Finding Freedom in God's Promises Beth Gable Hicks, 2016-06-03 After I wrote my last book The Importance of Christian Friendships In Good Times and in Bad I began to think about how many of the attributes of Christian friendships are grounded in faith This is the same faith that leads us to believe in God s promises I don t know if you have ever tried to count how many promises there are in the Bible they are almost impossible to numerate Yet that did not dissuade me I began to turn to the Bible and meditate on some of the more significant promises Then I began to ask myself how my life would be different if I truly believed God s promises What if we all believed God s promises and acted accordingly I am convinced that if we have faith and believe in God s holy nature we can then accept that He is who He says He is It is then just a short step to knowing that He will do what He says He will do and we can trust in His promises God s promises are very precious Not only do they remind us of His personal interest in our lives but they provide us with hope and encouragement I would also contend that accepting His promises turns religion from something that seems restrictive to something that is truly liberating As you will read in the book we can find freedom in God s promises We can find freedom from condemnation freedom from want freedom from fear freedom from hopelessness freedom from grief and freedom from worry just to name a few I hope the reader will find renewed encouragement from this book and new faith in a faithful God CSB Apologetics Study Bible for Students, Black/Tan LeatherTouch Sean McDowell, CSB Bibles by Holman, 2017-07 Now updated with even more material

Enough is enough. Contemporary culture has become so antagonistic to Christian beliefs and values that it has put many Christians on the defensive. This isn't good; it isn't necessary, and it isn't right. Christianity is good news, enduring in its truths and applicable to all persons in all places at all times. We Christians never need to feel defensive about what we believe. Christ is God's unique revelation in history, and the Christian message is life-giving. God has given us so many great promises in his word that reinforce the timeless vitality and applicability of the Christian message. Promises that prosper the soul. This book is all about these great promises offered in daily devotional form and complete with a brief prayer. Christians survive and thrive on God's promises. They're the spiritual air we breathe. Believing and trusting in God's promises will make us spiritually healthy, of if you will, prosperous. God's Promises for Your Every Need Thomas Nelson Publishers, Jack Countryman, Terri Gibbs, 2003-03.
