Goblin Market, The Prince's Progress, and Other Poems
 Christina Georgina Rossetti, 2019-11-20
 In Goblin Market The Prince's Progress and Other Poems Christina Georgina Rossetti explores intricate themes of temptation sacrifice and social morality through her vividly imaginative verse. The titular poem Goblin Market serves as a rich allegory weaving together elements of Victorian society and the enigmatic allure of forbidden desires. Rossetti's lyrical style, characterized by its musicality and symbolic depth, invites readers into a kaleidoscopic world of enchanting yet ominous landscapes where the boundaries between innocence and experience blur. This collection showcases her unique blend of fantasy and realism, echoing the Pre-Raphaelite movement's devotion to beauty and meaning. Christina Rossetti, one of the foremost female poets of the Victorian era, drew from her own personal experiences and the challenges of her age. She navigated a world of restrictive gender roles and societal expectations, which deeply influenced her themes of female agency and spirituality. Rossetti's background in a family of artists and intellectuals, along with her profound religious convictions, shaped her poetic voice, imbuing her works with both emotional resonance and ethical inquiry. Goblin Market The Prince's Progress and Other Poems is a masterful exploration of human experience that remains strikingly relevant today. Readers seeking both aesthetic pleasure and profound contemplation will find themselves entranced by Rossetti's capacity to portray the complexities of desire and moral choice. This collection is essential for anyone wishing to understand the intersections of art, spirituality, and feminist thought in the literary canon. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. A comprehensive Introduction outlines these selected works, unifying features, themes, or stylistic evolutions. The Author Biography highlights personal milestones and literary influences that shape the entire body of writing. A Historical Context section situates the works in their broader era, social currents, cultural trends, and key events that underpin their creation. A concise Synopsis Selection offers an accessible overview of the included texts, helping readers navigate plotlines and main ideas without revealing critical twists. A unified Analysis examines recurring motifs and stylistic hallmarks across the collection, tying the stories together while spotlighting the different works' strengths. Reflection questions inspire deeper contemplation of the author's overarching message, inviting readers to draw connections among different texts and relate them to modern contexts. Lastly, our hand-picked Memorable Quotes distill pivotal lines and turning points, serving as touchstones for the collection's central themes.

Oral Poetry and Narratives from Central Arabia, Volume 1 Poetry of ad-Dindan Marcel Kurpershoek, 2022-06-27 This work presents the complete collection of oral poetry by ad Dind n a bedouin poet of the Duw sir tribe in southern Najd transcribed and translated on the basis of taped recordings. The text is representative of a poetic tradition which has remained remarkably close to the desert poetry of the early classical age. An extensive glossary including detailed cross references to the classical Arabic vocabulary completes this edition. The introduction describes Dind n s somewhat anomalous position in local society as a result of his stubborn attachment to nomadism his fierce artistic temper and his unreconstructed bedouin ethos. It also discusses the composition of oral poetry the d w n s themes and its place in the Najdi tradition the impact of literacy on the poet s oral work and the prosodic and linguistic features of the text.
