God Loves Bebe, Too Lacey Colter Sr. "Codas",2005-03 This is a powerful and inspirational story about an incredible journey from poverty to prosperity When men saw Bebe they didn't see color they saw beauty The saintliest men had sinful thoughts when Bebe passed them by The tragedies she faced stereotypical attitudes and bigotry would have kept most people down but for this woman of beauty and faith these were merely stepping stones The lessons we learn from the trials and triumphs of Bebe are that true friends are worth their weight in gold that a grain of sand cast into the ocean is the size of our sins in the Sea of Forgiveness and that nothing is too hard for God This book encourages us to believe that in the Hands of God an ugly caterpillar can become a beautiful butterfly It is written that God loved Abraham Isaac and Jacob but now we can believe that God Loves Bebe too
