Ghostly Parallels Randolph Runyon, 2006 America's most eminent man of letters in his later years and certainly one of the greatest Southern writers Robert Penn Warren has increasingly come to be known for his poetry Ghostly Parallels is a close examination of the heart of his poetic corpus the eight collections published between 1935 and 1976 Thirty Six Poems Eleven Poems on the Same Theme Promises You Emperors and Others Tale of Time Incarnations Or Else and Can I See Arcturus from Where I Stand Ghostly Parallels shows how Warren constructed collections of poems based on common subjects and contexts and also contends that while the poems are distinctive taken together they reveal intricate patterns of theme imagery and diction within explicit sequences Runyon demonstrates that Warren's collections are integrated well crafted wholes and each poem references its predecessor sometimes in intriguingly self-referential ways Runyon shows that despite the many changes in diction tone and subject that Warren underwent in his long career his concern for writing his poems in such a way that they could reach out beyond themselves to other poems remained remarkably constant In the arrangement Warren gave them his poems form ghostly parallels an expression that appears in The Return An Elegy where they refer to the railroad tracks that bring the poet home to his dying mother This return to the mother is a persistent leitmotif in the poems and forms the other major theme of this study Warren's personal poetic myth in which such images as golden light and mirror images are signs of the mother's presence as both Danae mother of Perseus and Medusa whom Perseus confronted Through pursuing sequential patterns as well as echoes and myth GhostlyParallels brings a wealth of insights to the work of this prolific novelist critic and essayist An important guide for undergraduate and graduate students alike Ghostly Parallels will also appeal to anyone with an interest in Robert Penn Warren and southern literature Catalog of Copyright Entries. Matthew and the Margins Warren Carter, 2005-02-15 This detailed commentary presents the gospel of matthew as a counter narrative showing that it is a work of resistance written from and for a minority community of disciples committed to Jesus the agent of God s saving presence It was written and functions to shape the identity and lifestyle of the early community of jesus followers as an alternative community that can resist the dominant authorities both in rome and in the synagogue The Gospel anticipates the time when Jesus will return and establish God s reign over all including the powers in Rome
