God The Creator God The Redeemer:

What the Bible Says About God the Redeemer Jack Cottrell, 2000-09-04 Part of a three book series on theology which includes God the Creator and God the Ruler Cottrell expounds upon the three major elements of God as revealed in the scriptures providence redemption and creation God the Creator John Calvin, Jean Calvin, 2005 John Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion is one of the most famous theological books ever published written and repeated refined and rewritten by one of the most significant figures of the Protestant Reformation His system of doctrine and polity Calvinism has shaped more minds and entered into more nations than that of any other reformer In every land it made men strong against the attempted interference of the secular power with the rights of Christians and endures today hundreds of years after his death It was more God's work than mine Calvin said of his Institutes Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies Don S. Browning, Terry D. Cooper, Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies has pioneered the broader and deeper critique of psychological theories and practice Informed by hermeneutical theory Browning's widely acclaimed work drew much needed attention to the ethical and metaphysical even religious assumptions that underlie present day psychology It has been deeply influential in many social sciences in addition to the fields of pastoral counseling and practical theology In this much needed second edition Browning and his new co author show how the field of social science has indeed grasped and appropriated the hermeneutical approach though with only slight appreciation of the religious dimensions of the social scientific endeavor Browning and Cooper provide a completely new first chapter newly situating the discussion and update the core chapters of the book They also add two new chapters carrying the dialogue on with three new psychotherapeutic theorists then with new evangelical writers on the relation of theology and psychology This new edition like its predecessor will set the stage for the religion psychology dialogue for years to come The Faith of One God, who is Only the Father; and of One Mediator Between God and Men, who is Only the Man Christ Jesus; and of One Holy Spirit, the Gift (and Sent) of God; Asserted and Defended, 1691 Observations on the four letters of Dr. J. W., concerning the Trinity and the Creed of Athanasius John WALLIS (D.D., Savilian Professor.), 1691 The Mystery of God William Stacy Johnson, 1997-01-01 This reassessment of the theology of Karl Barth seeks to make Barth relevant for postmoderns through his suggestion that theology is best seen not as a restating of old orthodoxies but as an ongoing response to the divine mystery Observations on the Four Letters of Dr. John Wallis, Concerning the Trinity and the Creed of Athanasius Stephen Nye, 1691 Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics for Everyone, Volume 2---The Doctrine of God Marty Folsom, 2023-05-16 A Guided Tour of One of the Greatest Theological Works of the Twentieth Century Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics is considered by many to be the most important theological work of the twentieth century For many people reading it and understanding its arguments is a lifelong goal Its enormous size at over 12 000 pages in English translations and enough print volumes to fill an entire shelf make reading it a daunting prospect Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics for Everyone Volume 2 The Doctrine of God helps bridge

God Being Nothing Ray L. Hart, 2016-05-09 One of the most influential voices in contemporary theology delivers a deeply original, meticulously written new approach to the way we think about God. Jack Miles, author of God: A Biography. In this long-awaited work, Ray L. Hart offers a radical speculative theology that profoundly challenges classical understandings of the divine. God Being Nothing contests the conclusions of numerous orthodoxies through a probing question: How can thinking of God reach closure when the subjects of creation are themselves unfinished when God's self-revelation in history is ongoing and when the active manifestation of God is still occurring? A renowned theologian and author of the landmark text Unfinished Man and the Imagination, Ray L. Hart now asks us to imagine God perpetually in process, an unfinished God being self-created from nothingness. Breaking away from the traditional focus on divine persons, Hart reimagines the Trinity in terms of theogony, cosmogony and anthropogony in order to reveal an ever-emerging Godhead who encompasses all of temporal creation and within it, human existence. In Hart's stunning vision, God's continual generation from nothing manifests the full actualization of freedom, the freedom to create ex nihilo.

Ethics with Barth: God, Metaphysics and Morals Matthew Rose, 2016-05-23 Although interest in the theology of Karl Barth is greater today than at any time since his death, Barth's moral thought continues to be widely misunderstood. This groundbreaking study of the twentieth century's most important Christian thinker offers the first treatment of Barth's ethics from a Roman Catholic perspective. Focusing particularly on Barth's ethics of creation in the Church Dogmatics, Rose reclaims Barth from a number of misinterpretations and presents Barth's account of the good life within his distinctively Christian metaphysics. Among the most provocative of Rose's claims is that Barth sees the Christian life as guided by reason and nature, an interpretation that finds Barth in conversation with ancient and medieval ethical theories about the nature of human happiness. A significant contribution to Barth studies and current debates in contemporary Christian theology.

Barth sheds valuable light on the connection between metaphysics and ethics the trinitarian dimensions of Christian moral thought the nature of the divine good the role of Christian philosophy Barth's conception of moral reasoning and his views on eudaimonism and the natural law 1st and 2nd Corinthians Practical Christianity Foundation,2014-02-04 The apostle Paul admonishes the Corinthian church to consider the value of Christ's redemption and realign their thinking with God's instructions Judaism and the West Robert Erlewine,2016-08-08 Grappling with the place of Jewish philosophy at the margin of religious studies Robert Erlewine examines the work of five Jewish philosophers Hermann Cohen Martin Buber Franz Rosenzweig Abraham Joshua Heschel and Joseph Soloveitchik to bring them into dialogue within the discipline Emphasizing the tenuous place of Jews in European and particularly German culture Erlewine unapologetically contextualizes Jewish philosophy as part of the West He teases out the antagonistic and overlapping attempts of Jewish thinkers to elucidate the philosophical and cultural meaning of Judaism when others sought to deny and even expel Jewish influences By reading the canon of Jewish philosophy in this new light Erlewine offers insight into how Jewish thinkers used religion to assert their individuality and modernity Humanity in the Mystery of God Jennifer Cooper,2009-06-30 Schillebeeckx's theology is a reflection on the nature of God who is both creator and redeemer his theology is a treatise on the God who is God for humanity This means of course that his theology is always both a reflection on the nature of God and on the meaning of humanity and hence there is a theological anthropology at the centre of his whole theological enterprise The definition of humanity is given in the relationship between the mystery of God the God who is both transcendent and immanent and the mystery of humanity For Schillebeeckx the meaning of humanity is revealed and established in the mystery of God as a vocation to intimacy with God This intimacy is described both as a dependence upon God and as a situated freedom and hence the description of humanity which emerges from Schillebeeckx's treatise on God holds together humanity's metaphysical and moral significance At the heart of this theocentric anthropology is its christological structure Schillebeeckx develops a sacramental christology in light of his interpretation of Christ's incarnation The relation of incarnation to the death resurrection and glorification of Christ establishes a sacramental theological anthropology The meaning of humanity is given in its creative salvific sanctifying participative and personal relation to the God who is God both of creation and of covenant This book develops an interpretation of Schillebeeckx's theological anthropology by analysing his theology of revelation and grace and by examining the christological structure of his theology This christology centres on an interpretation of the incarnation in which the fully personal nature of Christ's humanity is key This christology establishes the sacramental nature of humanity and hence Schillebeeckx's description of the meaning of human nature is also a theological description of the meaning of human action Christian Theology Alister E.
