God Of The Present Age:

God's Supernatural Power in You Frank A. DeCenso, 2009-05-28 The need for power ministry is as strong today as it was when Jesus and the apostles walked the earth The need for demonstrations of Gods powerful love exhibited through His church will demolish strongholds of unbelief and relativism as well as tear down cultural barriers that may bring confusion when only the words of the good news are shared but its power is neglected When Jesus and the apostles proclaimed the good news of salvation to people works of power accompanied them Today the entire church needs mentored in how to bring Gods word to the world in power This book is a prophetic call to engage te mission of bringing God s radical love to this hurting world through power ministry Exploring Our Hebraic Heritage Marvin R. Wilson, 2014-07-09 In this very readable sequel to his popular book Our Father Abraham which has sold more than 70 000 copies Marvin Wilson illuminates theological spiritual and ethical themes of the Hebrew scriptures that directly affect Christian understanding and experience Exploring Our Hebraic Heritage draws from both Christian and Jewish commentary in discussing such topics as thinking theologically about Abraham understanding the God of Israel and his reputation in the world and what it means for humans to be created in God s image Wilson calls for the church to restore renew and protect its foundations by studying and appreciating its origins in Judaism Designed to serve as an academic classroom text or for use in personal or group study the book includes hundreds of questions for review and discussion God's Glory Alone---The Majestic Heart of Christian Faith and Life David VanDrunen,2015-12-01

Renowned scholar David VanDrunen tracks the historical and biblical roots of the idea that all glory belongs exclusively to God God s Glory Alone is a beautiful reflection on how commitment to God s glory alone fortifies us to live godly lives in this present age Reinvigorating one of the five great declarations of the Reformation soli Deo gloria VanDrunen Examines the development of this theme in the Reformation in subsequent Reformed theology and confessions and in contemporary theologians who continue to be inspired by the conviction that all glory belongs to God Turns to the biblical story of God s glory beginning with the pillar of cloud and fire revealed to Israel continuing through the incarnation death and exaltation of the Lord Jesus Christ and culminating in Christ s Second Coming and the glorification of his people Addresses several of today s great cultural challenges and temptations that attempt to draw us away from a God centered instead of self centered way of life This book leads you into a renewed sense of awe and adoration for our Creator and Redeemer as it mines deeply into the biblical and theological truths about God s glory that stand at the center of the Christian faith THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God s glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Time Various Authors,2021-03-05 Reissuing five works originally published between 1937 and 1991 this collection contains books addressing the subject of time from a mostly philosophic point of view but also of interest to those in the science and mathematics worlds These texts are brought back into print in this small set of works addressing how we think about time the history of the philosophy of time the measurement of time theories of relativity and discussions of the wider thinking about time and space among other aspects One volume is a thorough bibliography collating references on the subject of time across many disciplines A Treatise on Time and Space J. R. Lucas,2018-10-10 Originally published in 1976 This comprehensive study discusses in detail the philosophical mathematical physical logical and theological aspects of our understanding of time and space The text examines first the many different definitions of time that have been offered beginning with some of the puzzles arising from our awareness of the passage of time and shows how time can be understood as the concomitant of consciousness In considering time as the dimension of change the author obtains a transcendental derivation of the concept of space and shows why there has to be only one dimension of time and three of space and why Kant was not altogether misguided in believing the space of our ordinary experience to be Euclidean The concept of space time is then discussed including Lorentz transformations and in an examination of the applications of tense logic the author discusses the traditional difficulties encountered in arguments for fatalism In the final sections he discusses eternity and the beginning and end of the universe The book includes sections on the continuity of space and time on the directedness of time on the differences between classical mechanics and the Special and General theories of relativity on the measurement of time on the apparent slowing down of moving clocks and on time and probability

The Gospel According to Mark George Martin,2005 At the heart of this book is a verse by verse exposition of the New American Bible text of Mark's Gospel Interspersed throughout the text are dozens of short essays giving the social political economic and religious background and questions for reflection

The Parting of the Gods David A. Brondos,2021-05-14 In recent years a growing number of New Testament scholars have questioned traditional portrayals of the Apostle Paul as a leader of a new religious movement that set faith in Christ in opposition to the Jewish tradition Instead they have stressed the need to interpret Paul from within the Judaism of his day regarding him as a faithful Jew who cherished deeply his Jewish identity and saw observance of the Mosaic law or Torah among Jewish believers in Christ as a good thing While the present work argues strongly in favor of this latter interpretation of Paul it also seeks to delve deeper into his thought in order to explore at length the points of continuity and convergence between Paul and the Judaism's of his day as well as the beliefs that distinguished him from his fellow Jews who did not share his faith in Christ Chief among these beliefs was the conviction that the identity and will of God were now to be defined primarily on the basis of his relation to Jesus his Son through whom he had intended from the start to accomplish his purposes for Israel and the world Yet rather than bringing Paul to reject his Jewish heritage this conviction led him to redefine and resignify around Christ his understanding of Judaism and the way of life prescribed in the Torah thereby filling them with new meaning though he also continued to value and uphold them for the same reasons he had previously According to Paul the purpose for which God had sent his Son and delivered him up to death was not that he might atone for sins or make it possible for God to forgive sins as later Christian thought came to affirm but rather that through him he might establish a new community in which Jews and non Jews would be brought to live together as one in fellowship and solidarity While Paul expected his fellow Jews to continue to live as Jews and members of Israel within this community which he called the ekklesia his conviction that those non Jews who lived faithfully as part of the same community yet did not submit fully to the Mosaic law were equally acceptable and righteous in God's sight led him to oppose all attempts to impose on them the observance of that law Such attempts implied that the members of the community who observed the law were to be regarded as more righteous or as superior in some way to those who did not and thus threatened to destroy the very fabric of the communities that Paul had worked so hard to establish Rather than running contrary to Jewish thought Paul's teaching that it was a life of faith rather than the observance of works of the law per se that led people to be accepted as righteous by God would have been regarded by most Jews as being fully in accordance with traditional Jewish belief What they would have found novel was Paul's claim that faith in the God of Israel was now to be equated with faith in Jesus as his Son or Christ faith and that through such a faith non Jews who did not observe the law could come to be as fully acceptable to God as those Jews who did Paul's redefinition of God and Judaism around Jesus as God's Son would have led many of his fellow Jews to conclude that he was proclaiming a God who was distinct from the God in whom the people of Israel had believed from time immemorial since that God was never thought to have such a Son and much less to have intended to exalt him to his right side as Lord of all after handing him over to death on a cross From the perspective of Paul and his fellow believers in Christ however the God of Israel and the God and Father of Jesus Christ were one and the same

