God Zen And The Intuition Of Being:

God, Zen, and the Intuition of Being Jim Arraj, 1988-01-01 The Kundalini Process: A Christian Perspective Philip St. Romain, 2017-10-14 In this book author and spiritual director Philip St Romain presents an understanding of the kundalini process that can help Christians recognize its signs and its place in the spiritual life Following up on his earlier work Kundalini Energy and Christian Spirituality A Pathway to Growth and Healing Philip uses the philosophy of St Thomas Aquinas and more modern approaches to human nature to explain how kundalini is a natural process that is designed to integrate all of the levels of our human nature in deep union with God He notes that this process is at work in all of us at a very low and gentle level but that it can become intensified in certain conditions presenting major challenges and blessings for those who experience such activations This book is sure to help pastors spiritual directors and anyone interested in spiritual growth come to a better understanding of the mysterious transformative power that lies deep within all of us Is There a Solution to the Catholic Debate on Contraception? topics this book explores Thomas Merton's role as a pioneer of Buddhist Christian dialogue and monastic interreligious dialogue. It delves into the process of Merton's self-transformation through contemplative experiences, explores his encounter with Zen and Tibetan Buddhists, and his pioneering engagements in Buddhist Christian dialogue, and presents and responds to the criticisms of those who raise questions about Merton's understanding of Buddhism. Fr. Jaechan Anselmo Park OSB articulates and analyzes the influences of Buddhist theory and practice on Thomas Merton's contemplative spirituality and shows how Merton's legacy has influenced and continues to inspire interreligious and inter-monastic dialogue, particularly in an Asian monastic context.

Philosophy as Metanoetics Hajime Tanabe, 1986. A milestone in Japan's post-war philosophical thought and a dramatic turning point in Tanabe's own philosophy. Philosophy as Metanoetics calls for nothing less than a complete and radical rethinking of the philosophical task itself. It is a powerful original work showing vast erudition in all areas of both Eastern and Western thought.

Spreading Indra's Net D. T. Suzuki, 2025-08-26. D. T. Suzuki's 1950s lectures at Columbia University were foundational for the postwar Zen boom. Speaking softly in a bookcase-lined room, Suzuki then in his eighties introduced East Asian Buddhism to a rapt audience of the general public, scholars, and students. He offered a distinctive interpretation of Zen, weaving together his understanding of classical Buddhist texts, especially the Flower Garland Sutra, with Christian mysticism, psychology, and twentieth-century European and American philosophy. The freewheeling lectures captivated listeners drawn from the New York intelligentsia and art world, including Carolyn Brown, John Cage, Arthur Danto, Sari Dienes, Erich Fromm, Phillip Guston, Ibram Lassaw, and Dorothy Norman, and catalyzed public interest in Buddhism. Spreading Indra's Net presents Suzuki's 1952-1953 lectures in full, giving a vivid look at how one of the most important global Buddhist figures of the twentieth century interpreted Zen for an American audience. Drawing on archival research in Japan and the United States, editor Richard M. Jaffe provides an extensive introduction that traces Suzuki's path to Columbia, analyzes the content of the lectures, and surveys their reception. Among the most accessible works of a major figure and a record of a crucial moment in New York history, this book displays Suzuki's gifts as a teacher, scholar, writer, and thinker.

Inner and Outer Meanings of Buddhism Singh M. Parashar, 2016-11-04. Buddha's concept of no-self is correct and superior to the old Hindu concept of a permanent, eternal, and unchanging self. God, freedom of will, immortality, and the law of karma (moral retribution) are the things in themselves. These things in themselves belong to the transcendent realm of noumena. These things are not governed by the causal chain of the world of senses. The outer meanings of many concepts of Buddhism are different from their inner meanings. Mind is a physical thing like mercury, and the human body is like a glass tube containing mercury. Mind is active as well as passive. Existence is prior to essence. There is no transcendent aesthetic. There is only a phenomenal aesthetic. The sense of space is created by the inverse square law. The light of the absolute goes on decreasing as we move from the mother to the family, from the family to the society, and from the society to the state. According to the inner meanings, the twelve links of the dependent origination are actually made of three separate and independent chains Nirvana and many other concepts of Buddhism are unknowable and inconceivable An attempt has been made to make the inconceivable concepts as conceivable In the Twilight with God Benjamin W.

