Oppy, N.N. Trakakis, 2017-09-22 Interreligious Philosophical Dialogues volume 1 provides a unique approach to the philosophy of religion embracing a range of religious faiths and spiritualities. This volume brings together five leading scholars and philosophers of religion who engage in friendly but rigorous cross cultural philosophical dialogue. Each participant in the dialogue as a member of a particular faith tradition is invited to explore and explain their core religious commitments and how these commitments figure in their lived experience and in their relations to other religions and communities. The religious traditions represented in this volume are Daoism, Traditional Judaism, Panpsychism, Non theistic Hinduism, Classical Christian theism. This set of volumes uncovers the rich and diverse cognitive and experiential dimensions of religious belief and practice, pushing the field of philosophy of religion in bold new directions. Glen St. John Barclay, Caroline Turner, 2004-05-01 A history of the HRC at the ANU but also an examination of the role and predicament of the humanities within universities and the wider community and contributes substantially to the ongoing debate on an Australian identity.

Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen, 2018. During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage. Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge. As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic, Persian and Chinese works. The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab. Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some of its brightest luminaries. Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition: Wang Daiyu, Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin. Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition. Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions: How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time? How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices? How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority? How do practices inform belief? Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims. The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca, comprehensive knowledge of the Qur'an and personal knowledge of Arabic stimulated communal engagement. Petersen demonstrates that the integration of Sino Muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged Muslim community.

A Companion to Chinese Art Martin J. Powers, Katherine R. Tsiang, 2022-04-26. Exploring the history of art in China from its earliest incarnations to the present day, this comprehensive volume includes two dozen newly commissioned essays spanning the theories, genres and media central to Chinese art and theory throughout its history. Provides an exceptional collection of essays promoting a comparative understanding of China's long record of cultural production. Brings together an international team of scholars from East and West whose contributions range from an overview of pre modern theory to those exploring calligraphy fine painting sculpture accessories and more Articulates the direction in which the field of Chinese art history is moving as well as providing a roadmap for historians interested in comparative study or theory Proposes new and revisionist interpretations of the literati tradition which has long been an important staple of Chinese art history Offers a rich insight into China s social and political institutions religious and cultural practices and intellectual traditions alongside Chinese art history theory and criticism Filial Piety in Chinese Thought and History Alan Chan,Sor-Hoon Tan,2004-08-02 The phenomenon of filial piety is fundamental to our understanding of Chinese culture and this excellent collection of essays explores its role in various areas of life throughout history Often regarded as the key to preserving Chinese tradition and identity its potentially vast impact on government and the development of Chinese culture makes it extremely relevant and although invariably virtuous in its promotion of social cohesion its ideas are often controversial A broad range of topics are discussed chronologically including Confucianism Buddhism and Daoism making it essential reading for those studying Chinese culture religion and philosophy This is a multi disciplinary survey that combines historical studies with philosophical analysis from an international team of respected contributors Chinese Religious Art Patricia Eichenbaum

Karetsky,2013-12-19 Chinese Religious Art is a broad survey of the origins and development of the various forms of artistic expression of Chinese religions The study begins with an overview of ancient archaeology in order to identify nascent religious ideologies in various Neolithic Cultures and early Chinese historical eras including the Shang dynasty 1300 1050 BCE and Zhou Dynasty 1000 221 BCE up until the era of the First Emperor 221 210 BCE Part Two treats Confucianism as a religious tradition examining its scriptures images temples and rituals Adopted as the state ideology in the Han dynasty Confucian ideas permeated society for over two thousand years Filial piety ethical behavior and other principles shaped the pictorial arts Part Three considers the various schools of Daoist belief and their expression in art The ideas of a utopian society and the pursuit of immortality characterize this religion from its earliest phase Daoism has an elaborate pantheon and ritualistic art as well as a secular tradition best expressed in monochrome ink painting Part Four covers the development of Buddhist art beginning with its entry into China in the second century Its monuments comprised largely of cave temples carved high in the mountains along the frontiers of China and large metropolitan temples provide evidence of its evolution including the adoption of savior cults of the Buddha of the Western Paradise the Buddha of the Future the rise of Ch an Zen and esoteric Buddhism In their development these various religious traditions interacted sharing art architecture iconography and rituals By the twelfth century a stage of syncretism merged all three traditions into a popular religion All the religions are reviving after their extirpation during the Cultural Revolution Using historical records and artistic evidence much of which has not been published this study examines their individual and shared manner of worshipping the divine forces Chinese Healing Exercises Livia Kohn,2008-09-30 Daoyin the traditional Chinese practice of guiding the qi and stretching the body is the forerunner of Qigong the modern form of exercise that has swept through China and is making increasing inroads in the West Like other Asian body practices Daoyin focuses on the body as the main vehicle of attainment sees health and spiritual transformation as one continuum leading to perfection or self realization and works intensely and consciously with the breath and with the conscious guiding of internal energies This book explores the different forms of Daoyin in historical sequence beginning with the early medical manuscripts of the Han dynasty then moving into its religious adaptation in Highest Clarity Daoism After examining the medieval Daoyin Scripture and ways of integrating the practice into Tang Daoist immortality the work outlines late imperial forms and describes the transformation of the practice in the modern world Presenting a rich crop of specific exercises together with historical context and comparative insights Chinese Healing Exercises is valuable for both specialists and general readers It provides historical depth and opens concrete details of an important but as yet little known health practice

Religious Truth Robert Cummings Neville, 2001-01-01 Explores religious truth in a range of world religions and discusses the issue and philosophical implications of comparison itself

Roaming into the Beyond: Representations of Xian Immortality in Early Medieval Chinese Verse Zornica Kirkova, 2016-06-27 In Roaming into the Beyond Zornica Kirkova provides the first detailed study in a Western language of Daoism inspired themes in early medieval Chinese poetry She examines representations of Daoist xian immortality in a broad range of versified literature from the Han until the end of the Six Dynasties focusing on the transformations of themes concepts and imagery within a wide literary and religious context Adopting a more integrated approach the author explores both the complex interaction between poetry and Daoist religion and the interrelations between various verse forms and poetic themes This book not only enhances our understanding of the complexities of early medieval literature but also reevaluates the place of Daoist religious thought in the intellectual life of the period

Readings in Daoist Mysticism Livia Kohn, 2009 A handy reader for students and teachers of mysticism in theory and practice this collects seven expanded conference presentations by foremost Daoist scholar Livia Kohn plus seven chapters of easily accessible translations of relevant primary sources The work is perfectly suited for classes on comparative religion and mysticism It is also a valuable resource for general information on the Daoist tradition and its rich mystical heritage
