The God/man/world Triangle Robert George Crawford,2000 The God/Man/World Triangle R. Crawford,1997-10-06

Why is there a world Does it reflect the presence of God in any way Did the world spontaneously come into existence or is there a creator How will it end Does God Exist Do religions give a coherent view of His existence and nature Can we enter into relation with Him Robert Crawford tries to answer these and other questions by arguing that religion and science complement one another and while they use different sources and methods insights can be gleaned from both concerning our nature the world and God Major attention is given to Christianity because modern science arose in that context but the discussion includes the teachings of five other religions in the hope that we can also learn from them The God/man/world Triangle Robert Crawford,Robert George Crawford,2000

Crawford,2011-04-25

Tolerance and Transformation Sandra B. Lubarsky, 1990-12-31 In the last twenty five years the effort to understand the ways of others has reinvigorated religious discussion on many levels We have entered what has been described as the Age of Dialogue But what should be the nature of such dialogue And what should be its goal What exactly is the proper relationship between different communities of faith In this book Sandra B Lubarsky offers some new answers to these timely questions She begins with an affirmation of veridical pluralism the position that more than one tradition speaks truth a blessed fact that enables us to enlarge our vision of truth through openness to the perceptions of others Using the concept of transformative dialogue a term borrowed from the theologian John B Cobb Jr she presents a method for the encounter of traditions in an age of religious pluralism one which entails neither a loss of particularity nor a descent into relativism In a Jewish contexts Lubarsky argues that the Noachide Covenant the premodern Jewish approach to non Jews is an inadequate framework for today s dialogue since it accords no independent value to any non Jewish tradition She then gives serious attention to the interreligious views of four seminal modern Jewish thinkers Leo Baeck Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber and Mordecai Kaplan Acknowledging our tremendous intellectual debt to them she nevertheless calls for a move beyond tolerance and beyond mutual appreciation toward dialogue that may be transformative of our own traditions