Farley,2014-11-19 Granted that God may exist how may God be defined in our time Addressing this issue Benjamin Farley explores a variety of belief systems Western and Eastern religious and skeptical Taking an approach that is both critical of religion as well as sympathetic Farley refuses to shy away from hard questions or to dismiss constructive answers that speak to the human condition He distinguishes human intellectual ascent towards God from humankind s innate and inner sense to know and relate to the living God demonstrating the efforts and rewards of both approaches in Christianity as well as in Hinduism Buddhism Taoism and Zen Alongside these more obviously religious approaches Farley reviews the methodologies and findings of today s greatest scientific minds including skeptics such as Hawking Dawkins and Wilson as well as their skeptical forerunners of the past He argues that belief in God can no more ignore the scientific truth about the universe than science can dismiss the spiritual yearnings and hunger of humanity for purpose meaning and its inescapable sense of the presence of God The Becoming of God Roland Faber,2017-04-06 How should we believe in God today If we look beyond our little lives to the vast cosmos we may even ask Why all that And even if we spiritually feel the universe Why believe any religion After all there are many and haven t they contributed to the predicament of humanity Process theology gives provocative answers to these questions how we are bound by the organic cycles of this world but how in this web of life God shines even in the last least and forgotten event as the Eros of its becoming and as its mirror of greatness why anything exists because it is from beauty for harmony and intensity and through a consciousness of peace rising from our deepest intuitions of existence We can change not only in our thoughts and lives but even in the way we experience this world This book introduces such a new way of experiencing thinking and living Based on the fascinating work on cosmology religion and civilization of Alfred North Whitehead this book develops the main theses of process theology and elucidates it as a theopoetics of mutual care for the unexpected the excluded the forgotten and a future society of peace The Literary

New Age David K. Clark, Norman L. Geisler, 2004-06-21 Many books have successfully defended Christianity against Western rational skepticism Apologetics in the New Age represents the first serious attempt by evangelical philosophers to answer Eastern pantheism in general and the New Age movement in particular Teaming up with David Clark Norman Geisler one of evangelicalism's leading apologists probes the pantheistic worldview and its relationship to the New Age movement Pantheism the authors write constitutes the soil in which the movement grows The notion that every person participates in the divine has found fertile expression in contemporary American culture The American consciousness of the Eastern alternative has risen rapidly in the last few decades the authors remind us Christian apologists have been caught unaware For this reason we believe that Christian apologists must turn their attention in a new direction by developing new arguments for this New Age

Thomas Merton's Dark Path William H. Shannon, 1987-03-01 In the mystical tradition the dark or apophatic way has a long history It is the way of John of the Cross of Meister Eckhart of Julian of Norwich of the anonymous author of The Cloud of Unknowing and of Thomas Merton This dark path of contemplation that Merton followed wrote about extensively and considered the focal point of his life is the subject of William H Shannon's book

Confronting Capital and Empire Viren Murthy, Fabian Schäfer, Max Ward, 2017-07-10 Confronting Capital and Empire inquires into the relationship between philosophy politics and capitalism by rethinking Kyoto School philosophy in relation to history The Kyoto School was an influential group of Japanese philosophers loosely related to Kyoto Imperial University's philosophy department including such diverse thinkers as Nishida Kitaro Tanabe Hajime Nakai Masakazu and Tosaka Jun Confronting Capital and Empire presents a new perspective on the Kyoto School by bringing the school into dialogue with Marx and the underlying questions of Marxist theory The volume brings together essays that analyse Kyoto School thinkers through a Marxian and/or critical theoretical perspective asking in what ways did Kyoto School thinkers engage with their historical moment What were the political possibilities immanent in their thought And how does Kyoto School philosophy speak to the pressing historical and political questions of our own moment
