Some Things Matter... Some Things Don't Anna D. Jaquith, 2007 In the big picture of life some things really matter and some things really don't matter Try to keep everything in perspective and live for what matters in the end It matters that you learn to let God be your best friend in the world Other people may fail you but He never will It matters that you keep the Ten Commandments God gave you these rules to follow because He loves you and wants you to have the best life possible It matters that you learn to view yourself as God views you He absolutely thinks the world of you and He made you the way that you are for a special reason It matters that you learn to resist the lies of compromise What have you gained if you've enjoyed everything the world has to offer but have lost your soul in the process If you've lost your soul you have lost all that there is to lose It matters that you learn to fight the enemy Live with your armor on Be a warrior and not a wimp Give it all you've got and do damage to the devil's camp Bottom line having God say Well done good and faithful servant is what matters in the end

Filled with the Spirit Ellen Lewin,2018-04-24 In 2001 a collection of open and affirming churches with predominantly African American membership and a Pentecostal style of worship formed a radically new coalition The group known now as the Fellowship of Affirming Ministries or TFAM has at its core the idea of radical inclusivity the powerful assertion that everyone no matter how seemingly flawed or corrupted has holiness within Whether you are LGBT have HIV AIDS have been in prison abuse drugs or alcohol are homeless or are otherwise compromised and marginalized TFAM tells its people you are one of God s creations In Filled with the Spirit Ellen Lewin gives us a deeply empathetic ethnography of the worship and community central to TFAM telling the story of how the doctrine of radical inclusivity has expanded beyond those it originally sought to serve to encompass people of all races genders sexualities and religious backgrounds Lewin examines the seemingly paradoxical relationship between TFAM and traditional black churches focusing on how congregations and individual members reclaim the worship practices of these churches and simultaneously challenge their authority The book looks closely at how TFAM worship is legitimated and enhanced by its use of gospel music and considers the images of food and African American culture that are central to liturgical imagery as well as how understandings of personal authenticity tie into the desire to be filled with the Holy Spirit Throughout Lewin takes up what has been mostly missing from our discussions of race gender and sexuality close attention to spirituality and faith
