Donahue, 2007-04-01 In each of our lives at one time or another there may have been instances when we've needed the comfort of a loved one or just the reassurance that everything would be alright Whispers of Faith is a collection of poems written to generate a sense of knowing that no matter what circumstance you may be going through there is Someone who is able to help you get through it These poems touch and explore various aspects of our everyday lives They not only encourage us to reflect on our spiritual lives but they encourage us to take a look at the world around us These poems also challenge us to reflect on the paths we have taken as well as the path in which we are headed Following are excerpts from a few poems contained in this volume

Whispers Sometimes I feel lonely that I just don't belong And God whispers to me I'll help you be strong Sometimes I feel angry when people aren't just And God whispers to me Just where is your trust Sometimes when I'm feeling that God isn't near Then He whispers and says I'm always right here

Take A Little Time My days were dark and troubled my heart was full of pain My mind was being told that my works were all in vain I struggled for a time cause I couldn't see the way I tried things on my own but I had to stop and pray Whenever you're in despair and you can't see the way Just stop what you're doing and take a little time to pray That Sunrise I've never seen a sunrise like the one I saw today It made me see the splendor of God's majestic array There were no words to describe the way it made me feel There was a sense of humbling which my spirit had to yield If I would ever see God beyond my physical eyes And see Him with my Spirit He was there in that sunrise
