Who Do the Ngimurok Say That They Are? Kevin P. Lines, 2018-04-12 How do missiologists describe the cosmologies of those that Christianity encounters around the world Our descriptions often end up filtered through our own Western religious categories Furthermore indigenous Christians adopt these Western religious categories

This presents the problem of local Christianities described by Kwame Bediako as those that have not known how to relate to their traditional culture in terms other than those of denunciation or of separateness Kevin Lines s phenomenological study of local religious specialists in Turkana Kenya not only challenges our Western categories by revealing a more authentic complexity of the issues for local Christians and Western missionaries but also provides a model for continued use of phenomenology as a valued research method in larger missiological studies Additionally this study points to the ways that local Christians and traditional religious practitioners interpret Western missionaries through local religious categories Clearly missionaries missiologists anthropologists and religious studies scholars need to do a much more careful job of studying and describing the contextually specific phenomena of traditional religious specialists before relying on meta categories that come out of our Western theology or older overly simplified ethnographies The research from this current study of Turkana religious specialists begins that process in the Turkana context and offers a model for future studies in contexts where traditional religion and Christianity intersect

My Analogies Tracy Leon Streeter, 2005-05-18 In Jeremiah 18 2 God instructs His prophet to Arise and go down to the potter s house and there I will cause thee to hear my words Jeremiah s obedience to God allowed him to see a potter at work with clay and then hear God tell him how he wishes to be the Potter and that His people be clay in His hands This book will tell you of some of the most unlikely things and places that God has caused me to hear His word It is such a blessing to see and hear God in some of the things that we would consider ordinary But with the voice of God behind it that which was just ordinary become extraordinary

The Born Identity Phil Pringle, Many of us are living with a spiritual kind of amnesia forgetful of who we really are Negative circumstances constantly send us the message that we are far less than what the New Testament declares us to be Often theology has been twisted to conform to the defeated negative thinking of people who are interpreting life and God through their circumstances When we submit to Scripture rather than submit the Scripture to us our identity in Christ comes alive This book is intended to awaken and remind us exactly who we are and what we have in Christ When we enter our battles with clear knowledge of who we are and what we have we will win every time
