God Hates Religion Christopher Levan,1995-01-01      Faithful Finances 101 Gary Moore,2005-05 Strips the veneer from the financial advice of some popular evangelical media celebrities and advocates a reintegrating of faith and finances Moore draws on fifty years of studying the Bible politics and economics and presents insights for those who want to be faithful in their finances      Congregations at the Crossroads Ronald E. Vallet,2006-08-11 The most vital question confronting the church in North America at the turn of the century is whether it can in the face of the myriad distractions of modern society remember who it is what it is called to do and especially whose it is In this volume Ronald Vallet explores the biblical basis for stewardship with major emphasis on God s promises and commands to help congregations become the households of God that he intends them to be Vallet also discusses several church related issues that affect the life and practices of congregations today He deals with fantasies and fears about money in the congregation shows the central role that authentic worship plays in focusing congregations on God examines the proper roles of pastors and laity and considers the prevailing concepts and practices of modern culture that can entangle today s churches Vallet s work provides an insightful map for churches as they confront the confusing crossroads of life in our world      Virtue as Consent to Being Phil Zylla,2010-12-01 Virtue theory has become an important development in Christian ethics Efforts are made in this volume to bring pastoral theology into conversation with these developments This book probes the philosophical theology of Jonathan Edwards who proposed that virtue is a form of beauty defined as consent to being This leads to the notion of compassion as ontological consent Since language is the vehicle by which our experiences are conveyed the book probes the issue of how moral vision is expressed in experience near language through parable poem and lament Moral vision is articulated most adequately through such language and finding it is a kind of quest The last chapter is a proposal for a mature pastoral theology of virtue as an expansion of Edwards s concept of consent to being from the vantage point of pastoral theology A dynamic vision of virtue requires some connection between the experience of suffering and the inward striving toward the greatest good The essence of virtue can be best understood from a pastoral theological perspective as the relational dynamic of suffering with another human being      The Newer Deal Ram A.
