Love and Terror in the God Encounter David Hartman, 2011-03-25 The intellectual legacy of one of the twentieth century's greatest religious thinkers explained by a leading theologian of our day It is only through experiencing the contradictions in human existence through being overwhelmed by the divine presence through the finite human being feeling terror stricken by the infinite majesty of God that one can develop an authentic religious personality

David Hartman From Chapter 6 Rabbi Joseph B Soloveitchik 1903 1993 profoundly influenced modern Orthodox Judaism in the United States and Judaism as a whole by opening up a discourse between the tradition of Torah study and Western philosophical thought The future of both religious Zionism in Israel and of Orthodoxy in America hangs to a great extent on how we interpret his intellectual legacy Dr David Hartman's penetrating analysis of Rabbi Soloveitchik's work reveals a Judaism committed to intellectual courage integrity and openness A renowned theologian and philosopher Hartman meticulously explores the subtlety and complexity of Rabbi Soloveitchik's theological thought exposing a surprising intersection of halakhic tradition and modern Western theology a confrontation that deepens and expands our spiritual understanding Hartman's provocative interpretation bears witness to the legitimacy of remaining loyal to the Judaic tradition without sacrificing one's intellectual freedom and honesty

McDonald, Gian Tellini, 2004-07-09 An ecumenical introduction to the study of Christian worship which emphasises the complementarity of Word and Sacrament and the unity of theology and practice and considers the place of worship in the modern age It is especially designed for those of various traditions who are preparing for the ministry or who participate regularly in worship and wish to deepen their understanding Journeying Life with God/encountering God's Love 2 Tm' 2002 Ed. , Preparing to Encounter God Theodore Andoseh, 1900 This compilation offers a unique perspective on encounters with God both on an individual and collective level as exemplified by the lives of Abraham Isaac Jacob and the people of Israel By delving into their personal journeys we uncover the distinct facets of God's identity as Father Son and Holy Spirit We explore direct and indirect forms of collective encounters by studying God's interactions with Israel Our quest to understand what it means to experience God's tangible presence led us to Scripture We wanted to know if such profound encounters were documented how individuals and communities prepared to meet and experience God and what ensued thereafter This daily journey unfolds during the 11th session of our annual 40 day Praise Prayer and Fasting Crusade It captures the essence of our fervent prayers for a tangible encounter with the Almighty during the Third World Convention of Christian Missionary Fellowship International As you immerse yourself in this life changing moment may the Lord abundantly bless your experience leading you to relive a profound encounter with the Lord Walled about with God Jean Prou, 2005 Christians are called to proclaim the glorious liberty of the children of God to all men and women in the world With this in mind the enclosure of cloistered nuns the apparent renunciation of personal freedom in order to live within the walls of a monastery for the rest of one's life is often regarded as a sign of contradiction How can such a life be justified in view of the Gospel which invites Christians to become a light to the world and to proclaim the good news to all peoples This unique book written by cloistered nuns themselves provides answers to this and many other questions Far from being an invention of the Middle Ages which was imposed on women by a male dominated Church and society enclosure was in fact freely chosen by nuns themselves from the very beginning and only later became an object of canonical legislation Drawing on the riches of Christian traditions this book examines enclosure from a biblical historical spiritual and theological perspective showing how it aids the prayer life and mission of cloistered nuns Dom Jean Prou 1911 1999 was fifth Abbot of the Abbey of Saint Pierre de Solesmes and Abbot President of the Solesmes Congregation from 1959 until his retirement in 1992 His high esteem for the vocation of enclosed nuns led to an invitation to oversee the international team of cloistered Benedictine nuns from France Canada and England who cooperated to write this book Encountering God Andrew Purves, Charles Partee, 2000-01-01 Purves and Partee discuss theology's relevance to personal life and Christian faith from an evangelical perspective and through the lens of the Reformed tradition Encountering God focuses on basic issues of Christian faith as they are filtered through contemporary experience the merits of doctrine God Jesus faith justification sanctification

E. Andrew, 2013-07-31 This book began when the author realised that when people said they were fascinated by particular biblical passages they were usually ones that presented dramatic encounters between people and between God and people Such are the passages interpreted in this book They usually set a vivid scene that heightens the dramatic nature of the encounter and animated dialogue often directly addresses the reader There is also animated action that is vividly striking and often sudden and unexpected These features involve the readers themselves and may question them about what they expect Indeed the dramatic encounters provocatively lead to unexpected new life in the future Our God Loves Justice W. Kim,2022-10-21 Contemporary theologies of mission rely on the central concept of the missio Dei which states that mission properly belongs to the triune God over the church However present accounts fail to establish any corresponding link between God s trinitarian economy and ontology In other words the problem of the missio Dei is the problem of the break between the act and being of God Benjamin H Kim argues that a repair is needed for missio Dei theology and this repair is found in reexamining Barth s doctrine of revelation In doing so the locus of mission moves from God s trinitarian sending to his trinitarian revealing The repair is further advanced by Dietrich Bonhoeffer through his concept of person which functions as the unity of act and being This account returns mission to its original definition which was intended to describe the inner trinitarian being of God in relation to humanity The concept of person recovers this meaning of mission by locating it first in the person of Christ and second in the collective person of the church existing as the Christ community Thus Bonhoeffer s description of revelation in terms of personhood provides an account that is more faithful to the missio Dei s core insights
