How to Be a Better Person Dr. Gilbert Edwards,2017-03-21 Through the years I have noticed that many people have lost many things such as marriages break up of friendships etc I feel that it is because of bad character I feel a need to reach out to those who need to build a better character to make themselves better There is a need for one to behave oneself in a manner to be an example to their family or to those that are around them One should take time to be a better person Therefore one should try and study hard to build their character In my study I feel that an early age should begin to build a good character There should be a place for developing Christian character Sunday school seems to be the place Sunday school teaching is spiritual work It means soul culture When the Sunday school pupil has been won to Christ the work has been but fairly begun Everything must now be done to help the pupil to form habits of Christian living The prayer life must be strengthened Bible Study must be encouraged and the graces of the spirit must be acquired Self mastery must be won

Great Is the Lord Ron Highfield,2008-08-15 In keeping with the classic Christian tradition Great Is the Lord sets out the doctrine of God in a way that illumines the mind moves the heart and stirs the soul to praise the triune God Ron Highfield introduces students ministers and others to the traditional doctrine of God held by the majority of the church from the second to the twentieth century God is triune loving merciful gracious patient wise one simple omnipotent omniscient eternal omnipresent immutable impassible and glorious Irenically challenging open theism and process theology Highfield shows that the classical doctrine of God actually preserves our confidence in God s love and his liberating action better than its opponents do This traditional doctrine Highfield argues grounds our dignity and freedom in the center of reality the trinitarian life of God Highfield's work maintains the highest intellectual standards throughout even as it offers a true theology for the praise of God

Examination of Pharisaic Traditions Uriel Da Costa, 1993-08-01 Da Costa's long lost book rejects the divine origin of the rabbinic tradition His insight was that what he calls Pharisaism is irreconcilable with the religion of the Pentateuch and therefore cannot derive from the same source He claims for example that the Law of Moses does not allow for a belief in an afterlife for individual human beings Concomitantly he denied the Mosaic origin of the notion of eternal punishment The rabbinic reading of the Mosaic Law appeared to him almost as great a falsification as the Christian one Yet there could be no reversion to Christianity and despite his deep rift with the synagogue he still believed in ultimate redemption for the Jewish people As he so dramatically declares in his closing sonnet Israel's rehabilitation depends on its shedding man made doctrines and holding fast to the Law in its purity
