or is Jesus life in its rawest form Jesus death was never about sin management but about the whole created order being restored and redeemed Jesus died 2 000 years ago but still today he invites us to join him in this mass resurrection project which involves following him to our death so that we might be resurrected in him The church was never intended to be a group of people meeting to worship but a living community of people all dying to themselves so that Jesus would be alive in them and that they would then bring life to others Practising Resurrection looks at how the resurrection of Christ is played out in the world everyday It is an encouragement and a hope that there is a redeeming power at work in the world today
