Mar'eh,2012-04-17 Just as suddenly as the chaotic and terrifying ordeal had all started it seemed as though all movement ceased in a split second There was blood sprayed in every direction inside and out and on the ground I had blood coming out of my mouth nose and ears The pounding of my heart was mammoth I could feel it pounding almost at the top of my head I was stoic as a statue expressionless motionless The sound of the cold breeze whistled around me like a cruel joke My jaws were locked my body began to shiver and then it shook uncontrollably My teeth began to chatter I had never before experienced such grief in all my life My mind was just racing like a fanatic my heart pounding out of control No one could have imagined the depth of my grief at that moment in time Helpless and immobile as I stood there watching my husband leave his body I felt that I would lose my mind I screamed yet there was not a sound that would come out of my mouth In one long uninterrupted silent scream I screamed at Peter not to die I screamed at the other driver who caused this nightmare I screamed at my pathetic legs for not being able to walk I screamed for God I screamed to Him for help My God my God please do not abandon me I begged Him Then from the depths of my soul came a gut wrenching primal scream that had been involuntarily released right out of my throat and from the pit of my stomach a scream so agonizing that one of the men who was standing at the scene immediately covered his ears with both hands and sobbed like a child his face contorted in obvious torture his hands tightly squeezing the volatile sounds of my shrieks out of his ears It was a scream that was no longer my own but that of a sadness that came from deep within the uncharted and dormant corners of my heart It was a scream that awakened in me a state of reverence and dread of unmatched proportions I fell to my knees and came pounding upon God s door that day The speckles of broken glass reflected light like a thousand stars in a fallen sky I watched in disbelief how we really have no control of our own lives how with one blink of an eye your whole life can change forever The Literary

History of the Igbo Novel Ernest N. Emenyonu,2020-02-07 This book looks at the trends in the development of the Igbo novel from its antecedents in oral performance through the emergence of the first published novel Omenuko in 1933 by Pita Nwana to the contemporary Igbo novel Defining Igbo literature as literature in Igbo language and Igbo novel as a novel written in Igbo language the author argues that oral and written literature in African indigenous languages hold an important foundational position in the history of African literature Focusing on the contributions of Igbo writers to the development of African literature in African languages the book examines the evolution themes and distinctive features of the Igbo novel the historical circumstances of the rise of the African novel in the pre colonial era and their impact on the contemporary Igbo novel This book will be of interest to scholars of African literature literary history and Igbo studies      God's Gift to You
