God, Cars & Souvenirs Frances Nail, 1998 This true Texas storyteller reminds us that everyone's life well examined becomes remarkable

An Essay of the Wonders of God, in the Harmony of the Times, Generations, and Most Illustrious Events Therein Enclosed Jean d' Espagne, 1662

The Question of God's Perfection Yoram Hazony, Dru Johnson, 2018-11-26 Philosophers have often described theism as the belief in the existence of a perfect being a being that is said to possess all possible perfections so that it is all powerful all knowing immutable perfectly good perfectly simple and necessarily existent among other qualities But such a theology is difficult to reconcile with the God we find in the Bible and Talmud The Question of God's Perfection brings together leading scholars from the Jewish and Christian traditions to critically examine the theology of perfect being in light of the Hebrew Bible and classical rabbinic sources Contributors are James A Diamond Lenn E Goodman Edward C Halper Yoram Hazony Dru Johnson Brian Leftow Berel Dov Lerner Alan L Mittleman Heather C Ohaneson Randy Ramal Eleonore Stump Alex Sztuden and Joshua I Weinstein

Beyond Pilgrim Souvenirs and Secular Badges Sarah Blick, 2007-07-08 Brian Spencer former Keeper of the Museum of London was a major scholar of medieval popular culture He almost single handedly established the study of pilgrim souvenirs and secular badges He defined what these objects were and ascertained their function manufacture style and iconography with a careful use of primary documents and intricate stylistic analysis He identified every major souvenir and badge discovered in Great Britain during the last few decades He also made prominent contributions to the field of seal matrices gaming pieces and horse paraphernalia What bound all of these interests together was his understanding that the study of these artefacts could shed light on the beliefs and practices of a large number of people This is reflected in the frequency with which his work is cited This volume is a collection of essays written by those who worked with Brian directly and those with whom he corresponded

Conversations with Texas Writers Frances Leonard, Ramona Cearley, 2010-01-01 Larry McMurtry declares Texas itself doesn't have anything to do with why I write It never did Horton Foote on the other hand says I've just never had a desire to write about any place else In between those figurative bookends are hundreds of other writers some internationally recognized others just becoming known who draw inspiration and often subject matter from the unique places and people that are Texas To give everyone who is interested in Texas writing a representative sampling of the breadth and vitality of the state's current literary production this volume features conversations with fifty of Texas's most notable established writers and emerging talents The writers included here work in a wide variety of genres novels short stories poetry plays screenplays essays nonfiction and magazine journalism In their conversations with interviewers from the Writers League of Texas and other authors organizations the writers speak of their apprenticeships literary influences working habits connections with their readers and the domestic and public events that have shaped their writing Accompanying the interviews are excerpts from the writers work as well as their photographs biographies and bibliographies Joe Holley's introductory essay an overview of Texas writing from Cabeza de Vaca's 1542 Relation to the work of today's generation of writers who are equally at home in Hollywood as in Texas provides the necessary context to appreciate such a diverse collection of literary voices A sampling from the book This land has been my subject matter One thing that distinguishes me from the true naturalist is that I've never been able to look at land without thinking of the people who've been on it It's fundamental to me John Graves Writing is a way to keep ourselves more in touch with everything we experience It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause take a deep breath look around see what's there and return to where we were revived Naomi Shihab Nye I've said this many times in print the novel is the middle age genre Very few people have written really good novels when they are young and few people have written really good novels when they are old You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration Your imaginative energy begins to lag I feel like I'm repeating myself and most writers do repeat themselves Larry McMurtry I was a pretty poor cowhand I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane Texas My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me but in my case it never seemed to work too well I had more of a literary bent I loved to read and very early on I began to write small stories

 E. Porter, Brook W. Pearson, 2004-12-19 Christian-Jewish relations have had changing fortunes throughout the centuries Occasionally there has been peace and even mutual understanding but usually these relations have been ones of tension often involving recrimination and even violence This volume addresses a number of the major questions that have been at the heart and the periphery of these tenuous relations through the years The volume begins with a number of papers discussing relations as Christianity emerged from and defined itself in terms of Judaism Other papers trace the relations through the intervening years And a number of papers confront issues that have been at the heart of the troubled twentieth century In all these papers address a sensitive yet vital set of issues from a variety of approaches and perspectives becoming in their own way a part of the ongoing dialogue The Souvenir ,1927 Orissa Society of Americas 29th Annual Convention

Liliane Louvel,2018-05-23 The Pictorial Third An Essay into Intermedial Criticism examines the extent to which poetry intertwines with painting and the visual at large and studies the singular relationship established between language and image observing the modalities and workings of what is termed intermedial transposition By following a critical method of the close analysis of texts the book examines to what extent the pictorial tool may be of help to analyze literary texts and thus enlarge and enrich literary criticism Examining the technical notions typical of the medium and its history including perspective framing colour anamorphosis trompe l'œil Veronica veil still life portrait figure illusion apparatus genres and styles this volume presents a pragmatics of image in text and of the visual in text as an operative tool This pictorial reading necessarily includes synesthesia and the senses it also functions as a reading event or what happens to one when one unawares encounters a picture be it present in the book or the object of an ekphrasis Thus the body is eventually given back a role to play The sensitive approach has its own resonances and the eye or the gaze sometimes sees double in such intermedially oriented texts This volume proposes to identify the pictorial third as the phenomenon which can be apprehended in terms of effect or affect not only as a concept The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1898
