range of global artists and painting practices from the Dansaekhwa art movement in South Korea to the Conceptualism of Geta Bratescu in 1970s Romania Essential reading for students on fine arts painting courses the book is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice and also provides a valuable starting point for other more specialized histories of particular painters
