

A photograph of a dirt road winding through a forest. The trees are covered in autumn foliage, with shades of orange, yellow, and brown. The road leads towards a bright light at the end of the path, creating a sense of depth and perspective. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

God Has No Religion:

God Has No Favourites Basil Scott, 2017-10-01 The New Testament does not conform neatly to any modern attempts to define the Christian approach to other religions argues Basil Scott He confronts the questions What does the New Testament tell us about religions And what is its approach to those who were Gentiles and to their beliefs and practices He focuses his attention on the evidence presented by the New Testament itself and especially on the attitude of its writers to the religions of their times Written by a scholar with over twenty years experience in the South Asian context this title makes a fine addition to the conversation and to the new Fortress Press efforts to bring South Asian scholarship to a wider readership
