God Speaks To Us In Feeding Stories:

God Speaks to Us in Feeding Stories Mary Ann Getty-Sullivan, Marygrace Dulski Antkowski, 1997 Presents stories from both the Old and New Testaments in which God's power is revealed through food Children's Books that Nurture the Spirit Louise Margaret Granahan, 2003 Children develop in so many ways physically intellectually socially and spiritually Story is just one of the ways to foster and support a child's faith development They can find role models in the positive characters in literature and develop empathy for others when they see a different point of view presented Children's Books that Nurture the Spirit is an introduction to quality children's literature for spiritual development The most current and readily available children's literature is reviewed by the author In addition Granahan suggests ways for leaders to use and extend the literature Living Water, Klara Tammany is a professional Christian educator who goes about her calling with a joyous urgency This book demonstrates her impassioned approach to religious instruction She starts with the premise that ongoing Christian education must be central to a life of faith and then proceeds from the corollary that baptism must be central to all Christian education Eight group sessions focus repeatedly on water first as a natural element necessary to life then as a symbolic element necessary to spirituality Gradually through prayer song scripture silence poetry visual arts storytelling group discussion and personal reflection water as baptismal element gains ascendancy No longer mere occasional refreshment Living Water inundates becomes life's very medium This text makes for excellent catechumenal preparation but is intended for use by all Christians those who are years into their journeys as well as those who are beginning Designed for small groups of adult Episcopalians the program is easily adaptable to other denominations to one on one spiritual mentoring to children young adult or intergenerational groups and even to individuals for private meditation