God's Plan for Man and Planet Earth Rev. Elton Yutzy, 2013-11 This book covers Pastor Yutzy's thoughts regarding some theological issues from eternity past to eternity future from the creation of the first heaven and earth Genesis 1:1 to the new heaven and new earth Revelation 21:22 He rejects evolution but does not agree with the young earth creationists In eschatology he is premillennial but does not accept the doctrine of imminence Today we do not know the day of his coming but he believes if we know what we are to look for we will know the time when it arrives Christ's coming will not be as a thief in the night to those who know what to look for regarding the rapture of the church The last part of the book covers his perspective on God's special purpose for the church Israel and the Gentiles He gives his views on abortion tattoos cremation the lake of fire Gehenna outer darkness heaven the New Jerusalem and other topics relevant for the church today

An Unorthodox Faith Kurt Struckmeyer, 2017-02-14 The time is ripe for a new Christian reformation a profound transformation of theological substance not just liturgical style Jesus never intended to create a new religion of rites creeds and dogma that offered an eternal reward in heaven Instead he announced the subversive arrival of the kingdom of God a social and economic revolution of the heart based on a lifestyle of radical love lavish generosity extravagant forgiveness inclusive hospitality compassionate action selfless service a passion for

The American Friend ,1900 Galatians John Paul Heil,2021-01-01 In his commentary John Paul Heil presents two new proposals regarding Paul s letter to the Galatians First he demonstrates an entirely new chiastic structure embracing the entire letter based on strict linguistic and textual criteria rather than on conceptual or theological themes This chiastic structure accords with the view that Galatians was originally performed orally in a setting of communal worship Second Heil offers a new proposal for a key theme that runs throughout Galatians as expressed by the subtitle of this book Worship for Life by Faith in the Crucified and Risen Lord Here worship is considered to be a comprehensive concept that includes liturgical cultic or ritual worship as well as the moral behaviour that is to complement it as ethical worship in accord with the biblical tradition Life refers both to the present way of living as well as to future eternal life Faith refers to the acceptance of divine grace available to the believer because of the death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ Telling God's Story Preben Vang,Terry G. Carter,2013-08-01 How well do you know His story By the time a Christian reaches young adulthood he is likely to be quite familiar with every major story in the Bible but not from having studied them in any particular order Ask an average Bible student to arrange certain characters and events chronologically and the results are telling Telling God s Story looks closely at the Bible from its beginning in Genesis to its conclusion in Revelation By approaching Scripture as one purposefully flowing narrative emphasizing the inter connectedness of the text veteran college professors Preben Vang and Terry G Carter reinforce the Bible's greatest teachings and help readers in their own ability to share God's story effectively with others. Ideal for classroom settings, this second edition of Telling God's Story now features all supporting charts, photographs, and illustrations in full color.

Kingdom Theology G. Carlton Moore, 2024-06-18. What this book argues for in today's twenty-first century church was a hallmark doctrine of old school Presbyterianism of the nineteenth century: the doctrine of the spirituality of the church. Which eschatological approach one uses will affect one's understanding of the nature and practice of missions. Mission creep, the expansion of the church's original objectives, is a real concern for the contemporary church, and how one understands eschatology affects one's focus on missions. The mission of the church is narrow (Matt 28:18-20) and the calling of individual believers is broad (Rom 12:1-2). If we fail to make this crucial distinction, the church's mission will lose its biblical emphasis. And if the church's mission is lost, then the authority structure instantiated in the offices and officers of the church devolves into illegitimacy because the church is no longer advancing the kingdom ends she was mandated to do by King Jesus. If the institutional church fails to do this, we will be relinquishing and abdicating and abandoning our most singular and particular and peculiar kingdom of God: vocation, the harvesting, gathering, and perfecting of the saints.

The People's New Testament Commentary M. Eugene Boring, Fred B. Craddock, 2004-01-01. Biblical scholars Boring and Craddock examine the theological themes and messages of Scripture that speak to the life of discipleship. Their work clarifies matters of history, culture, geography, literature, and translation, enabling people to listen more carefully to the text.

For All God's Worth N. T. Wright, 1997-04-17. All Christians worship God, but many do not fully understand what worship means. This insightful book by N. T. Wright explores both the meaning and the results of worship. In Part 1, titled The God Who Is Worthy of Praise, Wright focuses on God and on what worshipping God actually means. Wright celebrates the greatness and love of God as the ground and reason for worship and shows how reflection on who God actually is, especially as revealed in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, leads to true worship from both the heart and the mind. Worship derives from worth; ship, it means giving God all he's worth. In Part 2, Reflecting God's Image in the World, Wright addresses a range of church-related issues that arise from the activity of worship. Because worship can never remain isolated from the task of the church, Wright here explores how true worship leads to the mission of the church in various specific ways.
